

KPCC + KUOR Quarterly Programming Report
October - December 2007
Key	Program Title	Date	Time	Guest(s)
POLI	Many GOP Voters in CA in turmoil	10/1/07	3:48	Stoltze
ENT	Larry Mantle talks with Academy and Tony award-winning actor Joel Grey about his photography exhibit now running at the Frank Pictures Gallery in Santa Monica, "Looking Hard, An Exhibition of Large Format Abstract Photographs."	10/1/07	20:00	Joel Grey
ART	FDA considering ruling that the product must have real cocoa butter in it to be labeled "chocolate"	10/1/07	12:09	Gary Guittard
ENV	City calls for an hour no unnecessary lights to encourage environmental-consciousness	10/1/07	15:12	Brian Scott, Wendy Greuel
POLI	A look at the current status of the Supreme Court, its expected conservative trend and what will happen in 2009, when six of the nine justices will be over 70 yrs old	10/1/07	25:09	Lawrence Tribe, Douglas Kmiec
POLI	How much do you remember from your elementary school civics class?	10/1/07	40:00	Chris Rhatigan
HIST	Interview with the man who broke the sound barrier 60 yrs ago and with aviation and space exploration experts at Edward's Air Force Base	10/1/07	52:30	General Chuck Yeager, Mat Kaplan, James Young
POLI	According to new findings by the California Coastal Commission, the proposed six-lane Foothill South toll road through San Onofre State Beach would violate state laws designed to regulate development and protect the environment.	10/1/07	30:00	Lance MacLean, James Birkelund
POLI	The Homeland Security Presidential Directive #12 is one of a series of Executive Orders signed by President Bush in 2004	10/1/07	30:00	Robert Nelson
SCI	In his latest book, Harvard psychology professor Steven Pinker looks at language and what it tells us about the way we think	10/1/07	30:00	Steven Pinker
LIT	It's been said that the Canadian identity is defined by the degree of separation from the influence of the United States.	10/2/07	20:00	David T. Jones
ART	Director and writer Wes Anderson is the creative mind behind some of the most critically acclaimed films of the last decade.	10/2/07	20:00	Wes Anderson
HIST	The Wende Museum in Culver City holds a retrospective on the Berlin Wall, complete with photos and actual concrete sections.	10/2/07	10:30	Justinian Jampol
LIT	Journalist Peter Gwin dares to venture into the dark seas to explore the life of a pirate.	10/2/07	12:15	Peter Gwin
POLI	Patt gets the latest from the Blackwater hearings.	10/2/07	13:20	John Broder
HIST	50 years ago this week that the Russians shocked the U.S. by launching the first man-made satellite.	10/2/07	28:40	Sergei Kruschev, Blain Baggett, Erik Conway
LAW	City looking at new programs to make parents responsible for rise of graffiti and to involve more community-members	10/2/07	40:13	Andrew Blankstein, Eric Garcetti, Lee Baca
LAB	Larry Mantle talks with guests about the affect of the Court Interpreters strike on the Los Angeles County Courts.	10/2/07	30:00	Alex Abella, Alan Parachini, Ramon Quintana
ENV	Opposition is building to a plan by the ports of Los Angeles and Long Beach to clean up dirty trucks.	10/2/07	30:00	John Husing, Peter J. Gatti, S. David Freeman, Colleen Callahan
IMM	Federal immigration officials announce largest raid ever	10/3/07	3:03	Guzman
ART	Interview profile of Clarence McDonald, famous pop keyboardist and producer	10/3/07	3:21	Rabe
FOR	Larry talks with guests about the latest developments in Myanmar, where thousands have reportedly been detained for participating in protests against the Government.	10/3/07	20:00	Simon Montlake, Jared Genser
HOUS	Mayor Villaraigosa, LAPD Chief William Bratton and City Attorney Rocky Delgadillo held a news conference this morning to announce third-quarter crime statistics and efforts to reduce violent crime in Skid Row.	10/3/07	05:40	Frank Stolze

ENV	What will it take to change our automotive desires - are we driving the cars, or are the cars driving us?	10/3/07	13:00	Joseph White
HEAL	The Latino Behavioral Health Institute holds a conference in Los Angeles to discuss how best to reach this population and address its needs.	10/3/07	39:30	Luis Zayas, Margarita Alegria, Luz Chacon
LIT	In his new book, The Argument Matt Bai, The New York Times Magazine writer examines the Democratic Party's future prospects and current dilemmas.	10/3/07	40:00	Matt Bai
IMM	The Immigration and Customs Enforcement agency held a news conference in LA today to announce results of a two-week sweep of immigrants who have criminal records or have ignored deportation orders.	10/3/07	46:50	Adolfo Guzman Lopez, Jim Hayes, Lee Baca, Louis Desipio, Nicholas Espiritu
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with Jack Shaw, Capitol Hill reporter for Marketnews International about the proposed war surtax, and President Bush's veto of the state children's health insurance program.	10/3/07	30:00	Jack Shaw
LGB	Close to 100 gay rights organizations sent a letter to Congress Monday announcing they would not support a bill that protects gays and lesbians from workplace discrimination but does not include transgender people.	10/3/07	30:00	Linda Sanchez, Jon Davidson
COPS	Lockdown in Orange County jail approaches 3 weeks	10/4/07	2:12	Watt
COPS	Lockdown in Orange County jail approaches 3 weeks	10/4/07	2:15	Watt
ART	Larry Mantle talks with President and CEO of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Association about the upcoming season at the Walt Disney Concert Hall.	10/4/07	10:00	Deborah Borda
ART	Avenue Q , the Tony Award winning musical starring puppets and humans, is playing at the Ahmanson Theatre.	10/4/07	20:00	Christian Anderson, Robert McClure
OBIT	Don Barrett of LARadio.com joins Patt Morrison to remember the influential L.A. broadcaster.	10/4/07	05:35	Don Barrett, R.J. Curtis, Craig Curtis
LAW	The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department is in some trouble for not following the old adage, "Work and play don't mix."	10/4/07	11:25	Merrick Bobb
ART	Christopher Trumbo tells the story of his father Dalton Trumbo in the new documentary, Trumbo .	10/4/07	12:05	Christopher Trumbo
POLI	After Alberto Gonzales arrived in February of 2005, the department issued a secret memo that explicitly authorized painful physical and psychological tactics to be used against terror suspects.	10/4/07	14:50	Ron Elving
LAW	Market for fake high-end audio products, prescription drugs, car brakes and even, gulp, airplane parts, and they're getting harder and harder to spot.	10/4/07	26:10	Caroline Joiner, David Colker
ENT	Patt talks to the players in the negotiations and finds out what's at stake.	10/4/07	34:50	Richard Verrier, Patric Verrone, Nick Counter
POLI	Larry discusses the Lynwood City Council Meeting on Tuesday night where recalled City Council members refused to relinquish their seats to the newly elected members.	10/4/07	30:00	Hector Becerra, Mayor Louis Byrd, Hector de la Torre, Anthony Willoughby
HEAL	Close to two dozen Los Angeles hospitals are in bad financial shape and in danger of going bankrupt, according to a recent L.A. Times story.	10/4/07	30:00	Jim Lott, Carol Meyer, Rob Fuller
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with the authors of a new book that explores the latest science on the mind/body connection.	10/4/07	30:00	Sandra Blakeslee, Mark Blakeslee
LAW	Skid Row a year after safer cities	10/5/07	3:36	Stoltze
ART	Larry Mantle talks with director Tony Kaye about his new documentary film, Lake of Fire that takes on the controversial topic of abortion.	10/5/07	20:00	Tony Kaye
LIT	Community activists and church leaders are urging people to buy books at the store.	10/5/07	07:50	Tom Hamilton, Karen Grigsby Bates
SAC	Gov Schwarzenegger and Los Angeles Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa have appointed gang czar's on the state and local level to develop strategies to curb gang violence.	10/5/07	30:00	Paul Seave, Jeff Carr
ENT	Radiohead is charging only a small transaction fee of roughly one dollar, and then asks that customers either make a donation or pay nothing at all to access the album.	10/5/07	32:50	Eric Garland, Tony Sachs

SPOR	Marion Jones, the latest in a string of famous athletes who have been investigated for their use of the human growth hormone.	10/5/07	33:50	Luis Fernando Llosa, Anita DeFrantz, Dan Migala
ART	Larry and critics Henry Sheehan of henrysheehan.com, and Claudia Puig, of USA Today , discuss the week's new releases including the feature films Michael Clayton, The Heartbreak Kid, Lust/Caution, The Darjeeling Limited, The Seeker: The Dark Is Rising, In Between Days, Resilience, and the documentaries My Kid Could Paint That, and Kurt Cobain About a Son.	10/5/07	40:00	Henry Sheehan, Claudia Puig
EDU	Larry is joined by a panel of community leaders for a conversation on the role of charter schools in the future of the Los Angeles Unified School District.	10/5/07	1 hour	Myrna Castrejón, A.J. Duffy, Eric Premack, Dr. Brian Stecher
POL	Father Greg Boyle on Homeboy Industries' new HQ	10/6/07	2:52	Father Greg Boyle
ART	LAX pylon lights, John with artist Paul Tzanetopoulos	10/6/07	2:55	Paul Tzanetopoulos
SCI	Patt Morrison with UC Riverside spider expert Cheryl Hayashi, winner of Genius grant	10/6/07	3:26	UC Riverside spider expert Cheryl Hayashi
COM	Off-Ramp commentators Angela Shelton and Frances Callier say neighborhoods are alive in well in Los Angeles.	10/6/07	3:30	Angela Shelton and Frances Callier
HIST	Famous Hollywood street named for dead woman	10/6/07	3:50	Felde
SPORT	Kitty Felde on Wes Parker, Dodgers Golden Glove first baseman.	10/6/07	4:29	Wes Parker
MUS	Jonathan Haas, tympanist, on his concert with Pasadena Symphony	10/6/07	4:39	Jonathan Haas
SCI	Doualy Xaykaothao at Natural History Museum's Spider Pavilion w/Brett Karner.	10/6/07	4:39	Brett Karner
FOOD	Spend five minutes with KPCC staffers as they teach you children's rhymes in Spanish, Polish, German, Armenian, and Korean.	10/6/07	10:00	Joe and Heather D'Augustine
TRANS	Tiny street named for man who did a lot for Huntington Park	10/7/07	3:21	Felde
CONS	Water bills to go up 10% or more	10/8/07	2:20	Keith
DIS	Sandra Tsing Loh has a warning before your next blind date...	10/8/07	2:51	Loh
SCI	Teachers take microgravity flight	10/8/07	3:37	Julian
EDU	Teachers conducting experiments in weightless environment	10/8/07	3:54	Julian
POLI	Growing number of Californians decline political party	10/8/07	4:27	Felde
ART	Art & Ideas is a Pasadena area based collaborative of arts, science, and cultural organizations that engages the Southern California community by creating provocative issue-based arts festivals.	10/8/07	10:00	Terry LeMoncheck
ENT	The 11 th Los Angeles Latino International Film Festival opened last night (SUNDAY) and continues at the ArcLight through Sunday, Oct. 14 th .	10/8/07	10:00	Edward James Olmos
EDU	The Catholic Diocese of San Diego is asking parishioners and priests to make contributions to help pay for the recent $198.1 million sexual abuse settlement.	10/8/07	20:00	Charles Zech
FOR	Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Olmert and Palestinian Authority President Mahmoud Abbas are both gearing up for a US-sponsored peace conference scheduled for next month.	10/8/07	20:00	Ilene Prusher
HIST	In the 1950s, a map was discovered: a drawing by the Vikings of the same terrain, dating back to 1440, some 50 years before Columbus' arrival.	10/8/07	06:30	Kirsten Seaver
ART	The Orange County Museum of Art takes a close look at this seminal period with their exhibit Birth of the Cool , which features 150 examples of architecture, photography, paintings, music and design with the true spirit of "cool."	10/8/07	18:10	Elizabeth Armstrong, Michael Boyd
ECON	Los Angeles city government is trying to complete a transfer of $30 million from the DWP to the City's general fund; and Mayor Villaraigosa is trying to put a measure on February's ballot that will authorize the continuation of a $270 million telephone users utility tax.	10/8/07	22:55	Jeff Jacobberger, Bernard Parks, Chris Weinkoph
POLI	Patt discusses patriotism in the U.S. and the significance of wearing, or not wearing, flag pins.	10/8/07	23:00	Nick Snider

LIT	Author and columnist David Harsanyi tackles twinkle fascists, bonehead bureaucrats, anti-porn crusaders, and the death of unregulated fun.	10/8/07	34:15	David Harsanyi
POLI	The Los Angeles Times reported last week that the Democratic Speaker of the Assembly, Fabian Nunez, has spent tens of thousands of campaign dollars at high-end restaurants, retailers and trips to Europe.	10/8/07	30:00	Nancy Vogel, Bob Stern
LIT	A new study shows that many young people perceive modern Christianity as too political, anti-homosexual, and hypocritical.	10/8/07	30:00	David Kinnaman,, Gabe Lyons
IE	Riverside County ROV test voting equipment for first election after e-vote ban	10/9/07	2:47	Cuevas
LAW	LAPD ISSUE REPORT ON MACARTHUR PARK	10/9/07	3:34	Stoltze
ENT	Academic finds that more black comics dealing with black-latino relations in routines	10/9/07	3:49	Guzman
ENT	Movie producers are crying foul at the bloated lists of producer credits on films – everyone from hairstylists to agents to a middleman who simply introduces two people.	10/9/07	06:30	Alex Ben Block
ECON	California's top lawmakers are unable to reach a compromise on what to do about the state's water system crisis.	10/9/07	06:55	Harrison Sheppard
SPOR	Nick gets the lowdown on the upcoming season.	10/9/07	07:00	Chris Manno
IMM	The debate over illegal immigration has invaded the normally apolitical 2010 census and the ramifications could be huge.	10/9/07	32:05	Orlando J. Rodriguez, Rosalind Gold, Steven Camarota
LAW	It's been five months since LAPD officers clashed with protesters and journalists at MacArthur Park during a May 1st immigration rally, and the long awaited police report released today.	10/9/07	52:30	Bill Bratton, Jack Weiss, Gladys Limon, Frank Stoltze
ENT	If you hate re-runs or reality show, your television-watching days may be numbered.	10/9/07	30:00	Alex Ben Block, Sr.
HIST	Larry Mantle talks with Sam Watters, author of Houses of Los Angeles 1995-1935 .	10/9/07	30:00	Sam Watters
DIV	The Tournament of Roses Parade is a local institution and an event watched around the world.	10/9/07	30:00	Shizhong Chen, Mayor Bill Bogaard, Tseten Phanucharas
HIST	Larry Mantle talks with the author of the new book, Red Moon Rising: Sputnik and the Hidden Rivalries That Ignited the Space Age about the 50 th anniversary of the launch of Sputnik and the rivalry between the U.S and the Soviet Union in the space race.	10/9/07	30:00	Matthew Brzezinski
POLI	Governor Schwarzenegger unveils proposal for fixing health care system	10/10/07	2:11	Myers
HIST	Today, the House Foreign Affairs Committee will consider a resolution that would declare the massacre of hundreds of thousands of Armenians in World War I-era Turkey genocide.	10/10/07	12:00	Jack Shaw
ECON	Superintendent Brewer is proposing a radical idea to overhaul LAUSD's lower-performing schools by creating a separate, targeted district for 44 of the neediest schools.	10/10/07	11:00	Jaime Regalado, David Tokofsky
HEAL	High numbers were expected, but the actual figures shocked even the researchers, who found an estimated one million young Californians had a sexually transmitted disease in 2005.	10/10/07	34:40	Petra Jerman, Dr. Jonathan Fielding
LIT	Halberstam's friends and colleagues, Robert MacNeil and Gay Talese join Patt Morrison to talk about his last book and his illustrious career.	10/10/07	50:25	Robert MacNeil, Gay Talese
POLI	A few months ago Democratic leaders were very critical of Bush administration and Justice Department decisions to authorize NSA wiretaps of US citizens without a warrant.	10/10/07	30:00	Xavier Becerra, Marc Cooper, Chris Lehane
LIT	In his new book, Supercapitalism , Robert Reich argues that while capitalism in the U.S. has grown increasingly efficient, democracy has been suffering.	10/10/07	1 hour	Robert B. Reich
HOME	City of LA will allow homeless people to sleep on street	10/11/07	2:48	Jahad
SACTO	A tiny fish launches a big crisis over water in California	10/11/07	4:04	Small

MEDI	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and OC Weekly senior editorial writer and columnist, Gustavo Arellano, about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	10/11/07	10:00	William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
POLI	Yesterday, a federal district judge issued a preliminary injunction blocking the Department of Homeland Security's plan to use the Social Security Administration's database to crack down on businesses that may be employing undocumented immigrants.	10/11/07	12:00	Steve Camarota, Monica Guizar
POLI	Sometimes language really counts... the use of the word "genocide" can have important implications for foreign policy and the possibility of reparations.	10/11/07	12:00	Steve Dadaian, Ara Khachatourian
ART	The highlights of the week will include designers with collections that are organic and ecologically conscious, and the organizers of the event are seeking to reduce its impact on the environment.	10/11/07	08:50	Davis Factor
ECON	A survey revealed we all aspired to live beyond our means, as risky subprime mortgages were made in nearly every corner of the nation, from small towns to urban neighborhoods and highly affluent suburbs.	10/11/07	18:15	Rick Brooks
MIL	Senior Marine Corps officers and other Defense Department officials have been discussing the possible re-deployment of U.S. Marine Corps forces from Iraq to Afghanistan.	10/11/07	19:45	Tony Perry
LIT	The Rejection Collection Vol. 2: The Cream of the Crap (Simon and Schuster), is the best of the worst cartoons submitted to the New Yorker .	10/11/07	46:50	Matthew Diffee
ENT	Larry Mantle talks with Cheryl Heuton, creator and executive producer of the hit CBS television drama Numbers .	10/11/07	1 hour	Cheryl Heuton, Gary Lorden
ENV	Former Vice President, Al Gore, along with the United Nations' Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize today (FRI) for his efforts in combating global warming.	10/12/07	12:00	Ambassador Wegder Strommen, Martin Parry, Kenneth Green
ENV	When is it time to replace your old refrigerator?	10/12/07	12:00	Jennifer Thorne Amann
ENT	We're taking a humorous look back at the week in politics and current events, and a look ahead at the absurdities yet to come.	10/12/07	46:00	Ben Gleib, Wayne Federman
ART	The fifth in a series of novels that began in 1985 with Lake Wobegon Days (Viking), Pontoan tells the story of a simple town where the inhabitants find themselves in complex and comical situations as they confront the absurdities found in marriage, death, betrayal and grief.	10/12/07	50:30	Garrison Keillor
ENT	Larry and critics Andy Klein of CityBeat and Jean Oppenheimer, of Village Voice Media, discuss the week's new releases including the feature films Elizabeth: The Golden Age , Sleuth , We Own the Night , Lars and the Real Girl , Berkeley , The Final Season , Summer '04 , and the documentaries For the Bible Tells Me So , Lake of Fire , and Terror's Advocate .	10/12/07	1 hour	Andy Klein, Jean Oppenheimer
TRANS HIST	Town founders missed their hometown	10/13/07	3:42	Felde
TRANS	Sleepy street great place to rest	10/14/07	4:00	Felde
TRANS	Patricia Nazario live on I5 Truck crash	10/15/07	2:13	Nazario
POLI	Commission working to re-vamp campaign spending reports	10/15/07	2:15	O'Mara
TRANS	I-5 crash aftermath and commuter nightmare	10/15/07	2:20	Nazario
POLI	Latino voters loom large in upcoming presidential primary	10/15/07	3:41	Felde
SAC	Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger signed and vetoed many bills over the weekend.	10/15/07	10:00	Steve Geissinger, Dan Walters
LIT	What do the nominees say about our current times and culture? Veronique De Turenne, LA-based writer and book critic, weighs in.	10/15/07	07:40	Veronique De Turenne
HEAL	In a move that could help individuals with a mild cognitive impairment slow or limit neurological damage, a team of international scientists has created a blood test that may detect the onset of Alzheimer's disease.	10/15/07	18:30	Patrick Lynn

TRAN	Transportation officials give us an update about the status of the road and the economic impact this will have on Angelinos.	10/15/07	21:00	Julie Sauls, Jack Kyser, Nick Roman, Frank Stoltze
TRAN	The southbound Golden State (5) Freeway, the scene of a horrific truck crash in the Newhall Pass was reopened in time for Monday's commute. Two men and a boy were killed and 10 people were injured in a pileup of about 30 vehicles Friday night on a rain-slick truck route beneath the freeway connecting the southbound 5 Freeway with the Antelope Valley (14) Freeway.	10/15/07	40:00	Frank Stoltze, Doualy Xaykaothao, Douglas Failing, Jim Moore
LIT	Arguing that the attacks have resurrected old ideas about traditional gender roles, Faludi explores notions of cowboy bravado and feminine frailty in the media, popular culture and political life.	10/15/07	45:30	Suan Faludi
LIT	The debate over the separation of church and state in the U.S. has existed as long as the country itself.	10/15/07	1 hour	Forrest Church
OC	Farmers deal with freeway headache to get to market	10/16/07	2:03	Valot
OC	Farmers deal with freeway headache to get to markets	10/16/07	2:03	Valot
TRANS	Caltrans gives update on Newhall tunnel fire	10/16/07	3:16	Felde
HOUS	Lary talks with John Karevoll of DataQuick Information Systems about the decline in home sales in Southern California.	10/16/07	12:00	John Karevoll
LAB	California labor unions are set to campaign against Governor Schwarzenegger's healthcare plan, stating that it is too expensive for workers.	10/16/07	12:00	Daniel Zingali, Anastasia Ordonez
FOR	Patt speaks with Shakeri about his time in prison.	10/16/07	11:40	Ali Shakeri
TRAN	In an effort to ease traffic congestion, Mayor Villaraigosa, Governor Schwarzenegger and Speaker Nunez announced a plan today to synchronize every traffic light in Los Angeles.	10/16/07	14:00	Rita Robinson
ECON	Companies are testing new office layouts designed with the hope of utilizing space more efficiently and improving productivity. Some of the arrangements include lounge-like settings, wireless internet, and open spaces so employees can communicate more freely.	10/16/07	25:40	Michelle Conlin, Betty Hase, Dev Patnaik
POLI	The ramifications of a Turkish invasion of Iraq and Congressional approval of the genocide resolution are sweeping and inter-connected. Can the U.S. preserve good relationships with all of the involved warring factions?	10/16/07	26:50	Hakan Tekin, Steven Cook, Zenyo Baran
POLI	Vicente Fox joins Patt to discuss his term in office, his patria, and his new memoir, Revolution of Hope: The Life, Faith, and Dreams of a Mexican President .	10/16/07	40:50	Vicente Fox
POLI	Bestselling author and legal analyst Jeffrey Toobin joins Larry Mantle to talk about his new book entitled The Nine: The Secret World of the Supreme Court .	10/16/07	1 hour	Jeffrey Toobin
LAW	Peace Activist comes home	10/17/07	2:49	C&C
ART	Stacey Keach plays Galileo in new production	10/17/07	3:25	Rabe
ENV	The Environmental Working Group released a report Monday stating that more than 21,300 mining claims have been staked within 10 miles of California's national parks and monuments.	10/17/07	10:00	Dusty Horwitt, Laura Skaer
HEAL	It now appears a dangerous type of staph infection is probably killing more Americans each year than AIDS.	10/17/07	12:00	Dr. Elizabeth A. Bancroft, Dr. Gregory Moran
ART	The Walt Disney Company announced that it will overhaul its California Adventure theme park to the tune of $1.1 billion.	10/17/07	12:00	Michael Lyster
POLI	Attorney general nominee Michael B. Mukasey began his confirmation hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee today, and immediately sought to reassure his questioners that he would protect Americans' constitutional rights yet still work effectively to prevent future terror attacks.	10/17/07	18:00	Jay Newton-Small
ART	Who knew theater could be so hot? Sir Ian McKellen is set to play Shakespeare's "King Lear" and Checkov's "The Seagull" in performances at UCLA.	10/17/07	29:30	Sir Ian McKellen

ART	Peter Sagal takes us on a romp through the depravities of society in search of finding out exactly what people do to have a naughty good time.	10/17/07	47:15	Peter Sagal
LIT	In his latest book, Harvard psychology professor Steven Pinker looks at language and what it tells us about the way we think. Language, he argues, reflects the very nature of our brain structure.	10/17/07	1 hour	Steven Pinker
ART	Alex Roy has been on a mission to break a 23-year-old illegal endurance-driving record by navigating from New York to Los Angeles, something he claimed to accomplish last year.	10/18/07	11:50	Alexander Roy
OBIT	Within the last few days, three show business legends have died: singer Teresa Brewer, comedian Joey Bishop and actress Deborah Kerr.	10/18/07	17:00	Leonard Maltin
LAW	Battles over the drug trade between black street gang East Coast Crips and their Latino rival, Florencia 13, in the Florence-Firestone area north of Watts, have turned into what residents in the neighborhood call a "race war."	10/18/07	19:00	Sam Quinones
LAW	A just-leaked study by the Transportation Security Administration reports that security screeners at Los Angeles International Airport failed to detect about 75% of simulated explosives and bomb parts that testers hid under their clothes or in carry-on luggage.	10/18/07	19:30	Nico Malendes, Clark Ervin
HOUS	Finding Grace: The Face of America's Homeless (Palace Publishing Group), photographer Lynn Blodgett captures the images of the dispossessed in a raw and revealing form.	10/18/07	26:30	Lynn Blodgett, Christopher Gardner
HOUS	Larry talks with guests about the Mayor's affordable housing plan for Los Angeles that he unveiled yesterday.	10/18/07	1 hour	Matt Franklin, Holly Schroeder, Lisa Payne
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Robert Vare, editor at large for the Atlantic Monthly , about the new compilation of writings from magazine called The American Idea: The Best of the Atlantic Monthly; 150 Years of Writers and Thinkers Who Shaped Our History .	10/18/07	1 hour	Robert Vare
LAW	Sex offenders who can't comply with law face homelessness	10/19/07	4:00	Campbell
FOR	Former Pakistani Prime Minister Benazir Bhutto (BEN'-uh-zeer BOO'-toh) says there were two attackers in the bombing that killed at least 136 people at her homecoming celebration yesterday (THURS) in Karachi.	10/19/07	12:00	Vali Nasr
HIST	Every day people walk by something that is a direct result of Richard Pimentel's efforts: wheel chair ramps, parking spaces for the disabled, handicapped bathroom stalls, etc.	10/19/07	12:00	Richard Pimentel, Steven Sawalich
LIT	Author Ken Follett presents a time capsule into the fourteenth century and guides us through the lives of five characters, each trying to make their mark on the world.	10/19/07	11:55	Ken Follett
HEAL	In a non-binding recommendation, federal health advisors declared that over-the-counter cold and cough medicines are not effective in young children.	10/19/07	19:00	Dr. Richard Pan
POLI	Patt brings you the lean and mean version of the presidential debate, stripping away the second tier also-ran contenders, and even doing away with the candidates themselves.	10/19/07	28:05	David Axelrod, Ann Lewis
ECON	The nation's oldest member of the baby-boom generation signed up for Social Security this week, a portent of the tidal wave that will hit the retirement system in coming years.	10/19/07	34:00	David DeLong, Steve Slon
MEDI	Chris Matthews is one of the most recognizable personalities in political punditry.	10/19/07	30:00	Chris Matthews
ART	Larry and critics Henry Sheehan of henrysheehan.com , and Lael Loewenstein of Variety , discuss the week's new releases including the feature films Things We Lost in the Fire , Rendition , Reservation Road , Gone Baby Gone , and Broken , and the documentaries The Price of Sugar , and The Unknown Soldier .	10/19/07	30:00	Henry Sheehan, Lael Loewenstein
	The Hammer's Ann Philbin asks LACMA's Michael Govan why the young man came West.	10/20/07	2:24

	The Orange County Museum of Art just opened a new exhibit that looks at the flowering of modernism in 1950s California.	10/20/07	3:12
	Jeff Girod can bench-press 300 pounds but he never learned to drive a stick. And this has left him feeling like less of a man.	10/20/07	3:15
Art	Bunraku is a form of traditional Japanese puppetry performed with child-size puppets. For the first time in twenty years, the National Puppet Theater of Japan puts on a puppet show in Los Angeles.	10/20/07	3:39	Queena Kim
	Architecture critic Sam Hall Kaplan takes us to Heritage Square, one of the few places you can feel what life was like in turn-of-the-century LA.	10/20/07	3:55
	KPCC's Adolfo Guzman-Lopez, a co-founder of the Taco Shop Poets, remembers his friend John Partida.	10/20/07	4:17	Adolfo Guzman Lopez
POL	LA Times writer Ralph Vartabedian shows John the rampant abuse of disabled parking permits.	10/20/07	4:43	LA Times writer Ralph Vartabedian
Art	Tyrus Wong has two new exhibits, including one at the Academy that highlights his work in the movies. The groundbreaking Chinese artist did paintings for Bambi and The Wild Bunch.	10/20/07	4:53	Queena Kim
	Writer Cheryl Klein talks to Queena Kim about her debut collection of short stories called "Commuters."	10/20/07	5:27	Cheryl Klein
	Veteran actor Stacy Keach shares insight on Galileo. Keach plays the scientist in the Brecht/Hare play, which is being performed at the Skirball Center.	10/20/07	5:30	actor Stacy Keach
DIS	Agoura High School becomes evacuation center for Malibu fires	10/22/07	2:05	Watt
DIS	Frank Stoltze live on Buckweed fire	10/22/07	2:06	Stoltze
DIS	Frank Stoltze live on Buckweed fire	10/22/07	2:13	Stoltze
DIS	Brian Watt live on Buckweed Fire	10/22/07	2:14	Watt
DIS	Frank Stoltze live on Buckweed fire	10/22/07	2:19	Stoltze
	Sandra Tsing Loh finds the silver lining to the mortgage meltdown and housing crisis...	10/22/07	2:57	Julian
POLI	What difference does an early primary make?	10/22/07	3:07	Felde
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live on Witch Fire in San Diego County	10/22/07	4:05	Binkowski
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live on Witch Fire in San Diego County	10/22/07	4:13	Binkowski
DIS	Frank Stoltze live on Buckweed fire	10/22/07	6:02	Stoltze
LIT	Mid-century Los Angeles, with its racial diversity and the surrounding changing social dynamics, has always been one of the complex characters in Walter Mosley's popular Easy Rawlins series.	10/22/07	20:00	Walter Mosley
POLI	Guest host Jon Beaupre discusses the Latino vote both nationally, and in California, and how it will figure into the upcoming election.	10/22/07	40:00	Kenneth Burt, Jaime Regalado
DIS	Tens of thousands of acres have burned and thousands of homes are threatened as more than a dozen wildfires blaze across Southern California.	10/22/07	52:30	Steven Cuevas, Mike Dietrich, Brooke Binkowski, Tony Perry, Sharon Dewar, Inspector Ron Haralson, Frank Stoltze, Adolfo Guzman Lopez, Bill Patzert
DIS	San Diego County has been hit hardest where an estimated 250,000 people were forced to evacuate their homes.	10/22/07	52:30	Jerry Sanders, Richard Minnich, Laura Billon, Brian Watt, Doulay Xaykaothao
ENV	Guest host Jon Beaupre talks with various officials and other voices around Southern California about the wildfires.	10/22/07	1 hour	Tony Perry, Sandy Stoltze, Brooke Binkowski, Claudia Pesciutta, Frank Stoltze, Brett Anderson, Dr. Andrew Benton, Rick Dominguez, Jerry Sanders, Richard Minnich
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live from Qualcomm	10/23/07	3:08	Binkowski
DIS	Pres Bush declares state of emergency	10/23/07	3:57	Julian
POLI	Granite State old hand at primary politics	10/23/07	4:03	Felde
DIS	Steven Cuevas live on Arrowhead Fires	10/23/07	6:41	Cuevas

DIS	An estimated 500,000 people have been evacuated from their homes and more than 1,000 residencies have been destroyed.	10/23/07	52:30	Patricia Nazario, Brooke Binkowski, Julie Small, Ruben Grijalva, Rose Davis, Cliff Pearlberg, Adolfo Guzman Lopez, Joe Cassmassi
DIS	Each time California suffers catastrophic wildfires officials debate the best prevention strategies.	10/23/07	52:30	Steven Cuevas, Molly Hennessy Fiske, Jan Caldwell, Mike Davis, Stephanie Donovan, Jon Keeley, Matt McClain
ENV	Larry talks with reporters and experts about the latest on the Southern California wildfires.	10/23/07	2 hours	Carrie Kahn, Tony Perry, Captain Ian MacDonald, Steven Cuevas, Brooke Binkowski, Scott McCartney, Judy Gish, Eric Boldt, Jonathan Fielding, Inspector Rick Dominguez, Maryanne Aldrich, Dr. Merritt Schreiber, Steve Conroy
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live in Poway on Witch Fire	10/24/07	2:01	Binkowski
DIS	Steven Cuevas live on Slide Fire	10/24/07	2:13	Watt
DIS	Steven Cuevas live on Slide Fire	10/24/07	2:36	Cuevas
DIS	Steven Cuevas live on Slide Fire	10/24/07	2:41	Cuevas
DIS	Residents of Julian speak about being evacuated	10/24/07	3:04	Schmitz
DIS	Julie Small and Patricia Nazario live on wildfires	10/24/07	3:50	Small/Nazario
DIS	San Bernardino Mountain fires still raging	10/24/07	4:20	Cuevas
POLI	Advice for Californians from New Hampshire	10/24/07	4:29	Felde
ENV	Long Beach announces mandatory water restrictions	10/24/07	4:53	Baer
DIS	Patt hears from an insurance agency representative and speaks to an expert on building codes about what is being done to prevent such destruction in the future.	10/24/07	19:00	Pete DeMarco, Holly Schroeder
LAW	Police Chief William Bratton gave a vigorous condemnation of his officers' conduct at a May 1st immigration rally in MacArthur Park.	10/24/07	33:25	Chief William Bratton
DIS	An estimated 800,000 people have been evacuated, more than 1,100 homes lost, and over 420,000 acres have burned down.	10/24/07	52:30	Tony Perry, Susan Valot, David Paulison, Brooke Binkowski, State Sen. Christine Kehoe, Kevin Nida, Nick Roman
ENV	Larry Mantle provides an update on the Southern California wildfires with guests including several of our KPCC reporters stationed throughout Southern California, Tony Perry, San Diego Bureau Chief for the L.A. Times , California Insurance Commissioner Steve Poizner, John Keeley, fire ecologist for the U.S. Geological Survey, and Rochelle Jenkins of the California Office of Emergency Services, among others.	10/24/07	2 hours	Julie Small, Tony Perry, Adolfo Guzman Lopez, Colonel Dave Baldwin, Patricia Nazario, Doualy Xaykaothao, Susan Valot, Col. Baldwin, Steve Poizner, Tom York, Edward Cartagena, Jenny Redmond, John Keeley, Rochelle Jenkins
ENV	Evacuees in San Bernardino reflect on stay in Red Cross Shelter	10/25/07	2:46	Xaykaothao
DIS	Steven Cuevas, Brian Watt live on wildfires	10/25/07	2:58	Cuevas/Watt
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live from San Diego on Witch Fire	10/25/07	3:09	Binkowski
DIS	Head of FEMA visits So Cal to see wildfires firsthand	10/25/07	3:45	Stoltze
ARTS	The Sex Pistols re-form in LA and Jonesy talks about it	10/25/07	4:29	Cuevas
MEDI	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and OC Weekly senior editorial writer and columnist, Gustavo Arellano, about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	10/25/07	10:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
ENV	Patt gets an update on the Lake Arrowhead and San Diego fires.	10/25/07	11:00	Mike Dietrich, Tony Perry
ENT	The English punk rock band the Sex Pistols is back and playing in their first ever club show in L.A. tonight at the Roxy.	10/25/07	14:25	Tom DeSavia
LAW	Police in San Bernardino reported shooting and killing one arson suspect.	10/25/07	15:05	Matt Mathes, Brooke Binkowski

SEC	We talk with the Department of Homeland Security's Michael Chertoff about what kinds of federal resources will be available for California's fire victims.	10/25/07	16:45	Michael Chertoff
LIT	Slam details the life of sixteen-year-old Sam, who loves art and skateboarding.	10/25/07	23:00	Nick Hornby
ECON	The richest Americans' share of national income has hit a postwar record and the gap between the rich and the poor continues to grow.	10/25/07	24:40	Alan Blinder, Arthur C. Brooks
ENV	Larry talks about the latest on the Southern California wildfires with KPCC reporters Brian Watt and Julie Small, James Shebl of FEMA, L.A. County Supervisor Zev Yaroslavsky, Mark Ghilarducci of James Lee Witt Associates, a crisis consulting firm, and State Assemblyman Todd Spitzer.	10/25/07	50:00	Brian Watt, James Shebl, Zev Yaroslavsky, Mark Ghilarducci, Todd Spitzer, Julie Small
ECON	Why is college tuition rising faster than the rate of inflation?	10/25/07	1 hour	David Levy, Patricia Hurley, Ed. D., Robert Daly, Mike Groener
DIS	Julie Small live in El Cajon on wildfire deaths	10/26/07	2:15	Binkowski
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live in San Diego	10/26/07	2:16	Binkowski
DIS	Official death toll now stands at seven	10/26/07	2:35	Small
DIS	Brooke Binkowski live in San Diego	10/26/07	2:38	Binkowski
IE	Firefighters remember fire crew killed this day in 2006	10/26/07	2:39	Cuevas
DIS	Visit to one of the state's fire command center	10/26/07	4:06	Small
ECON	MacArthur Park gentrification drives out old business	10/26/07	4:52	Nazario
ENT	Larry talks with FilmWeek and Christian Science Monitor critic, Peter Rainer about the Middle East International Film Festival (MEIFF) which was held earlier this month (Oct. 14 – 19) in Abu Dhabi, capital of the United Arab Emirates.	10/26/07	10:00	Peter Rainer
ENV	Larry discusses updates on the Southern California wildfires with KPCC reporter Julie Small, Public Information Officer for the fires in San Bernardino County, Adrienne Freeman, and Public Information Officer for the Orange County Fire, Captain Steve Miller.	10/26/07	12:00	Julie Small, Adrienne Freeman, Captain Steve Miller
ENT	The 21 st AFI FEST will be held in Los Angeles from November 1 through 11 th .	10/26/07	12:00	Rose Kuo, Shaz Bennett
LAB	The Writers Guild of America voted 90% in favor of granting a strike authorization last Friday.	10/26/07	20:00	Alex Ben Block
LAB	Trash haulers for Waste Management Inc. went on strike last Friday, affecting many Los Angeles area residents and businesses.	10/26/07	20:00	Jay Phillips, Kit Cole
ART	A.J. Jacobs chronicles a year in his life on a hunt for spirituality, ritual and faith.	10/26/07	18:35	A.J. Jacobs
DIS	Julie Small and Nick Roman give updates on wildfires.	10/26/07	33:55	Julie Small, Nick Roman
POLI	Frank Stoltze makes the decision: with Comedy Congress, we're taking a humorous look back at the week in politics and current events, and a look ahead at the absurdities yet to come.	10/26/07	52:30	Alex Reymundo, Ahmed Ahmed, Maysoon Zayid
ENT	Larry and critics Henry Sheehan, of henrysheehan.com, and Andy Klein, of City Beat , discuss the week's new releases including the feature films Dan in Real Life , Music Within , Slipstream , If I Didn't Care , Wristcutters: A Love Story , Finishing the Game , Black Irish , 56 Drops of Blood , and the documentaries Jimmy Carter Man From Plains , and Mr. Untouchable .	10/26/07	30:00	Henry Sheehan, Andy Klein
	Sandra Tsing Loh tries to find a house in her Van Nuys neighborhood for a pair of friends...	10/29/07	2:55	Julian
ART	LA Phil starting youth orchestras	10/29/07	2:58	Kim
EDU	San Diego schools reopened yesterday	10/29/07	3:11	Toh
POLI	California Wildfires, California Initiative; Armenian Genocide	10/29/07	3:24	Shaw
POLI	What's the proper response for presidential candidates to CA fire disaster?	10/29/07	4:32	Felde
POLI	What's the proper response for presidential candidates to CA fire disaster	10/29/07	4:32	Felde
OC	Hockey fans check out SoCal teams in London	10/29/07	4:50	Valot
DIS	Updates on the Southern California wildfires.	10/29/07	20:00	Tanya Hoover, Ian McDonald, James Shebyl

FOR	Iran continues to move forward with its nuclear program, and now Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice has announced new sanctions against the country.	10/29/07	40:00	Abbas Milani, Max Boot
ART	Panelists discuss threat of a writers strike which would affect everyone in the movie and TV industry	10/29/07	52:30	Carl CiOrio, John Bowman, Jack Kyser, Siusie DeSanto, Chris McNellis, Salvatore Totino, Mark Pollack
SCI	This semester Cal State LA opened the Hertzberg-Davis Forensic Science Center: Patt discusses this and the history of and developments in the field of forensics	10/29/07	52:31	Elizabeth Devine, Barry Fisher, Don Johnson, Heather Simpson
ECON	In his new book The Conscience of a Liberal , New York Times columnist Paul Krugman argues that the current political and economic climate is ripe for radical reform, just as the country was ready for FDR's New Deal agenda during the Great Depression.	10/29/07	30:00	Paul Krugman
SCI	Larry Mantle talks with neurologist Dr. Oliver Sacks about his new book, Musicophilia: Tales of Music and the Brain (Knopf).	10/29/07	30:00	Dr. Oliver Sacks
LAW	More indictments against big south la gang	10/30/07	3:05	Stoltze
DIS	Fire information officers compile statistics and updates on fires	10/30/07	4:03	Small
SPOR	Former Dodger has a few last words of wisdom to share	10/30/07	4:34	Felde
POLI	Law enforcement officials revealed today that Orange County Sheriff Mike Carona has been indicted on charges of corruption.	10/30/07	20:00	Peggy Lowe
ENT	Owner Milt Larsen is selling Hollywood icon the Magic Castle and neighboring Yamashiro Restaurant	10/30/07	06:38	Milt Larsen
ENT	Magician and skeptic explains the science behind magic and illusion	10/30/07	18:27	James "The Amazing" Randi, Mac King
POLI	Orange County Sheriff charged with felony along with his wife and "longtime mistress"	10/30/07	21:14	Peggy Lowe, Susan Valot, Jean Pasco, Bill Hunt
ENER	DWP consider lowering power rates for Valley residents, where it's hotter	10/30/07	27:25	Robert Rozanski, Eric Gercetti, Richard Close,
LIT	Former CIA agent Valerie Plame was outed by white house officials in 2003: she tells the story of her rise in the CIA and her betrayal by the people meant to protect her	10/30/07	31:16	Valerie Plame Wilson
POLI	Jesse Unruh was one of the most powerful and influential politicians of the 20th century.	10/30/07	40:00	Bill Boyarsky
RELI	Is Christianity in danger of becoming obsolete?	10/30/07	30:00	Dinesh D'Souza, Michael Shermer
ART	Larry talks with Thomas Lynch, writer, poet and funeral director, whose family has cared for both the living and the dead in a small Michigan town, for three generations.	10/30/07	30:00	Thomas Lynch, Karen O'Connor
ENV	California's governor visits county officials for updates on fires	10/31/07	2:27	Xaykaothao
LABOR	Writers strike looms	10/31/07	2:40	Jahad
OC	OC Sheriff Mike Carona defends himself against corruption allegations	10/31/07	2:48	Valot
LABOR	Contract expires at midnight	10/31/07	3:40	Julian
LGB	San Francisco has decided in the words of Gavin Newsom to "cancel Halloween" in the Castro district due to the unruly behavior and violence by those who attend the event.	10/31/07	10:00	Jeffrey Prang, Joe D'Alessandro
RACE	Another 18 arrests were made in the second wave of a crackdown on the Florencia 13 (F13), a South L.A. gang accused of drug trafficking and shootings of African-Americans in neighborhoods the gang sought to control.	10/31/07	20:00	Peter Hernandez, Sam Quinones
YOUT	Patt talks with Dr. Francine Kaufman about the pitfalls of candy and ideas for helping your kids have a healthier and happier dose of fun tonight.	10/31/07	05:50	Dr. Francine Kaufman
POLI	The Supreme Court stayed the execution of Earl Berry, who is on death row for killing a woman 20 years ago.	10/31/07	10:31	Erwin Chemerinsky
SPOR	Will the departure of Kobe and the arrival of Torre inject a little passion into L.A.'s sports scene?	10/31/07	14:35	Peter Abraham, Bill Dwyre
LAW	OC Sheriff Mike Carona has announced he will remain at his post, despite his indictment on bribery and corruption charges.	10/31/07	27:24	Christine Hanley, Mario Mainero, Supervisor Chris Norby

ECON	The Alternative Minimum Tax threatens to ensnare 25 million taxpayers this coming year, the majority of those from the middle class, dusting off old tax reforms is a welcome sign.	10/31/07	46:40	Rep. Charlie Rangel, Rep. John Campbell, David Leonhardt, Pete du Pont
YOUT	Larry Mantle talks with Trish Ploehn "Plone", Director of the LA County Dept. of Child and Family Services about recent foster care measures that were signed into law by Gov. Schwarzenegger.	10/31/07	30:00	Trish Ploehn, Karen Bass
SEC	In the wake of a recently thwarted train bombing, Germany is seeking authority to plant secret "Trojan" viruses into the computers of suspected terrorists, which would provide remote access to all files and a record of every keystroke typed.	10/31/07	30:00	Marc Rotenberg, James Lewis
SCI	Ira Flatow, host and executive producer of NPR's Talk of the Nation: Science Friday , joins Larry Mantle to talk about what he's learned from his thousands of conversations with the pioneers that have made science possible.	10/31/07	30:00	Ira Flatow
LAW	After 20 years federal prosecutors drop charges against last two defendants	11/1/07	2:21	C&C
IE	Mountain residents get first look at wildfire damage	11/1/07	4:48	Cuevas
ENT	Larry Mantle checks in with Los Angeles Times staff writer Richard Verrier (VERR-ee-ay) for an update on contract negotiations between the Hollywood's TV and movie writers and the producers who employ them.	11/1/07	20:00	Richard Verrier, Craig Mazin
LAW	Larry Mantle takes listener calls about whether or not Mike Carona should resign his position as Orange County Sheriff due to his recent indictment and yesterday's surrender to authorities.	11/1/07	20:00
SPOR	Larry talks about the new film Quantum Hoops that highlights the Caltech basketball team's final week of the 2006 season as they attempt to win one game in the midst of their 21-year losing streak.	11/1/07	20:00	Rick Greenwald, Roy Dow
OBIT	Patt eulogizes the war veteran.	11/1/07	02:04
RELI	To Die in Jerusalem portrays the Israeli-Palestinian conflict through the experience of these families who each lost daughters to the violence.	11/1/07	13:48	Hilla Medalia
SGV	Patt talks to Kenny Mitchell about his organization and the struggle to escape the gangster lifestyle	11/1/07	15:59	Kenny Mitchell, Ricky Pickens
ART	A pioneer in the modernist architectural movement, the prolific photographer has worked with greats Oscar Niemayer, Mies Van de Rohe and Frank Lloyd Wright.	11/1/07	15:59	Julius Shulman
EDU	David Brewer is backing away from a plan to put poorly performing schools into a "transformation district."	11/1/07	21:18	Howard Blume, A.J. Duffy, Yvonne Chan, Jaime Regalado
SAC	California Insurance Commissioner Steve Poizner is proposing to change that scenario with a possible ballot initiative that would severely increase the punishments for driving without insurance.	11/1/07	36:38	Jennifer Kerns, Douglas Heller, David Snyder
RELI	Three years after the 2004 presidential election when evangelical Christians looked like they had one of the most powerful and cohesive voting blocs in America, their leadership is split along generational and theological lines.	11/1/07	30:00	David Kirkpatrick
IMM	In his new book, MONGRELS, BASTARDS, ORPHANS & VAGABONDS , Gregory Rodriguez provides an in depth account of the long-term cultural and political influences that Mexican Americans will have on the collective character of the United States.	11/1/07	30:00	Gregory Rodriguez
SPOR	Torre signs contract to manage the Dodgers	11/2/07	2:56	Myrow
ART	Permitted graffiti murals white washed, artist suspect LA politician ordered it	11/2/07	3:03	Guzman
ENT	Update on the ongoing writers strike.	11/2/07	20:00	Frank Stoltze
ENV	The Los Angeles Harbor Commission has approved a phased-in ban of diesel-producing older trucks at the Port of Los Angeles.	11/2/07	20:00	S. David Freeman, Julie Sauls
DIS	Most of the Southern California wildfires are out or under control, but the Santa Ana winds are expected to return this weekend.	11/2/07	20:00	Capt. Fernando Herrera, Capt. Steve Miller, Joe Cassmassi

DIS	Hundreds of thousands of people fled the Mexican state of Tabasco, which was hit by severe flooding as a week of heavy rains caused rivers to overflow, submerging at least 70 percent of the region.	11/2/07	05:09	Sam Enriquez
ENER	Daylight savings time wrapped later this year in an effort to reduce electricity consumption.	11/2/07	10:53	Jim Owen, Martin Moore-Ede
ENT	The redesign is partly due to today's riders being much larger than the designers ever imagined-occasionally causing the boats to bottom out, causing no small traffic jam.	11/2/07	13:49	Al Lutz, Kenneth Stanton
ECON	Patt talks with experts on this latest development in the subprime debacle that has rocked the mortgage and housing industries.	11/2/07	16:50	Amir Efrati, Thomas Davidoff
HEAL	Patt Morrison speaks with a health inspector and a member of the restaurant industry to learn what it takes to earn the A.	11/2/07	21:51	Peter Kashishian, Andrew Casana
MEDI	TV journalism is no exception-the explosion of news sources and the evolution of the internet are slowly but surely eating into the once reliable TV news audience.	11/2/07	36:28	Robert Long
ART	This documentary, Darfur Now , is a call to action for people to end the crisis in Darfur.	11/2/07	30:00	Ted Braun, Adam Sterling, Rabbi Gary Greenebaum
ENT	Larry and critics Jean Oppenheimer, of Village Voice Media, Claudia Puig, of USAToday, and Charles Solomon, animation critic, historian, and author for amazon.com, discuss many of the week's new releases including the feature films American Gangster , Before the Devil Knows You're Dead , Bee Movie , and Martian Child , and the documentaries, Darfur Now and Primo Levy's Journey .	11/2/07	30:00	Jean Oppenheimer, Claudia Puig, Charles Solomon
Youth	John sits in on a masters class in conducting, which was led Jorma Panula of the Sibelius Youth Orchestra. Panula is Esa-Pekka Salonen's mentor.	11/3/07	3:43	John Rabe
Hist	Kevin Roderick starts a new Off-Ramp series that takes listeners to historical spots in the San Fernando Valley. The first stop? Encino.	11/3/07	3:51	Kevin Roderick
Sports	John talks to KPCC's News Editor Nick Roman about the newest Dodger, Joe Torre.	11/3/07	4:01	Nick Roman
Art	Hidden away in a basement office at UCLA's Schoenberg Hall is a piano that inspires young musicians: the actor Edward G. Robinson's Steinway. Open up the piano and you'll see signatures of some of music's greats like Serge Prokofieff and Rosemary Clooney.	11/3/07	4:15	Garry Gray
Ent	There's a uniform for powerful women on TV: well-cut dark suits with designer labels. But there is one notable exception: LAPD Deputy Chief Brenda Lee Johnson on TNT's The Closer . KPCC's Kitty Felde takes us inside Brenda's closet.	11/3/07	4:15	Kitty Felde
Ent	Natividad Cano, better known as Nati, closed his restaurant La Fonda on Wilshire Boulevard last weekend. They'd been at the same location for nearly four decades. KPCC's Patricia Nazario caught their final moment	11/3/07	4:19	Patricia Nazario
Sports	As the Clippers' start their NBA season, we meet Ralph Lawler, the broadcast voice of the team for 29 seasons.	11/3/07	4:21	Ralph Lawler/Rabe
Lit	The New Yorker's Alex Ross talks about his new book, The Rest is Noise , in which classical music revolutionary and So. Cal Dude Arnold Schoenberg is featured.	11/3/07	5:06	Alex Ross
Youth	To kick-off the International Youth Orchestra Festival, the LA Phil unveiled an ambitious plan to start youth orchestras in several low-income neighborhoods in LA County. Queena Kim reports.	11/3/07	7:47	John Rabe
LABOR	Writers strike begins	11/5/07	2:08	Watt
SCI	LA Philharmonic has new conductor	11/5/07	3:01	Loh
POLI	Lonely black republican looks for company	11/5/07	3:22	Stoltze

SPOR	Torre arrives in LA	11/5/07	3:37	Stoltze
POL	Bill would overhaul farm programs; Boxer touts greenhouse gas bill; Waxman and White House square off	11/5/07	3:46	Julian
HIST	A very small percentage of Americans have heard of Alaska's Attu (AA-too) Island. Fewer still know that on June 7, 1942 the island was invaded by Japan.	11/5/07	20:00	Tom Putnam, Bill Jones
SPOR	Torre attempts to bring the winning ways he established in the Bronx to the notoriously laid-back (re: apathetic) confines of Chavez Ravine, where the Dodgers haven't won a playoff series in 19 years.	11/5/07	11:34	Frank Stoltze
ENT	As negotiations continue, TV personalities like Jay Leno have come out to show support and Jon Stewart of The Daily Show says he will even pay his writers out-of-pocket the first two weeks.	11/5/07	14:14	James Ray, Brian Watt
LIT	Auslander seeks to open a dialogue about the damage religious fundamentalism can cause and to explain to his son why he is not passing on the Biblical horror stories fed to him as a child.	11/5/07	16:33	Shalom Auslander
HEAL	According to a new AP-Ipsos poll, 67% of respondents support giving birth control to students, but those polled also expressed various misgivings that divide them along generational, income and racial lines.	11/5/07	26:42	Michael Gross, Susan Wood, Valerie Huber
ECON	Patt talks with econ experts on what all the glum news will mean long term for California and the nation.	11/5/07	35:57	Eric Dash, Chris Thornberg, James Mehring, HD Palmer
LIT	The Looming Tower , Lawrence Wright's gripping narrative spanning five decades, explains in unprecedented detail the growth of Islamic fundamentalism, the rise of Al-Qaeda, and the intelligence failures that culminated in the attacks on the World Trade Center.	11/5/07	40:00	Lawrence Wright
ENT	Writers and producers gathered for negotiations Sunday, at the request of a federal mediator, in a final attempt to settle their differences.	11/5/07	30:00	Brian Watt, Marc Lacter, Jack Amiel
FOR	The Pakistani government reports that than 1,800 people have been taken into custody over the past two days, although opposition officials claim the actual figure is twice that high.	11/5/07	30:00	Laura King, Philip J. (P.J.) Crowley, Don Belt
SACTO	Democrats unveil a new healthcare reform plan	11/6/07	2:10	Small
SAC	Democratic lawmakers are laying down a plan that they hope will find middle ground with Gov. Schwarzenegger's intentions to make health care mandatory for all Californians.	11/6/07	05:12	Julie Small
ENT	Producers say writers will lose more money in a one-week strike than they could ever hope to gain from a wage increase.	11/6/07	06:20	Brian Watt
DIS	The worst flooding in that country's history slammed the state of Tabasco, leaving thousands stranded.	11/6/07	08:10	Franc Contreras
OC	OC Sheriff Michael S. Carona declared he will go on a 60-day leave of absence beginning Friday in order to fight the federal corruption charges brought against him and his wife.	11/6/07	14:21	Susan Valot, Bill Hunt
ECON	Labor supporters and growers are questioning the validity of the report, as both groups have petitioned for a change in US immigration policy.	11/6/07	18:27	Phil Martin, Jack King
SPOR	If USA Track & Field, the national governing body for running, has its way runners will no longer be able to use music as a motivating tool as they are banning the use of headphones and portable audio players like iPods at its official races.	11/6/07	19:01	Jill Geer, David Willey, Dean Karnazes
LIT	In The Second Civil War , Brownstein analysis the demographic, electoral, and institutional forces that have changed our political landscape.	11/6/07	33:29	Ron Brownstein
POLI	In an effort to balance California's budget, Governor Schwarzenegger proposed a 10% budget cut Monday.	11/6/07	30:00	Evan Halper, H.D. Palmer, Fabian Nunez
ENV	Governor Schwarzenegger is expected to sue the Environmental Protection Agency this week in order to allow California to regulate tailpipe emissions from passenger vehicles sold here.	11/6/07	30:00	David D. Doniger, Kenneth Green, Mary Nichols

POLI	A new CNN/Opinion Research Corporation poll released Monday shows that Hillary Clinton and Rudy Giuliani continue to be the leading candidates of their respective parties.	11/6/07	30:00	Chris Lehane, Dan Schnur
LIT	California is home to a vast array of residential architecture.	11/6/07	30:00	Diane Keaton, D.J. Waldie
OC	OC Supervisors vote down measure to get sheriff out of office	11/7/07	2:55	Valot
HEAL	New theory as to why disease develops - exposure to pesticides	11/7/07	3:44	Sun
	Orange County Museum of Art's curator Elizabeth Armstrong says that 1950s California cool is reaching into the 21st Century.	11/7/07	3:49	Elizabeth Armstrong/John Rabe
ART	Incoming conductor for the LA philharmonic finishes first series of con	11/7/07	4:35	Guzman
FOR	Patt and her guests discuss this unfortunate side effect of the war.	11/7/07	06:54	Michael Kocher
POLI	Patt gets the political low-down from political junkie Ken Rudin.	11/7/07	10:32	Ken Rudin
FOR	Patt and her guests discuss this unfortunate side effect of the war.	11/7/07	18:38	Paul Rosenzweig
ECON	Is there relief in sight, or will high oil prices slowly cripple the international economy?	11/7/07	23:19	Philip Verleger, Tom Wallin
FOR	Tina Susman was held captive for 20 days while reporting in Mogadishu, Somalia, and she talks with Patt about experiences throughout her career.	11/7/07	45:36	Tina Susman
RACE	City Councilman and former police chief Bernard Parks has introduced a symbolic resolution calling on Los Angeles residents to stop using the "N" word.	11/7/07	30:00	Earl Ofari Hutchinson
ART	In a recent column LA Times Staff Writer, Leslie Brenner, laments over the poor service of many high-end Los Angeles restaurants.	11/7/07	30:00	Leslie Brenner
SPOR	There's no instant replay in baseball!	11/7/07	30:00	Mike DiGiavanna
SPOR	The new book, I Live for This! takes a look at the life of legendary baseball manager Tommy Lasorda.	11/7/07	30:00	Bill Plaschke, Tommy Lasorda
ENV	California is suing EPA over "greenhouse gasses"	11/8/07	2:04	Small
OC	Bodyboarders take advantage of big waves in the OC	11/8/07	2:21	Valot
PC	Orange County starts to see transit-oriented development	11/8/07	4:23	Valot
LAB	As the writers' strike enters its fourth day, we're likely to see TV reruns much sooner than initially expected.	11/8/07	20:00	John Horn, Marti Noxon
ECON	Federal Reserve Chairman Ben Bernanke said today that business growth will slow noticeably in coming months.	11/8/07	20:00	Felix Salmon, Chris Thornberg
SAC	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and OC Weekly senior editorial writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	11/8/07	20:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Scott Moxley
LIT	In his new book Independents Day , Lou Dobbs examines the public policy choices that have, in his opinion, eroded individual liberties, disenfranchised the middle class, reduced worker rights and pay, and led our nation into social and political division at home and around the world.	11/8/07	20:00	Lou Dobbs
ECON	Tesco, the world's third largest retailer, opened six Fresh & Easy Neighborhood Markets in the Southland in cities including West Covina and Arcadia.	11/8/07	08:25	Phil Lempert, David Livingston
POLI	The five states that scheduled early primaries are being punished by the Republican Party.	11/8/07	08:29	Ron Nehring
FOR	President General Pervez Musharraf yielded to pressure to hold elections, although he's proposing to hold them in mid-February, a month later than planned.	11/8/07	14:00	Habid Ullah Khan

SAC	Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger has sued the federal government in an effort to force a decision on whether or not the state can regulate greenhouse gas emission standards from automobiles.	11/8/07	18:28	Jerry Brown, Jennifer Wood
ECON	Pressure from pricey oil and news that a Chinese official has called for his country to shift more of its foreign-exchange reserves out of the greenback has pushed the US dollar to new lows.	11/8/07	20:02	Beth Ann Bovino, Jane D'Arista
SCI	In his book, A Life Decoded (Viking), Venter talks about this major scientific achievement and his life in science.	11/8/07	35:34	J. Craig Venter
LIT	In 1974, award-winning journalist and author Thomas DeFrank, then a young correspondent for Newsweek , was interviewing Vice President Gerald R. Ford when Ford blurted out something astonishingly indiscreet related to the White House but immediately told the reporter he could not leave the room until he promised not to publish it.	11/8/07	40:00	Thomas DeFrank
POLI	Anti-war group banned from parade	11/9/07	2:34	Nazario
DIS	Californians helping one million displaced people in Mexico	11/9/07	2:41	Schmitz
OC	Residents of transit-oriented development say it fosters community	11/9/07	4:44	Valot
DIV	On Thursday, the Los Angeles Zoo opened its Campo Gorilla Reserve, a brand new habitat which introduces Western lowland gorillas back into the zoo after a 4 ½-year absence.	11/9/07	20:00	John Lewis
ENT	Patt talks with Mayor Villaraigosa about his concerns over the strike action and gets an update from reporters covering the story.	11/9/07	16:20	L.A. Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa, Brooke Binkowski, Carl DiOrio
LAW	The anti-terrorism bureau of the Los Angeles Police Department is planning an extensive program to map Muslim enclaves throughout the city.	11/9/07	31:00	LAPD Deputy Chief Michael P. Downing, Salam Al-Maryati, Ramona Ripston, Joe Domanick
ENT	This Filthy World is a filmed version of Waters' one-man monologue in which he relays his thoughts on everything from his childhood and artistic censorship, to why he prefers the Wicked Witch of the West over Dorothy.	11/9/07	31:30	John Waters
POLI	Fight back the urge to scream in frustration or bury your head in shame as Hillary Clinton can't make up her mind about playing the gender card or Dennis Kucinich talks about his UFO sighting.	11/9/07	36:05	Michael Marino, Andy Kindler
POLI	Anti-war vets have been banned from marching in the 11th Veterans Day Parade in Long Beach.	11/9/07	40:00	Pat Alviso, Robert Shannon
ART	Eric Lax has been talking with Woody Allen for years.	11/9/07	30:00	Eric Lax
ENT	Larry and critics Peter Rainer, of the Christian Science Monitor , and Henry Sheehan, of henrysheehan.com, discuss many of the week's new releases including the feature films Fred Claus , Lions for Lambs , No Country for Old Men , Choking Man , Strange Culture , and the documentaries Steal a Pencil for Me , and War/Dance .	11/9/07	30:00	Peter Rainer, Henry Sheehan
Ent	The birth of the cool is all about the flowering of modernism that happened in Southern California fifty years ago. The cool modern houses and art and attitudes. But commentator Dale Hoppert asks what happened?	11/10/07	2:44	Dale Hoppert
	Author Donnell Alexander admits the question might be offensive. But you know what he's talking about - you see it in music and fashion. Alexander says it's what keeps blacks in the American cultural mix.	11/10/07	3:07	Donnell Alexander
Art	Part of the "Hard Edge" school of painters, Benjamin is finally getting his due in the pantheon of Modern Art. "Hard edge" sounds harsher than it is. It just means there's a clean line between the different colored shapes on his canvases.	11/10/07	3:44	Karl Benjamin/ Rabe

Art	In the gallery featuring "Hard Edge" painters, you can also see the works of Helen Lundeberg and Lorser Feitelson. Their paintings are right next to each other, which is fitting because they were married. Queena Kim brings us this report.	11/10/07	3:54	Queena Kim
	For a California Endowment exhibit, John visits Gin Herb, Chinatown's oldest traditional pharmacy.	11/10/07	5:43	Curators Sabrina Motley and Sojin Kim/Rabe
Art	Photographer William Claxton took many of the century's most memorable jazz photos. He shot Sonny Rollins, Jack Sheldon and the icon of California cool Chet Baker.	11/10/07	5:47	William Claxton/Rabe
ART	Sandra Tsing Loh watches The Simon Bolivar	11/11/07	2:52	C&C
OBIT	Designer of AK-47 dies	11/12/07	4:20	Roman
POLI	New way of choosing GOP delegates in CA	11/12/07	4:20	Felde
IE	A Vietnam veteran struggling with PTSD helps other vets	11/12/07	4:42	Cuevas
ART	Larry Mantle talks with Jazz bassist Nedra Wheeler and Yvette Devereaux, professional conductor, violinist, composer, arranger and music educator about their upcoming "Clazzical Notes" performance.	11/12/07	10:00	Nedra Wheeler, Yvette Devereaux
LAW	It's a major point of contention with civil rights and prisoner advocates: penalties for using crack cocaine, favored by minority drug users, are much stiffer than those for powder cocaine, which is more popular with whites.	11/12/07	20:00	Julie Stewart
LIT	Larry talks with NPR's StoryCorps project founder Dave Isay about the project and how it began with the idea that "everyone has an important story to tell."	11/12/07	20:00	Dave Isay, George Caywood, Connie Alvarez
OBIT	Delbert Mann, who directed Paddy Chayefsky's classic teleplays "Marty" and "The Bachelor Party" and then transformed them into big-screen triumphs, has died.	11/12/07	03:56	Leonard Maltin
SCI	The team spent close to two years working on their bioengineering research on breast cancer, which was described by a competition judge as "publishable, graduate level work."	11/12/07	06:51	Shelina Kurwa, Sarah Waliandy
ENV	Teams of DWP employees will travel L.A. educating people about water conservation	11/12/07	08:25	Lance Brown
ENV	Criticism of the delayed response to the oil spill is growing, and today a criminal investigation has been opened against the ship's crew and its owners.	11/12/07	20:32	Debra Hersman, Linda Sheehan, Amy Standen
LIT	Elliott joins guest host Oscar Garza to talk about his career in comedy and his latest work.	11/12/07	21:10	Chris Elliott
MEDI	Larry Mantle talks with esteemed journalist Tom Brokaw about his new book that provides a first hand perspective of a tumultuous time in our country's history, the 1960s.	11/12/07	40:00	Tom Brokaw
SPOR	Patt and her guests will discuss the law's successes and the unintended consequences of its implementation.	11/12/07	52:29	Diana Nyad, Sue Enquist, Eric Pearson, Peter Vidmar, Anita Ortega
POLI	The Pakistani Government says it will not permit opposition leader Benazir Bhutto (BEN'-uh-zeer BOO'-toh) to hold a protest procession across the country because it violates a ban on political rallies.	11/12/07	30:00	Gretchen Peters, Ambassador Akbar Ahmed
EDU	State Superintendent convenes summit to close achievement gap	11/13/07	2:32	Guzman
IE	Riverside council race still undecided	11/13/07	2:45	Cuevas
ENT	Spanish language DJ climbs to number two spot with make-believe persona	11/13/07	4:55	Guzman
POLI	Former California Congressman Augustus Hawkins has died.	11/13/07	10:00	Yvonne Burke, Merv Dymally
EDU	The Achievement Summit will examine reasons for and solutions to the continuing disparity between white and Latino and African-American students.	11/13/07	07:46	Adolfo Guzman Lopez, Howard Blume
MEDI	FCC hoping to help newspaper industry by dismantling ban on allowing one corporation to own a newspaper, radio station and television station all at once	11/13/07	10:23	Corey Boles

ENV	It's being called the worst oil spill in the San Francisco Bay in some 20 years.	11/13/07	14:00	Bret Burkhardt, Lt. Andrew Munoz
ART	Peterson Automotive Museum paying tribute to the souped-up vehicles from Los Angeles culture	11/13/07	17:11	Ry Cooder, Denise Sandoval
MIL	numbers say the surge is working, other sources say this is the deadliest year yet for U.S. troops	11/13/07	23:48	Fred Kagan, GI Wilson
ECON	CA Gov asks state agencies to cut spending by 10% in face of looming recession	11/13/07	24:56	Elizabeth Hill, Evan Halper, Senator Denise Sucheny, Chris Thornberg
ART	L.A. Times photojournalist follows the subject he made iconic, through his struggle with PTSD	11/13/07	28:42	Luis Sinco
ENV	Examining how, why and should Californians continue to build in fire-prone areas.	11/13/07	36:18	Mike Davis, Richard Lambros
EDU	Update with LAUSD superintendent as the district ask employees to give back excess money and tries to divide off the district's lowest-achieving schools for special attention	11/13/07	41:34	David L. Brewer III
TRAN	Larry is joined by KPCC Program Director, Craig Curtis, and Morning Edition host, Steve Julian, for a discussion on whether we should refer to Southern California's freeways by name or by number.	11/13/07	30:00	Steve Julian, Craig Curtis
POLI	A recent study at the UCLA Semel Institute for Neuroscience revealed that so-called "swing voters" have conflicting emotions about the 2008 presidential candidates, regardless of which candidate they claim to support.	11/13/07	30:00	Marco Iacoboni
RACE	In his new book, ABRAHAM'S CHILDREN: Race, Identity, and the DNA of the Chosen People , Jon Entine delves into the controversial world of genetics and race, exploring what it means to be "genetically Jewish."	11/13/07	30:00	Jon Entine
LABOR	Newest staff writer for "The Office" also worked for Countrywide	11/14/07	2:24	Watt
EDU	Poetry at this weeks educational summit	11/14/07	3:17	Small
EDU	Research shows that though large percentages of all children fall short of state education standards, the academic achievement gap is wider for some groups.	11/14/07	5:00	Jack O'Connell
ART	Larry Mantle talks with jazz guitarist, band leader and ukulele player, Bill Tapia ("tuh-PEE-uh") about his 100 th birthday celebration and show this weekend at the Warner Grand Theatre in San Pedro, and about his long and distinguished music career.	11/14/07	5:00	Bill Tapia
RACE	Blacks in America continue to have problems rising up the economic ladder.	11/14/07	50:00	Paul Taylor, Joe Hicks, Blair Taylor
POLI	When Americans first saw the disturbing images of torture at Abu Ghraib, the Bush Administration said it was as an isolated incident. However, in their new book, Administration of Torture , ACLU litigators Jameel Jaffer and Amrit Singh make the case that beatings, burnings, dog attacks, and other forms of inhumane treatment are commonplace in American detention centers in Iraq, Afghanistan and Guantanamo Bay.	11/14/07	30:00	Jameel Jaffer
ENT	A new survey by the Zogby/Lear Center reveals striking differences between the entertainment preferences of liberals, conservatives, and moderates.	11/14/07	30:00	Johanna Blakley
SCI	American scientists cloned embryos from a 9-year-old male monkey and were able to extract stem cells from them.	11/15/07	10:00	Shoukhrat Mitalipov
ECON	California's deficit has grown dramatically since the housing market began to slow last Summer.	11/15/07	13:00	Elizabeth Hill, H.D. Palmer
SEC	In Europe and on the East Coast, Muslim enclaves were targeted by terrorist groups as a place to recruit members.	11/15/07	19:00	Bill Bratton, Salam S. Al-Maryati
IE	Larry Mantle talks with Steven Cuevas, KPCC's Inland Empire Reporter, and Cassie MacDuff, columnist with The Press Enterprise , about the latest news, events, and developments in the Inland Empire.	11/15/07	20:00	Steven Cuevas, Cassie MacDuff
FOR	Unclean water is the biggest public health crisis in the world and the second biggest killer of children under five.	11/15/07	20:00	Gil Garcetti

SEC	A report released Wednesday says government investigators have exposed a dangerous hole in the nation's airport security.	11/15/07	30:00	h Henry Waxman, Michael Boyd
ART	Herb Alpert makes big donation to UCLA for music school	11/16/07	2:33	C&C
ENT	Silverlake café serves world's t expensive coffee for free	11/16/07	3:50	Kim
DIS	Burn victims have a long difficult recovery	11/16/07	4:01	Goldberg
LAW	San Francisco Giants slugger Barry Bonds is back in the hot seat.	11/16/07	13:00	Bill Shaikin, Elliott Almond
ENT	Disney's latest film, Enchanted , gives a new meaning to "cross-cultural" when characters from the animated fairy tale world arrive in present day New York City.	11/16/07	20:00	Kevin Lima
TRAN	One thousand of the latest model cars, trucks, and SUVs will be on display at this year's Los Angeles Auto Show, including forty World and North American debuts.	11/16/07	40:00	Ron Cogan, Chuck Pelly, Charlie Vogelheim
ENT	Larry and critics Jean Oppenheimer, of Village Voice Media, Andy Klein of CityBeat , and Charles Solomon, of amazon.com, discuss many of the week's new releases including the feature films Beowulf , Mr. Magorium's Wonder Emporium , Redacted , and Love in the Time of Cholera , and the documentaries How to Cook Your Life and Salvador Allende .	11/16/07	40:00	Jean Oppenheimer, Andy Klein, Charles Solomon
	John remembers Norman Mailer, who died last Saturday at the age of 84.	11/17/07	2:31	Rabe
	Kevin Roderick continues his tour of the San Fernando Valley with a story about the Basque shepherds who settled around Encino.	11/17/07	3:12	Kevin Roderick
Health	John, Queena and KPCC GM Mark Crowley see if this stuff will cure their colds.	11/17/07	3:20	John Rabe, Queena Kim and Mark Crowley
	Hank Rosenfeld remembers Thomas Dawes, founder of the band "The Cyrkle" and commercial jingle writer.	11/17/07	3:38	Hank Rosenfeld
	The LA Times' Ralph Vartabedian clears up the rules about crosswalks, pedestrians, and cars.	11/17/07	4:09	Ralph Vartabedian/Rabe
	Former KPCC reporter Rachael Myrow visits the LA Times test kitchen to discover the best way to cook a turkey.	11/17/07	4:27	Rachael Myrow
	Jim Hawthorne was ubiquitous in LA broadcasting but he made TV pioneer Kovacs look conservative.	11/17/07	4:59	Kovans/Hawthorne
	Like Latinos and Blacks, Asian-Americans are under- and misrepresented in Hollywood. KPCC's Doualy Xaykaothao went the opening of a new documentary called Hollywood Chinese.	11/17/07	5:47	Doualy Xaykaothao
	Retro-historian Charles Phoenix lays out a holiday spread with a Tiki twist.	11/17/07	6:28	Charles Phoenix/Rabe
ENV	Lawmakers question existing national standards for preventing and responding to oil spills	11/19/07	2:04	Small
LAW	Effort to recall Long Beach judge fails	11/19/07	3:07	Baer
LAW	Effort to recall Long Beach judge fails	11/19/07	3:08	Baer
POLI	Study looks at ways to inc voter participation	11/19/07	4:34	Stoltze
LAW	Larry Mantle discusses the lawsuit being brought by the California Attorney General's office and the Los Angeles City Attorney's office against the Toy Companies as a result of lead tainted toys.	11/19/07	9:00	Rocky Delgadillo
ENER	Port of Los Angeles Commission President, S. David Freeman, joins Larry Mantle to talk about his new book Winning Our Energy Independence .	11/19/07	45:00	S. David Freeman

POLI	Larry and his guests discuss the defeat of the Iraq funding bill and what the decrease in violence points to.	11/19/07	30:00	Marina Ottoway, Fred Kagan
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Judith Freeman, author of the book The Long Embrace: Raymond Chandler and the Woman He Loved (Pantheon) about Raymond Chandler and his life with his mysterious, much older wife Cissy Pascal.	11/19/07	30:00	Judith Freeman
LAW	Cal Judge wants to amend state's constitution	11/20/07	3:57	Julian
ENV	Can LA live up to its green ambitions?	11/20/07	4:48	Setziol
ECON	Thanksgiving retail sales; Writers Guild not ready to fold; too many lawyers in California	11/20/07	5:06	Lacter
LAW	State officials trying to ease long waits on Death Row	11/20/07	18:42	Judge Arthur Alarcon, Justice Roger Boren, Gerald Uelman
SCI	Scientists from two labs, one in Kyoto and one in Wisconsin, have succeeded in turning human skin cells into what appear to be embryonic stem cells without using or destroying human embryos and thus avoiding the ethical pitfalls inherent in stem cell research that results in the destruction of human embryos.	11/20/07	24:00	Dr. Bruce Conklin, Tadeusz Pacholczyk
ECON	Tribal casinos generate millions for California, but a new initiative is reconsidering their future	11/20/07	24:15	Al Lundeen, Roger Salazar, Jeffrey Cummins, Tony Quinn
MIL	Over 6,000 veteran suicides reported in 2005 and the highest rate is among 20-24 yr.-olds. And examination of what is being done to address this.	11/20/07	33:48	Paul Rieckhoff, Congressman Bob Filner, Mark Kaplan, Jerry Reed
POLI	Last week many of LA's 18 elected officials received a pay raise; their fourth since 2005.	11/20/07	30:00	Kerry Cavanaugh
FOR	Global health officials says there are 6 million fewer AIDS cases reported this year, compared to last year.	11/20/07	30:00	Dr. Kevin De Cock, Dr. Roger Detels
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Taylor Clark, the author of the new book Starbucked .	11/20/07	30:00	Taylor Clark
HOME	New battle begins over consensus on eminent domain	11/21/07	2:30	Myers
EDU	LA Unified begins human relation program at campus rocked by brawls	11/21/07	2:39	Guzman
ECON	South Bay caterer/take-out outfit smokes turkey	11/21/07	2:48	Valot
ECON	Bumper crop of acorns in Contra Costa	11/21/07	4:15	Keith
YOUT	Examining naming trends	11/21/07	08:16	Alleen Nielson, Don Nielson
SCI	Astronomer Geoff Marcy has discovered more planets than anyone else and says we're three years away from finding one that can support life	11/21/07	15:13	Geoffrey Marcy
LIT	Review of The Concise Guide to Sounding Smart at Parties	11/21/07	17:26	Chris Woolsey, David Matalan
FOR	Projections for the first Mideast peace talk of the Bush administration	11/21/07	29:00	Tom Casey, Ghaith Al-Omari, Jacob Dayan
ECON	The day after Thanksgiving helps retailers predict sales for the rest of the holiday season. Experts share predictions for this year	11/21/07	35:04	Ellen Davis, Burt Flickinger III, Paul Cooper
LIT	Larry talks with retired four Star Army General, and former Presidential candidate, Wesley Clark, about the current situation in Iraq as well as his new autobiography, A Time to Lead .	11/21/07	30:00	Wesley Clark
ART	Larry Mantle talks with neurologist Dr. Oliver Sacks about his new book, Musophilic: Tales of Music and the Brain (Knopf).	11/21/07	30:00	Dr. Oliver Sacks
POLI	The Supreme Court said Tuesday it will decide whether the District of Columbia can ban handguns, a case that could produce the most in-depth examination of the Second Amendment in nearly 70 years.	11/21/07	1 hour	Eugene Volokh, Erwin Chemerinsky, Denis Henigan
ENT	Chefs experiment with combinations of food and the chemical reactions that occur when cooking	11/22/07	19:50	Chef Matthew Zboray, Lynne Rossetto Kaspar
LIT	Larry Sabato talks about his new book proposing an update to the Constitution	11/22/07	32:40	Larry Sabato
LIT	In his new book, Boone: A Biography , Robert Morgan offers a new perspective of a man who has been an American icon for more than two hundred years.	11/22/07	30:00	Robert Morgan
LIT	Marco Polo was the most celebrated European to explore Asia and the earliest bridge between East and West.	11/22/07	30:00	Laurence Bergreen
ART	Lynne Rosetto Kaspar of The Splendid Table hosts this annual Thanksgiving special.	11/22/07	1 hour	Lynne Rosetto Kaspar

TRANS	Westside wants mass trans	11/23/07	2:23	Felde
ECON	Cal finance department begins sprint to balance budget	11/23/07	3:06	Small
LIT	Author had unprecedented access to the Clintons and the White House and discusses their marriage and sustaining love of politics	11/23/07	13:00	Sally Bedell Smith
LIT	Film historian Jeanine Basinger analyzes the machinery and the formula that went into establishing a face on the silver screen.	11/23/07	13:00	Jeanine Basinger
LIT	The son of the original author discusses last book in the most famous science-fiction series in history	11/23/07	17:30	Brian Herbert
LIT	Biographer Ed Sikov focuses on her tumultuous personal life and her career on the set and behind the scenes.	11/23/07	17:30	Ed Sikov
LIT	last quarter of the eighteenth century remains the most politically creative era in American history.	11/23/07	30:00	Joseph Ellis
LIT	his new book, God And Gold , Walter Russell Mead delves into the global political and economic systems of Britain and America that created the modern world.	11/23/07	30:00	Walter Russell Mead
ART	Larry Mantle and critics Charles Solomon of amazon.com, Henry Sheehan of henrysheehan.com, and Wade Major of boxoffice.com and CityBeat join Larry to discuss this week's new releases including Enchanted , August Rush , I'm Not There , Margot At The Wedding , The Mist , Starting Out In The Evening , Holly , What Would Jesus Buy? , Everything's Cool: A Toxic Comedy About Global Warming , and the re-release of two short films, The Red Balloon and White Mane .	11/23/07	1 hour	Charles Solomon, Henry Sheehan, Wade Major
SPORT	Dodgers and Red Sox will play one game in the LA Coliseum	11/26/07	2:03	Watt
LAW	Supreme Court rules victims family to seek restitution from convicted diller	11/26/07	2:30	Jahad
SCI	Being thankful for a digital camera	11/26/07	2:53	Loh
TRANS	LA Mayor V proposes moving cross-town traffic faster	11/26/07	3:04	Roman
POLIO	Foreign students have opinions about American elections	11/26/07	4:14	Felde
TRAN	Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa and Beverly Hills Mayor Jimmy Delshad unveil the "Olympic-West Pico-East" initiative at news conference this morning (MON).	11/26/07	10:00	Bill Rosendahl, Antonio Villaraigosa
DIS	Update on the current Malibu fire.	11/26/07	13:00	Inspector Frank Garrido, Zev Yaroslavsky, Susan Abrams
EDU	Lewis Chappellear will be named California Teacher of the Year this evening for developing an engineering program at LAUSD's James Monroe High School.	11/26/07	05:00	Lewis Chappellear
ENV	A program with the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation allows inmates to work as firefighters after fulfilling strict qualifications.	11/26/07	13:00	Frank Garrido, Terry Thornton
YOUT	Sites like BarbieGirls.com, Nicktropolis, and WebKinz are allowing young web-surfers to create their own virtual worlds online and connect with other adolescents who share their interests.	11/26/07	13:00	Anastasia Goodstein, Terry Dry
ENT	Patt meets the theater's artistic director and one of its frequent performers.	11/26/07	16:30	Amit Itelman, Craig Anton
LIT	James W. Loewen joins Patt Morrison to dispel popular myths and misconceptions about our past, and to reveal the genuine facts, including why Native Americans have nothing to do with Thanksgiving.	11/26/07	17:30	James Loewen
TRAN	Patt talks with politicians and planners about the traffic jam that is the Westside and what, if anything, can be done about it.	11/26/07	18:00	Jack Weiss, Brian Taylor, David Meiger
FOR	Larry Mantle discusses this week's Mideast Peace Conference hosted by the White House.	11/26/07	30:00	Paul Richter, Steven Cook

LIT	Larry Mantle talks with former NRA insider Richard Feldman, author of Ricochet: Confessions of a Gun Lobbyist (Wiley), about the inner-workings of the NRA and its rise to feared political entity.	11/26/07	30:00	Richard Feldman
LIT	According to a 2007 Vault survey, nearly half of all workers report having dated a coworker at least once.	11/26/07	30:00	Helaine Olen
TECH	Verizon will become the first phone company to allow subscribers to use any cell phone they please.	11/27/07	10:00	Kent German
ECON	This year's round of bonuses for investment bankers and traders are not only unusually large, but also especially controversial in light of what was a dismal year for the securities industry after the collapse of the subprime mortgage market.	11/27/07	12:00	Christine Harper, Marek Fuchs, Nell Minow
POLI	With the Iowa Caucuses on January 3rd and the New Hampshire primary on January 8th, the seemingly endless presidential campaign finally gets down to business with a little voting action.	11/27/07	12:00	Chris Cillizza, Roger Simon
IMM	A new study from UCLA's School of Public Health indicates that the undocumented are actually 50 percent less likely to use an emergency room than a legal immigrant.	11/27/07	13:00	Alexander Ortega, Steven Camorota
LIT	Patt talks with the twins about their separation at birth and the issues of nature verses nurture.	11/27/07	13:00	Paula Bernstein and Elyse Schein, Nancy Segal
POLI	Proposition 83, also known as Jessica's Law, would place global tracking devices on sex-offenders even after they finished parole.	11/27/07	30:00	Michael Rothfeld, Sharon Runner, Bill Sessa
POLI	Trent Lott announced yesterday (MON) that he will retire from the U.S. Senate, just over year after he was re-elected to his fourth term.	11/27/07	30:00	Sherry Bebitch Jeffe
POLI	Larry talks with Matthew Holt, of The Health Care Blog, and E. Richard Brown, of the UCLA Center for Health Policy Research, about the republican presidential candidates' various health care plans and how these proposals differ from those of the democratic candidates.	11/27/07	30:00	Matthew Holt, E. Richard Brown
POLI	The six term Democratic congressman from Ohio, known for his opposition to the war in Iraq, is making his second bid at a Presidential nomination.	11/27/07	30:00	Dennis Kucinich
SACTO	Water worries in So cal as cutbacks loom close	11/28/07	3:33	Small
TRAN	If all goes according to plan, Qantas will begin service on the behemoth out of LAX next fall.	11/28/07	06:00	Brian Watt
LAW	Los Angeles Police Chief William Bratton joins Patt to answer these questions, discuss his thoughts on crime fighting proposals from presidential candidates and more and take listener calls.	11/28/07	13:00	LAPD Police Chief William Bratton
ENT	Two film scholars join Patt to discuss the impact that war and movies have on each other.	11/28/07	14:30	Leonard Maltin, Frank McAdams
LIT	Judith Thurman's most memorable ruminations on topics ranging from human vanity, femininity, fashion and literature are featured in the new compilation, Cleopatra's Nose (Farrar, Straus and Giroux).	11/28/07	17:30	Judith Thurman
EDU	Patt brings LAUSD officials in for some in-studio detention.	11/28/07	18:00	Howard Blume, Tamar Galatzan, A.J. Duffy
SPOR	Larry discusses the issue of USC Football possibly moving their home games to the Rose Bowl due to stalled lease negotiations with the Coliseum Commission.	11/28/07	30:00	Todd Dickey, Bill Thompson
FOR	Following yesterday's (TUES) Mideast summit in Annapolis, President Bush will meet with the Israeli and Palestinian leaders today to ceremonially inaugurate their agreement on the first, formal direct peace negotiations in seven years.	11/28/07	30:00	Howard LaFranchi, Michael O'Hanlon
LIT	In her new book, Day of Empire , author Amy Chua takes a look at the so-called "hyperpowers" of history, defined as the few empires which have achieved technological, military and economic dominance.	11/28/07	30:00	Amy Chua

LIT	Larry talks with Harvard University Memorial Church's Peter Gomes about his new book, The Scandalous Gospel of Jesus: What's So Good About the Good News?	11/28/07	30:00	Peter J. Gomes
LAW	9th Circuit to get new chief judge	11/29/07	2:22	C&C
HEAL	Open enrollment time for Medicare recipients	11/29/07	4:17	Sun
ART	Nancy Regan cleans out her closet	11/29/07	4:33	Felde
ENV	Larry Mantle talks with Mike Wehner, of the Orange County Water District about Friday's official launch of their Groundwater Replenishment System.	11/29/07	10:00	Mike Wehner
LIT	Impotence covers two and a half millennium of male sexual failure in the Western world, including the social stigma, the Freudian analysts, feminism, and the magic blue pill, Viagra.	11/29/07	18:30	Angus McLaren
HEAL	After President Bush's veto of the Democratic S-CHIP expansion bill, Congressional negotiations on a scaled back children's insurance program have gone nowhere and states are quickly running out of money.	11/29/07	21:30	Lesley Cummings, Dennis Smith, Kristen Golden Testa
POLI	Patt talks about ballot initiatives and the money trails the fund them.	11/29/07	27:00	Alfred Balitzer, Kevin Spillane, Kathay Feng, Jon Coupal
POLI	Patt talks to political analysts and officials about private capital and its roll in government projects.	11/29/07	30:00	Dan Weintraub, David Crane, Pedro Nava, Bruce Blanning
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and Gustavo Arellano, OC Weekly staff writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	11/29/07	30:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
POLI	Republican Presidential candidates gathered in St. Petersburg, Florida last night (WED) for their 8 th major confrontation of the campaign. This debate was sponsored by CNN and YouTube.	11/29/07	30:00	Ken Rudin, Dan Schnur
LIT	For decades we have been taught that fat is bad for us, carbohydrates better, and that the key to a healthy weight is eating less and exercising more.	11/29/07	30:00	Gary Taubes
HEAL	LA kicks off campaign to test 1 million Angelinos for HIV	11/30/07	2:12	Watt
DIS	OC Canyons evacuated because of flooding, mudslide concerns	11/30/07	2:31	Valot
LAW	State says not enough money to conduct DNA tests that could solve sexual assault cases	11/30/07	13:00	Greg Matheson, Steve Cooley
ART	Strange things are happening at SymbioticA, which describes itself as an "Art and Science Collaborative Research Laboratory" that allows biologists to do art, and artists to do biology.	11/30/07	13:30	Ionat Zurr
HEAL	After an extensive process of filtering, chemical treatment, and ultraviolet light exposure, the purified sewer water will be pumped into the ground, replenishing aquifers and forming a barrier against seawater intrusion.	11/30/07	22:00	Mike Marcus, Jeff Kightlinger, Robert Glennon
POLI	Patt Morrison makes the decision: with Comedy Congress, we're taking a humorous look back at the week in politics and current events, and a look ahead at the absurdities yet to come.	11/30/07	48:30	Michael Loftus, Morgan Murphy, Ben Gleib
ECON	The mortgage meltdown is affecting the broader economy, both locally and nationally.	11/30/07	30:00	Chris Thornberg, Peter Ogilvie, Ted Lieu, Sabrina Lockhart
HEAL	Larry Mantle talks with AIDS experts about how local public and private AIDS agencies are responding to the changing nature of the epidemic on the day before World AIDS Day.	11/30/07	30:00	Craig Thompson, Jane Rohde
LIT	From 1934 to 1954 a former journalist and public relations agent ran the Hollywood office that censored the films shown in movie theatres across America.	11/30/07	30:00	Thomas Doherty

ART	Larry and critics Lael Loewenstein, of Variety , and Claudia Puig, of USA Today , discuss many of the week's new releases including the feature films The Savages , Sex and Breakfast , Badland , He Was a Quiet Man , The Sasquatch Gang , The Diving Bell and the Butterfly , and the documentary Yiddish Theater: A Love Story .	11/30/07	30:00	Lael Loewenstein, Claudia Puig
Art	The Play's The Thing airs The Life of Galileo this weekend. It looks at the astronomer's clash with the Catholic Church. John Rabe met with Stacy Keach, to talk about one of science's most famous mavericks.	12/1/07	2:24	John Rabe
Art	Kentucky Fried Chicken, sushi, tomatoes with cute button eyes... These are just a few of the stuffed toys on exhibit at Munkey King in Hollywood.	12/1/07	2:39	Christina Huh
Sports	LA Magazine's J.R. Moehringer tells John about USC's head-coach Pete Carroll's unannounced visits into the bad parts of LA.	12/1/07	4:03	J. R. Moehringer
Housing	The Downtown Women's Center was founded in 1978 by a woman who realized that there was no shelter spaces for women.	12/1/2007	4:28	John Rabe
Art	The Skirball Cultural Center is presenting "Of all the People in the World." The show, put on by the British theater company Stan's Cafe, uses rice to bring statistics to life.	12/1/07	4:43	Queena Kim
Enter.	Intelligentsia Coffee Shop in Silverlake recently served up the world's most expensive coffee, known as "the Geisha" for free. It sold at auction for $130 a pound.	12/1/07	5:24	Queena Kim
HEAL	Board member volunteered for decades at hospital	12/3/07	2:04	Felde
SPOR	Late Dodger owner inducted into Hall of Fame	12/3/07	2:18	Felde
POLI	Housing crisis: limiting greenhouse emissions; ideologically based violence	12/3/07	2:46	Julian
LAW	Union Rescue Mission robbed and burned	12/3/07	2:46	Rabe
EDU	Sandra Tsing Loh on magnet schools	12/3/07	2:46	Loh
POLI	Newt says presidential politics don't produce change	12/3/07	3:13	Stoltze
RELI	Romney will speak on Thursday at the George H. W. Bush Presidential Library, addressing his faith and how it would inform his tenure in the highest office in the land.	12/3/07	06:00	Ken Rudin
ENT	In "Of All the People in All the World," members of the British theater company Stan's Cafe weigh and pile the grains in order to make concrete visuals out of abstract ideas.	12/3/07	11:30	James Yarker
SEC	Patt talks with experts about American intelligence and the Iranian bomb.	12/3/07	19:00	Jim Walsh, Ray Takeyh
POLI	This week a major deal will be announced between the Treasury Department and the nation's leading mortgage companies that would temporarily freeze interest rates on certain troubled subprime home loans.	12/3/07	29:30	Roy Bernardi, Fred L. Smith, Jr., Thomas Davidoff
LIT	Jessop provides a first-person account of life in one of the most secretive religious groups and of her extraordinary journey to freedom.	12/3/07	31:00	Carolyn Jessop
ENER	Larry talks with H. David Nahai on his first day as General Manager of the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power.	12/3/07	30:00	H. David Nahai
FOR	Larry Mantle talks with L.A. Times staff writer, Chris Kraul and Jennifer McCoy, Professor of Political Science at Georgia State University and Director of the Americas Program at the Carter Center about the vote in Venezuela over the weekend that defeated a package of constitutional reforms that would have given President Hugo Chavez new and unprecedented powers in office.	12/3/07	30:00	Peter Hakim, Jennifer McCoy
RELI	A poll that came out in September from the Pew Research Center found that 45 percent of respondents said they would be less likely to vote for a candidate for any office who is a Muslim.	12/3/07	30:00	Greg Smith
TECH	Larry Mantle talks with Wired Magazine products editor Mark MacClusky who reviews the latest, cutting-edge gadgets available this holiday season.	12/3/07	30:00	Mark MacClusky
YOUT	Foster kid learns joy of volunteering	12/4/07	2:03	Felde

HOME	Downtown Women's Center serves growing number of women on Skid Row	12/4/07	2:12	Rabe
LAW	Wave of Copper wiring thefts from streetlights	12/4/07	2:14	Watt
HEAL	Assemblyman Lloyd Levine re-launches a bill to require pet owners to spay/newter pets	12/4/07	2:34	Xaykaothao
IMM	Immigrants suing gov over backlog of citizenship applications	12/4/07	3:32	Schmitz
HEAL	Health Inspections of restaurants successful	12/4/07	3:59	Pickman
POLI	The Fair Political Practices Commission proposed new rules Monday to require politicians to provide greater detail on how they spend campaign funds.	12/4/07	10:00	Bob Stern
SCI	Patients suffering from Body Dysmorphic Disorder (BDD) perceive themselves as ugly and deformed.	12/4/07	20:00	Dr. Jamie Feusner, Aron Cowen
ENV	A storm brewing 700 miles northwest of California has generated celebration among surfers and terror among coastal residents.	12/4/07	04:30	Chad Nelson
RELI	Cardinal Roger Mahoney recently revealed that he was attacked in July by a man who was enraged because of the sexual-abuse scandal facing the Church.	12/4/07	08:00	Rick Coca, Commander Andy Smith
LIT	In The Dead Travel Fast , Nuzum details his travels to Transylvania, drinking his own blood, watching every vampire movie made, and even attending a topless vampire review in Las Vegas, all in the name of investigative pop culture research.	12/4/07	13:30	Eric Nuzum
ECON	Patt talks to some leading surfboard makers about Blank Monday's unexpected fallout.	12/4/07	17:00	Rusty Preisendorfer, Gary Linden
POLI	Democratic hopefuls faced off this morning in a debate co-produced by NPR and Iowa Public Radio.	12/4/07	27:00	Ron Elving
ENV	With so little rainfall, water demands rising, environmental damage caused by San Joaquin water pumps, and concerns that an earthquake could destroy existing levees and create a Katrina-style cataclysm in the delta, interest is resurfacing in the project.	12/4/07	27:00	Mike Taugher, Phil Isenberg, Jim Metropulos, Jeff Kightlinger
FOR	The future of nuclear weapons in Iran.	12/4/07	30:00	Andrew J. Grotto, Bruce Riedel
POLI	The Democratic presidential candidates discuss the issues.	12/4/07	1 hour
POLI	The latest LA Times/Bloomberg Poll of Republican-leaning voters shows that Gov. Mike Huckabee has pulled into second place, close behind former NY Mayor, Rudy Giuliani.	12/5/07	20:00	Susan Pinkus
IMM	Hundreds of thousands of immigrants who have satisfied the requirements to become U.S. citizens are left in limbo for months or years due to the slow processing of FBI name checks.	12/5/07	20:00	Ranjana Natarajan, Abbas Amirchimeh
LIT	Larry talks with author Paula Kamen about her new book, Finding Iris Chang: Friendship, Ambition, and the Loss of An Extraordinary Mind that discusses the events that lead to the suicide of journalist and author, Iris Chang.	12/5/07	20:00	Paula Kamen
LAW	The court's resolution isn't expected until spring and could determine the fate of more than 300 captives detained on the island prison.	12/5/07	13:00	David Savage
HOUS	In an agreement that is set to be publically announced by the Bush Administration on Thursday, a five-year freeze will be put on interest rates for certain subprime mortgages.	12/5/07	13:00	Ellen Seidman
LIT	Sand and Sorrow explores the history behind the genocide in Darfur, the plight of the millions of displaced, and the inaction of the international community.	12/5/07	13:30	Paul Freedman
POLI	Patt Morrison hears from the department's chief deputy about the overtime dilemma.	12/5/07	14:00	Dean Logan
HEAL	Genentech has taken steps to curb the availability of the cheaper drug, upsetting many ophthalmologists and their patients who fear that they can't pay for treatment with its replacement.	12/5/07	21:30	Hal Barron, Dr. Charles Wilkinson, Dr. Leon Bynoe
HEAL	A number of health advocacy groups are lobbying the FDA to change its official classification of salt as a generally recognized as safe food to a regulated food additive.	12/5/07	22:00	Richard Bonnette, Dr. Stephen Havas

SEC	The U.S. Supreme Court will hear arguments Wednesday on whether the more than 300 foreigners detained at the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba can go to U.S. courts to challenge their confinement.	12/5/07	30:00	John Eastman, Jonathan Hafetz
EDU	A delegation of teachers and UTLA union officers have drafted a reform plan that would give instructors more latitude to formulate curricula and also calls for local control over schools.	12/5/07	30:00	A. J. Duffy, William Ouchi
		12/6/07	2:05	Nazario
ENV	Global Warming Solutions Act	12/6/07	2:18	Keith
SPOR	Rose Bowl Operating Company meets on possible USC lease	12/6/07	2:29	Watt
SPOR	Patt talks to KPCC Senior News Editor Nick Roman about the latest football news.	12/6/07	08:00	Nick Roman
LIT	Academy Award-nominated costume designer Deborah Nadoolman Landis explores one hundred years of Hollywood's most unforgettable costumes and the characters they helped bring to life.	12/6/07	13:30	Deborah Nadoolman Landis
SCI	We explore the singular and visceral relationship between humans and dogs, the first species that humans ever domesticated.	12/6/07	17:30	Patricia McConnell, Norine Dresser
ECON	When you buy toys for your kids, do you consider where they're made?	12/6/07	21:00	Rick Locker, David Lazrus
ENT	The film has raised questions about the role of God and religion in children's literature and the author Phillip Pullman's own views on theology.	12/6/07	27:00	Donna Freitas, Adam Holz
ECON	The Bush administration has developed a plan to freeze interest rates for five years for thousands of strapped	12/6/07	30:00	Paul Leonard, Brad Sherman
LIT	Larry talks with local library assistant Don Borchert, about his new book, Free For All: Oddballs, Geeks, and Gangstas in the Public Library that chronicles his day-to-day experiences working in the public library system.	12/6/07	30:00	Don Borchert
HEAL	Larry talks with two distinguished doctors in the field of infertility about the recent rise in the number of women giving birth over the age of 40.	12/6/07	30:00	Ingrid Rodi, Richard J. Paulson
ENV	TerraChoice, an environmental marketing firm, tested over 1,000 products that made environmental claims, ranging from toothpaste to office paper.	12/6/07	30:00	Scot Case
HOME	Volunteers put on dinner for homeless with donated goods	12/7/07	2:04	C&C
ECON	The Southern California Ass. of Governments releases it's report card on the region	12/7/07	2:07	Xaykaothao
MIL	Officials broke ground on a new Armed Forces Reserve Center in Bell	12/7/07	2:20	Xaykaothao
RELI	In a much anticipated speech on Thursday, White House hopeful, Mitt Romney outlined his position on the role of religion in America, but avoided revealing details about his personal faith.	12/7/07	10:00	Craig Detweiler
SCI		12/7/07	14:00	Karen Kaplan
POLI	Connecticut's senior United States Senator Chris Dodd joins Larry Mantle to talk about his campaign to win Democratic nomination for the 2008 presidential election.	12/7/07	20:00	Chris Dodd
ART	This new documentary tells the little-known story of how hundreds of thousands of Estonians sang forbidden patriotic songs in public to rally for independence.	12/7/07	20:00	Jim Tusty, Mart Laar
TECH	Patt talks with travel experts about the advent of this new perk--or pain--of airplane travel.	12/7/07	21:30	Charles Ogilvie, Jennifer Urbaniak, Henry Hartevelde
TRAV	Can the Inland Empire sustain its growth, sort out its traffic woes and become a viable urban alternative to L.A. and Orange Counties?	12/7/07	27:00	Juliann Allison, Rick Bishop, Anne Mayer

ART	Larry and critics Jean Oppenheimer, of Village Voice Media, Peter Rainer, of the Christian Science Monitor , and Charles Solomon, animation critic, historian, and author for amazon.com, discuss many of the week's new releases including the feature films Atonement , Juno , The Walker , The Amateurs , Grace is Gone , and The Golden Compass and the documentaries, The Singing Revolution , and Oswald's Ghost .	12/7/07	40:00	Jean Oppenheimer, Peter Rainer, Charles Solomon
DIV	Patt moderates a discussion among U.C. Riverside students and faculty members about student life in the 21st Century.	12/7/07	48:30	Susan Allen Ortega, Ana Ruhl, Caitlin Smith, Sal Becerra, Mandy Banet
Pol	Los Angeles City Hall made a place for a special menorah this week in celebration of Hanukkah. The menorah survived the Holocaust in Poland.	12/8/07	2:15	John Rabe
Crime	KPCC's Brian Watt reports that thieves are stealing the copper wiring in the street lights, walking away with tens-of-thousands of dollars.	12/8/07	2:29	Brian Watt
Hist	KPCC's Adolfo Guzman-Lopez talks about his trip to Mexico City.	12/8/07	2:56	Adolfo Guzman-Lopez
Art	John talks to sometime Messiah singer Jean Severson.	12/8/07	3:28	John Rabe, Jean Severson
Health	John talks to surfer Billy O'Connor, who rode the large waves at Sunset Beach in Pacific Palisades on Wednesday.	12/8/07	3:31	John Rabe, Billy O'Connor
Food	LA Times writer Betty Hallock says a few cocktail bars are trying to impose order on chaos by enforcing a few rules... Like no cell phones, no shouting, and no big parties.	12/8/07	3:32	John Rabe
Ent	The small Baltic country of Estonia has a long history of subjugation and song. John talks to James and Maureen Castle Tusty, who produced a new documentary called The Singing Revolution .	12/8/07	3:36	John Rabe, James and Maureen Castle Tusty
Movie	John visits the site of the Duke's home in the valley with Kevin Roderick.	12/8/07	3:41	Kevin Roderick/Rabe
Art	Music director Grant Gershon tells John Rabe about the LA Master Chorale's annual Messiah Sing-a-Long. It's just like the Sound of Music sing-along, only not as campy.	12/8/07	3:59	John Rabe
Housing	The Union Rescue Mission on LA's Skid Row was hit this week by robbery and arson. The thief stole tens of thousands of dollars from homeless men.	12/8/07	5:20	John Rabe
Lit	The Hotel Cecil was once the temporary home of Jack Unterweger, who murdered prostitutes in Los Angeles and Austria in the early 1990s. Queena Kim talks to author John Leake, who wrote Entering Hades: The Double Life of a Serial Killer .	12/8/07	5:42	Queen Kim
ECON	State lawmakers may have found a way to help homeowners	12/10/07	2:06	Small
HIST	Volunteers gather oral history of Nixon administration	12/10/07	2:21	Felde
ART	Messiah Sing-A-Long at Disney Hall with LA Master Chorale	12/10/07	3:29	Rabe
POLI	Many Cal voters move to absentee	12/10/07	3:50	Felde
LIT	Michael Krasny, the host of KQED's Forum , one of public radio's most popular and intellectually compelling programs, joins Larry Mantle to talk about how his strong desire to become a novelist was eclipsed by his talent as a communicator and his deft ability to draw others out as an interlocutor.	12/10/07	20:00	Michael Krasny
ENT	In its fifth week, the Writers Guild of America strike is taking a toll on everyone involved including the negotiators, as rancor between the sides continues to grow.	12/10/07	19:00	Jim Kennedy, Alex Ben Block
TRAV	Boeings novel outsourcing idea has come back to bite it: language problems, cultural differences and assembly difficulties have delayed the 787 by at least six months and cost Boeing millions of dollars. Is outsourcing still a manufacturer's panacea?	12/10/07	21:30	Mark Blondin, Claude Barfield
LIT	The Nuclear Jihadist details the life of the man who played a key role in Pakistan's successful quest for a nuclear weapon and who is considered a hero in that nation.	12/10/07	27:00	Douglas Frantz and Catherine Collins

HEAL	Busy Americans are famed for their ability to multi-task. But research shows that the constant barrage is taking a toll on productivity and health.	12/10/07	28:30	Russell Poldrack, Jason Hoffman
LIT	In his new book The Merchant of Death , co-author and journalist Douglas Farah tells the incredible story of Viktor Bout, the Russian weapons supplier whose global network has changed the way modern warfare is fought.	12/10/07	40:00	Douglas Farah
POLI		12/10/07	30:00	Mary Price, Robert Pugsley
POLI	The CIA says it destroyed videotapes in 2005 of interrogations of terrorism suspects.	12/10/07	30:00	Loch "Lock" Johnson, John Eastman
HEAL	Board members volunteered for decades at hospital	12/11/07	2:04	Felde
EDU	UCLA a class analyses rise of anti-immigrant humor	12/11/07	4:28	Guzman
POLI	A new state audit shows that over the last decade California's State Compensation Insurance Fund wasted millions of dollars on marketing companies that apparently provided "minimal services."	12/11/07	10:00	Marc Lifsher
HEAL	A majority of California's hospitals are at high risk of collapsing during a major earthquake.	12/11/07	20:00	Jim Lott, Chuck Idelson
ENT	Is a celebrity endorsement is just a headline grabber, or can it change the course of world events.	12/11/07	06:30	Ken Rudin, Ann Lewis
EDU	Many involved are skeptical but some are so fed up with the current system — that they're willing to give it a try.	12/11/07	09:00	Adolfo Guzman Lopez, Ramon Cortines
ECON	Wall Street plunged some 300 points today after the Federal Reserve lowered interest rates by a mere 0.25 percent. A disappointed Wall Street was hoping for a larger cut.	12/11/07	12:00	Chris Farrell
SCI	Patt talks with John Hawks, an anthropologist and lead author of the study, about human evolution.	12/11/07	15:00	John Hawks
LAW	Patt talks with experts about the controversial sex-offenders list.	12/11/07	15:00	Diane Webb, Susan Brown McBride
ENT	Patt talks with David Weisman of the Dax Foundation, the Oscar's current owners, about the failure of the Sotheby's auction to unload Orson Welles's little gold-plated guy.	12/11/07	17:30	David Weisman
POLI	Former New York City Mayor Rudy Giuliani set to meet voters in Santa Monica and attend a fundraiser in San Juan Capistrano.	12/11/07	22:00	Carla Marinucci
HOUS	Addressing complaints from Los Angeles residents who fear that the spread of large, boxy houses across the city is spoiling the architectural flavor of small single-family neighborhoods, L.A. officials are discussing an "anti-mansionization" measure that would drastically limit the square-footage of new or remodeled homes.	12/11/07	24:00	Jane Usher
ENT	Despite recent speculation that the writers and studios were on the verge of reaching an agreement, it now appears as if the writers strike will extend indefinitely.	12/11/07	30:00	Richard Verrier, Jim Kennedy, Craig Mazin
HEAL	Did you know that the Romans scraped their skin to clean it?	12/11/07	30:00	Katherine Ashenburg
ECON	Antique dealer volunteers to run thrift store sales	12/12/07	2:05	Felde
ENV	Hinkley tries to rebound after the Brockovich case as a new threat looms	12/12/07	4:05	Cuevas
ENER	The Los Angeles City Council sent the Department of Water and Power's proposed rate increases back to the utility, giving newly installed General Manager David Nahai 60 days to address a number of concerns.	12/12/07	10:00	Eric Garcetti, David Nahai
ENV	Handing a major defeat to the auto industry, a federal judge ruled Wednesday that California can regulate greenhouse gas emissions from vehicles.	12/12/07	10:00	Fran Pavley
SCI	That name is just on the tip of my tongue...how many times have we heard or said that?	12/12/07	20:00	Deborah Burke
POLI	The Iowa caucus and the New Hampshire primary are less than a month away and most of the major Republican Presidential candidates are going head to head in today's debate in Johnston, Iowa.	12/12/07	20:00	Arnold Steinberg, Dan Schnur

LAW	Guest-host Jon Beaupre asks: now that the judge has thrown out the suit, what's the next move for automakers?	12/12/07	13:00	Kenneth Green, Sean Hecht
SPOR	Major League Baseball's own internal investigation into widespread steroid use is sure to be a bombshell, but will it actually change the steroid culture among major league players?	12/12/07	17:30	Ron Rappaport
EDU	Teachers and parents at seven low-performing LAUSD middle and high schools cast ballots Tuesday, voting whether to join Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa's plan to reshape instruction in their schools.	12/12/07	24:00	Adolfo Guzman-Lopez, Marshall Tuck, Marlene Canter
FOR	Boudreaux joins guest-host Jon Beaupre to talk about life reporting from a holy city and beyond.	12/12/07	31:00	Richard Boudreaux
HEAL	More than 10 years ago, the chemical chromium 6 was discovered in the water in Hinkley. A decade later PG&E is still struggling to clean up the contamination, and Hinkley is struggling to bounce back.	12/12/07	35:30	Steven Cuevas, Norman Diaz, Jeff Meberg
SPOR	Anita de Frantz, one of three American members of the International Olympic Committee is one of the most prominent women sports leaders in the U.S.	12/12/07	30:00	Anita de Frantz
ENV	Hinkley tries to rebound after the Brockovich case as a new threat looms	12/13/07	4:33	Cuevas
ENT	He's currently acting as Celebrity Ambassador for Star Trek The Tour, which promises to be the largest Star Trek exhibit ever, and he has a new book out, Star Trek: The Academy — Collision Course.	12/13/07	23:30	William Shatner
POLI	Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa claimed victory yesterday as election results confirmed that teachers and parents at three high schools and four middle schools voted to join the Partnership for Los Angeles Schools.	12/13/07	24:00	Adolfo Guzman-Lopez, Bill Ring, Jose Lara
LIT	Patt discusses the film and the aftermath of its production.	12/13/07	25:00	Khalid Abdalla, Ali Jaafar
SPOR	Even if the Mitchell Report is a tell-all bombshell, will the fans care?	12/13/07	48:30	Peter Abraham, JC Bradbury, William Carroll, Nick Roman
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and Gustavo Arellano, OC Weekly staff writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	12/13/07	30:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
SPOR	The long awaited report on drug use in MLB is being released today (THURS).	12/13/07	1 hour	Elliott Almond, David Carter, Jason Sosa
ENV	Hinkley tries to rebound after the Brockovich case as a new threat looms	12/14/07	4:28	Cuevas
OC	OC to open largest water treatment plant of its kind	12/14/07	4:32	Valot
ECON	Members of the California state legislature expressed concern over filling the state's projected $14-billion budget gap next year, stating that it may be necessary to raise a number of taxes.	12/14/07	10:00	John Myers
POLI	The Senate passed a trimmed-back energy bill Thursday that may bring higher-gas mileage cars and SUVs into showrooms in the coming decade and fill their tanks with ethanol.	12/14/07	20:00	John Campbell, Daniel Lashof
POLI	On a trip to France this year, he bought over five thousand dollars worth of wine and recently sold over three thousand dollars of that wine to the state's Democratic Party.	12/14/07	09:30	Dennis Overstreet
HEAL	Patt talks with a sports doc about the danger of steroids.	12/14/07	13:00	Dr. Donald Catlin
POLI	Patt discusses the options for alleviating the state's money woes.	12/14/07	15:00	H.D. Palmer, Dan Walters
SCI	Researchers are trying to find a haven for Spirit as it approaches its third Martian winter with more dust on its solar panels than in previous years.	12/14/07	15:30	Steven Squyres
ENV	Long Beach, meanwhile, is having more success with mandatory restrictions. Patt talks with Long Beach Mayor Bob Foster about how that's working.	12/14/07	18:00	Bob Foster

POLI	In an effort to ease traffic congestion, the MTA have proposed a new plan to convert the carpool lanes on three L.A. County freeways into toll roads.	12/14/07	24:00	open phones
ECON	As the Writer's Guild strike drags on and production slows, are unemployed writers, grips and other crew members finding opportunities in porn?	12/14/07	26:00	Mark Kernes, Steve Hirsch
ART	Five time Academy Award winner, Francis Ford Coppola joins Larry to talk about his career.	12/14/07	30:00	Francis Ford Coppola
ART	Larry and critics Claudia Puig, of USAToday , Wade Major, of boxoffice.com and L.A. CityBeat , and Charles Solomon, animation critic, historian, and author for amazon.com , discuss many of the week's new releases including the feature films The Kite Runner , I Am Legend , Youth Without Youth , Alvin and the Chipmunks , and Look and the documentaries Protagonist , and Lagerfeld Confidential .	12/14/07	30:00	Claudia Puig, Wade Major, Charles Solomon
Relig.	The tree lighting in Atwater Village has become one of the largest neighborhood celebrations in Los Angeles. Queena Kim reports.	12/15/07	2:10	Queena Kim
Youth	John goes to one of the Southland's most charming seasonal rituals: the 53rd annual Christmas Tree Lane Parade in Long Beach.	12/15/07	2:22	John Rabe
ART	New Yorker's Hugh Eakin on Marion True, former Getty curator accused of trafficking in looted antiquities	12/15/07	2:44	Rabe
Art	The Craft and Folk Art Museum is showing the works of Eva Zeisel, a mother of modern design. Off-Ramp correspondent Julian Bermudez says don't forget to check-out the museum's gift shop, which is selling rare items by Zeisel.	12/15/07	2:45	Julian Bermudez
Mus	Stanley talks about the historic Led Zeppelin concert, which he missed.	12/15/07	3:28	John Rabe, Paul Stanley
ENV	LA DWP plans to drain the Silverlake reservoir of all its water	12/15/07	3:35	Jahad
Housing	This month, KPCC has been highlighting places that need volunteers. Queena Kim visits My Friend's Place, the only full-time resource center for homeless youth in Los Angeles.	12/15/07	3:59	Queena Kim
Housing	Father Greg Boyle runs Homeboy Industries. Off-Ramp producer Queena Kim asked him to tell a parable for the holidays.	12/15/07	4:27	Father Greg Boyle, Queena Kim
Crime	We talk with The New Yorker contributor Hugh Eakin, the only reporter to interview Marion True, the former Getty curator caught in the antiquities looting scandal.	12/15/07	4:50	John Rabe, Hugh Eakin
Mus	Five years ago, KPCC's Adolfo Guzman-Lopez marked punk's first quarter century by interviewing some of the key players. Here's an updated version of that story.	12/15/07	4:59	Adolpho Guzman- Lopez
Mus	KISS front man Paul Stanley talks to John at his Beverly Hills home about his latest passion: painting. Stanley says painting is better than music for working out emotions.	12/15/07	5:39	John Rabe, Paul Stanley
ENV	Volunteers tend gardens in Rolling Hills	12/17/07	2:00	Felde
SCIE	Sandra's daughters are addicted to stories	12/17/07	2:44	Loh
POLI	Watts high school students have opinions about Presieential campaign	12/17/07	3:59	Felde
ART	Getty Center celebrates 10 year anniversary	12/17/07	4:53	Guzman
HEAL	City officials announced on Friday that an unexpected chemical reaction in the Silver Lake and Elysian reservoirs will necessitate dumping 600 million gallons of water from the two reservoirs that supply a large part of the city.	12/17/07	10:00	David Nahai
ENT	Striking film and television writers are in negotiations with venture capitalists to establish businesses that would bypass the Hollywood studio system and reach audiences via the Web.	12/17/07	20:00
ART	Larry talks with Tony Award-winning Broadway Producer and author of How Does the Show Go On?: An Introduction to the Theater (Disney Editions), Thomas Schumacher about the inner-workings of Broadway, and about current issues facing the musical industry.	12/17/07	20:00	Thomas Schumacher

HEAL	A new bill aims to lower costs to all users by making everyone pay, though opponents of the bill say the plan will only make matters worse by placing an even greater financial burden on those already unable to afford California's cost of living.	12/17/07	07:00	Dan Weintraub
FOR	As other charitable organizations around the world consider their fundraising efforts this time of year, Patt Morrison asks what it takes for donors to start writing checks.	12/17/07	07:00	Kevin Moran
MEDI	The new year may bring an end to late night reruns as talk show heavyweights Jay Leno and Conan O'Brien have announced that their programs will return to television on January 2, even if writers remain on strike.	12/17/07	08:00	Alex Ben Block
LIT	This year's word is W00t (rhymes with hoot), an expression of glee used by online gamers.	12/17/07	08:30	Geoffrey Nunberg
LIT	A new dictionary offers more than 60,000 entries from beats, hipsters, Teddy Boys, mods and rockers, surfers, Valley Girls, dudes, pill-popping truck drivers, hackers, rappers and more.	12/17/07	13:00	Tom Dalzell
IMM	Assuming there are no injunctions issued by the courts, on January 1st Arizona will enact the nation's toughest law against illegal immigrants.	12/17/07	26:30	Judith Gans, Glen Hamer, Rep. Dana Rohrabacher
RACE	A new poll from the San Francisco-based New America Media shows an undercurrent of racial tension and bigotry remains among blacks, Hispanics and Asians.	12/17/07	27:00	Sandip Roy
ENV	Delegates from 190 countries met at the U.N. climate conference in Bali last week, with the goal of negotiating how to reduce greenhouse gas emissions over time.	12/17/07	40:00	C. Boyden Gray
HEAL	After almost a year of negotiations, Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger and Assembly Speaker Fabian Nuñez have agreed upon an ambitious health care plan that would extend health insurance to the estimated 3.6 million Californians who do not have it.	12/17/07	30:00	Daniel Zingale, Andy Stern
HEAL	State assembly approves first phase of medical insurance for Cal	12/18/07	2:36	Myers
OC	Officials worry about residents not following evacuation orders	12/18/07	3:06	Valot
IE	New exhibit at Pitzer College showcases artist's photos from Antarctica	12/18/07	4:31	Cuevas
POLI	The Ports of Long Beach and Los Angeles provide imported goods to the entire nation.	12/18/07	9:00	Mario Cordero
HEAL	Late yesterday the state Assembly approved the first part of a $14.4 billion plan to extend medical insurance to most residents, marking the first real victory in the Governor's campaign to overhaul the state healthcare system.	12/18/07	13:00	John Myers
HEAL	San Francisco mayor Gavin Newsom wants to do something about it by taxing the big-box retailers and chain drugstores for sales of high-fructose soft drinks.	12/18/07	06:30	Gavin Newsom
MEDI	Commissioners voted to impose a limit that would prevent the nation's largest cable company, Comcast, from controlling more than 30% of the national cable market.	12/18/07	09:00	Corey Boles
ECON	Maguire has put in a bid for the company, discussing possible financial collaboration with investors from the Persian Gulf and one of the largest investment firms in Los Angeles.	12/18/07	09:00	Mark Lacter
HOUS	As more homes come onto the market because of defaults in subprime mortgages, could there be an increasing glut of unsold homes, further depressing the average home price? Or have we finally hit the real estate rock bottom?	12/18/07	13:00	Andrew LePage, Leslie Appleton-Young
LIT	One sentence from the document, "A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear Arms, shall not be infringed" has divided legal scholars over an individual's right to carry a gun.	12/18/07	15:00	Adam Freedman, Nelson Lund
POLI	How are the Feds fudging the books, and with a weak dollar, a troubled economy and astronomical oil prices, how has the deficit managed to decrease?	12/18/07	17:30	Allan Sloan

LIT	According to a new survey by Prince and Associates, a wealth-research firm, currently men and women ask for an average of $1.5 million when marrying for money.	12/18/07	27:00	Robert Frank
MEDI	In 1975, the Federal Communications Commission approved a ban on media "cross-ownership," when one outlet owns the newspapers and broadcasting stations in a city.	12/18/07	30:00	Josh Silver, Steven Titch
FOR	Despite the early success of toppling the Taliban in 2001, insurgent attacks are up to their highest levels since the beginning of the US involvement.	12/18/07	30:00	Carlotta Gall, Lisa Curtis, Dr. Larry Goodson
RACE	Award winning author and scholar Shelby Steele examines the complex racial issues surrounding Barack Obama in his quest to become President of the United States.	12/18/07	30:00	Shelby Steele
EDU	Your local school always needs colunteers	12/19/07	2:01	Felde
ECON	State agencies try to dig up the "underground economy"	12/19/07	3:05	Small
POLI	Justice Thomas speaks at Regan Library	12/19/07	3:27	Felde
ECON	Southern California home sales in November fell by 43% from the year before, while median prices fell 10%, according to a DataQuick Information Systems' survey released yesterday.	12/19/07	9:00	John Karevoll
ECON	Responding to the sub-prime lending debacle, the Federal Reserve on Tuesday proposed new lending rules to protect borrowers from fraud and deception.	12/19/07	15:00	Kurt Eggert
POLI	The California primaries are only seven weeks away and Senator Clinton's lead has shrunk in half since October.	12/19/07	09:00	Shery Bebitch-Jeffe
LAW	The Los Angeles Police Commission will vote Thursday on whether or not LAPD officers who handle drugs and cash should disclose detailed information about their personal finances.	12/19/07	13:00	"Patrick", Celeste Fremon
ENT	The new film, There Will Be Blood , loosely based on the Upton Sinclair novel, Oil , explores California's petroleum boom at the turn of the last century.	12/19/07	17:30	Kenneth Turan, Kevin Starr
TRAV	Patt talks with Lindsey about LAX, the neighboring communities, runway reconstruction, and a number of other complex issues facing Los Angeles World Airports.	12/19/07	22:00	Gina Marie Lindsey
ECON	KPCC looks at the underground economy in southern California, we ask listeners to call in and fess up about their cash-only contractor or off-the-books nanny.	12/19/07	35:30	Nick Roman, Dan Flaming
ECON	As part of KPCC's two days of special coverage on Southern California's informal economy, Larry Mantle and guests examine the economic pros and cons of the region's underground economy and analyzes to impact of the informal economy on the Southland's formal economy.	12/19/07	30:00	Dan Flaming, Ruth Milkman
HEAL	From the city that gave us the Twinkie defense comes the sugar tax--San Francisco's mayor announced his city will start taxing sodas which have high-fructose corn syrup, the ubiquitous sweetener that's linked to America's obesity problem.	12/19/07	30:00	John Diaz
HEAL	In 2007, the FDA approved a record number of generic drug products.	12/19/07	30:00	Bob Temple, Joe Graedon, Gordon Johnson
LIT	Have you ever met a person who left you wondering, "How could someone be so twisted? So evil?"	12/19/07	30:00	Barbara Oakley
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with David Livingstone Smith, author of The Most Dangerous Animal: Human Nature and the Origins of War (St. Martin's Press), about his new book that delves into the evolutionary, anthropological and psychological reasons why war has continued to exist as a human compulsion.	12/19/07	30:00	David Livingstone Smith
ECON	Underground economy series	12/20/07	2:22	Nazario
POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger praises the compromise health care reform plan	12/20/07	3:23	Myers
ECON	Underground drug economy in the billions in Los Angeles	12/20/07	4:42	Stoltze

ENT	As production slows, gaffers, caterers and teamsters are also taking an economic hit.	12/20/07	10:00	Howard Rodman, Jack Kyser, Steve McDonald
IE	Larry Mantle talks with Steven Cuevas, KPCC's Inland Empire Reporter, and Cassie MacDuff, columnist with The Press Enterprise , about the latest news, events, and developments in the Inland Empire.	12/20/07	20:00	Steven Cuevas, Cassie MacDuff
ENV	Is this bill a true path toward energy independence for the United States?	12/20/07	12:00	Daniel Kammen, Bob Dinneen
ENV	A bill signed by the President raises fuel economy standards for all cars and trucks to 35 miles per gallon by 2020 which - according to the EPA - makes the state law unnecessary. California disagrees.	12/20/07	13:00	Mark Melnick
ENV	By the year 2012 the incandescent bulb will be phased out of the U.S. market with hopes of a complete changeover by 2014.	12/20/07	13:30	Marianne Lavelle, Richard Glickman
LIT	The distinction was given to Russian President, Vladimir Putin.	12/20/07	17:30	Nathan Thornburgh
ENV	The State of California, along with 16 other states, was denied a waiver yesterday that would allow it to regulate CO2 emissions for automobiles.	12/20/07	24:00	Barbara Boxer, Tom Cackette, Ann Carlson
ECON	KPCC's tour of the underground economy continues, this time examining the massive black market for the whacky tabacny.	12/20/07	31:00	Jeffrey Miron
IMM	By one estimate, there are 90,000 undocumented immigrants working as nannies in LA County.	12/20/07	1 hour	Xiomara Corpeno, Christopher Cameron
HEAL	North Long Beach group help to run therapeutic pools	12/21/07	2:27	Guzman
ENV	Cal. to do battle over enforcing tougher-than-federal air quality standards	12/21/07	3:00	Standen
ENV	San Diego Christmas tree farm adding color to a dreary holiday season	12/21/07	3:40	Carroll
DIV	A company is selling medical gift cards that can be used for doctors' visits or deductibles, prescription copays, contact lenses and even elective surgery.	12/21/07	09:00	Kim Bellard
SAC	Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger is considering the early release of more than 20,000 low-risk prison inmates as a way to save money amid a worsening budget crisis.	12/21/07	13:00	Matthew Yi, Franklin Zimring
TECH	The site Facebook.com originally started out as a way for college students to contact and keep in touch with each other, and has now become a window for social science researchers to study human behavior.	12/21/07	15:30	Jason Kaufman
SCI	Scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory say there is a 1 in 75 chance that an asteroid may hit Mars on January 30, 2008.	12/21/07	17:30	Steve Chesley
ECON	Traditional ticket distributors like Ticketmaster aren't happy to have the competition and teams themselves are considering becoming their own scalpers. Who will take up the mantle of the scalper?	12/21/07	20:00	Gregg Easterbrook, Greg Bettinelli
RELI	The Archbishop of Canterbury, England made international headlines this week after attempting to debunk several popular myths about Christmas.	12/21/07	22:00	Jonathan Kirsch
ECON	Chicago real-estate magnate Sam Zell officially took the reigns of Tribune Co. yesterday, announcing board appointments and beginning a new chapter in the ownership of the Los Angeles Times .	12/21/07	24:00	Michael Hiltzik, James Rainey, Brian Greenspun
ART	Larry and critics Lael Loewenstein, of Variety , Jean Oppenheimer, of Village Voice Media, Henry Sheehan, of henrysheehan.com, and Charles Solomon, animation critic, historian, and author for amazon.com, discuss many of the week's new releases including Charlie Wilson's War , Sweeney Todd , Walk Hard , There Will Be Blood , The Bucket List , The Great Debaters , and Persepolis .	12/21/07	1 hour 30	Lael Loewenstein, Jean Oppenheimer, Henry Sheehan, Charles Solomon
ART	Burbank Chorale is one of many groups to perform Christmas Eve at Music Center	12/24/07	2:17	Guzman
IE	Davie Allan the king of fuss guitar releases Xmas record	12/24/07	4:29	Cuevas

ART	One of the world's best known jazz pianists, Oscar Peterson, died today from kidney failure at age 82.	12/24/07	5:00	Don Heckman
POLI	Larry discusses how the race is shaping up between Mark Ridley Thomas and Bernard Parks to replace outgoing L.A. County Supervisor Yvonne Burke.	12/24/07	10:00	Sherry Bebitch Jeffe, Raphael (Raphe) Sonenshein
POLI	John Garamendi joins Larry Mantle to discuss his first year as Lieutenant Governor, then looks forward to 2008 and the repercussions of the budget shortfall.	12/24/07	20:00	Lieutenant Governor John Garamendi
LAW	So far this year, the city has experienced only one-third the number of homicides it did in 1992.	12/24/07	12:00	Lieutenant Ruben Delatorre, Richard Winton
ECON	The idea's proponents, who like to call it "the fair tax", argue that it would eliminate the IRS, spur economic growth, and turn April 15th into just another day on the calendar.	12/24/07	15:00	Len Burman
TECH	Ted Chen untangles the mystery with a scientist who came up with the answer.	12/24/07	17:30	Dorian Raymer
ENT	Flickipedia is a guide for film lovers who want their movie to match their mood.	12/24/07	21:30	Michael Atkinson and Laurel Shifrin
LIT	Lipton's new memoir, Inside Inside , details his experiences in the world of showbiz and beyond.	12/24/07	31:00	James Lipton
SCI	and Founder of the International Skeptics Society Michael Shermer joins Larry Mantle to provide a wrap-up of the most interesting science stories of 2007.	12/24/07	55:00	Michael Shermer
POLI	San Francisco District Attorney Kamala D. Harris is the first elected official in California to endorse Obama for president.	12/24/07	30:00	Kamala Harris
HIST	Artists have different view of Miracle Mile	12/25/07	3:18	Felde
MIL	Valley volunteers put together care packages for US Soldiers serving overseas	12/25/07	4:05	Xaykaothao
ART	Phoenix is also famous on Youtube for his instructional video on how to create a festive Astro Weenie Christmas Tree. He joins Patt to talk about how to be the bell of any holiday ball.	12/25/07	13:00	Charles Phoenix
ENV	One woman made this her personal quest when she found herself swimming with a lost baby gray whale along the California coast.	12/25/07	13:30	Lynne Cox
LIT	Humor writer Bob Eckstein tells the story of the jolly snowman -- pure as the snow he's made of -- with a dark past filled with political intrigue, sex, and violence.	12/25/07	22:00	Bob Eckstein
ART	David Sedaris, Bailey White, John Henry Faulk - these and other NPR voices, past and present, tell stories of the season.	12/25/07	53:00	NPR's Tinsel Tales
LIT	According to NPR correspondent, Eric Weiner, it isn't Disneyland.	12/25/07	30:00	Eric Weiner
LIT	The English language is chock full of idioms. In her new book, I Didn't Know That , Karlen Evins uncovers the history and unusual origins of hundreds of English words and phrases.	12/25/07	30:00	Karlen Evins
LIT	In the sixties, as the nation anticipated the conquest of space, the defeat of poverty, and an end to injustice at home and abroad, no goal seemed beyond America's reach.	12/25/07	30:00	Thomas Hine
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Michael Elliott, author of the new book, Custerology: The Enduring Legacy of the Indian Wars and George Armstrong Custer (University of Chicago Press) that chronicles the life of George Armstrong Custer and attempts to explain why he is such an enduring figure of the American West.	12/25/07	30:00	Michael Elliott
ART	Renaissance books point to big difference between speaking of art then and now	12/26/07	2:55	Guzman
OC	Roofing going "green" in Orange County	12/26/07	4:24	Valot
ART	As Oscar ballots are mailed out today, guest host Ted Chen discusses how the writers strike may affect this year's awards season.	12/26/07	10:00	Alex Ben Block
ECON	California's prison population has increased by approximately 8% since 2003, but budget spending has exploded by 79% to $8.5 billion.	12/26/07	20:00	Dan Walters
FOR		12/26/07	20:00	Blake Hounshell

LIT	In Food: The History of Taste , editor Paul Freedman collects a cornucopia of photos and essays about the origins of recipes, flavorings, and cuisines.	12/26/07	07:30	Paul Freedman
ECON	Lately, big retail chains started cracking down on returns abuse...but are innocent people getting stuck with stuff they can't return as a result? What are your rights when it comes to returns?	12/26/07	10:00	Edgar Dworsky
ECON	Now that the big pre-Christmas push is over, Guest-host Jon Beaupre checks in with economists and retail experts for a retailing debrief.	12/26/07	14:00	Michael McNamara
SCI	Companies are trying to cash in on the popularity of genetics by selling gene tests of their own to consumers, with about 1,400 on the market.	12/26/07	19:30	Gautam Naik, Dr. Harry Ostrer
SAC	A study from the Department of Finance shows that, despite intense immigration, people are also fleeing the state at an ever increasing rate. So if they're better off, why are they running away?	12/26/07	31:00	H.D. Palmer, Mary Heim, Dan Weintraub
ECON		12/26/07	40:00	Alex Viecco, Kathy Kristof
ECON	Guest host Ted Chen is joined by Jack Kyser of the Los Angeles Economic Development Corporation and Chris Thornberg of Beacon Economics to discuss both the local and national economic outlook for 2008.	12/26/07	30:00	Edward Martinez, Chris Thornberg
EDU	Area professor advocates a revisit of 18th century "peace" text	12/27/07	2:40	Guzman
LAW	South Bay reacts to assassination of Pakistani opposition leader	12/27/07	3:30	Valot/Binkowski
POLI	We ask what will keep lowans focused on January 3rd, and what might backfire.	12/27/07	07:30	Ron Elving
POLI	For the first time in the 119 year history of the Rose Parade, China will have its own float.	12/27/07	17:30	Bill Bogaard, Shizhong Chen
FOR	Benazir Bhutto was a deeply polarizing figure in Pakistan's turbulent recent political history.	12/27/07	19:00	Greg Myre
LIT	Scholar Michael Genovese tackles presidential character and personality, political institutions and opportunities, power versus leadership, and sources of and limits to presidential power.	12/27/07	22:00	Michael Genovese
FOR	A suicide bomber riding a motorbike shot and killed former Pakistani Prime Minister and opposition leader Benazir Bhutto today, before blowing himself up, killing 20 others.	12/27/07	31:00	James Astill, Brian Michael Jenkins
ENV	Volunteers weed out non-native plants at Madrona Marsh in Torrance	12/28/07	2:35	Valot
EDU	UCLA professor proposes overhaul of study of Chicano literature	12/28/07	3:26	Guzman
ENT	Capsule reviews of the week's new movies	12/28/07	3:52	Mantle
OBIT	Pakistani and Muslim leaders will hold a special prayer service for former Pakistani Prime Minister and opposition leader Benazir Bhutto at the Islamic Center of Southern California.	12/28/07	05:00	Brian Watt
OBIT	Longtime Los Angeles sportscaster Stu Nahan died yesterday at the age of 81.	12/28/07	07:30	Ron Rappaport
ECON	More than 3 million people will have to wait until February to get their tax refunds because of Congress' late fix to the AMT.	12/28/07	10:00	Robert Goldstein
SPOR	The New England Patriots, already a NFL dynasty team with three Superbowl victories since 2002, are looking to top a record that many football experts thought would never be beat.	12/28/07	10:00	Ron Rappaport
SCI	Why do we feel so darned good when we give gifts? Evolutionary biologists have long pondered this question and it turns out it comes down to the survival not of the fittest individuals, but of the fittest genes.	12/28/07	15:30	Jay Phelan
ENV	Investigators try to find out if Tatiana, the 300-pound Siberian tiger that killed a visitor, escaped from her high-walled pen on her own or got help from someone, inadvertent or otherwise.	12/28/07	16:00	Kevin Fagan, Louis Dorfman

FOR	Guest host Ted Chen and guests discuss the future of Pakistan/ U.S. relations in the wake of the Bhutto assassination and also look at Al Qaeda's possible involvement in the suicide bombing that took the life of Ms. Bhutto and 22 other people in Rawalpindi, Pakistan on Thursday.	12/28/07	24:00	Vali Nasr, Ambassador Azmat Hassan
ART	Travelers are choosing their destinations based on what they fear will disappear or change significantly within the next generation.	12/28/07	31:00	Kenneth Shapiro, Eric Maryanov, Sara Benson
OC	Guest host Ted Chen talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and Gustavo Arellano, OC Weekly staff writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County, as well as some of the biggest O.C. stories from 2007.	12/28/07	30:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
POLI	NPR's Justice Correspondent, Ari Shapiro, joins Ted Chen to talk about the latest news regarding the ongoing investigation into the destruction of the CIA interrogation tapes and the alleged existence of additional tapes that have not yet been destroyed.	12/28/07	30:00	Ari Shapiro
ENT	Guest host Ted Chen takes listener calls about what were the best and worst of film and television in 2007.	12/28/07	30:00	Sam Rubin
Food	There's nothing fast about making wine. From sunup to sundown, Joe and Heather D'Augustine pick grapes, sort 'em, crush 'em, and start all over again.	12/29/07	2:12	Queena Kim
Ent	Off-Ramp commentators Angela Shelton and Frances Collier say neighborhoods are alive in well in Los Angeles.	12/29/07	3:30	Angela Shelton, Frances Collier
Food	John hangs out with the owners of Silverlake Wine while they choose what to buy.	12/29/07	3:53	John Rabe
Food	Joe and Heather D'Augustine always dreamed of having a vineyard. And so they grew one in their backyard in Echo Park. Queena Kim took a trip to the D'Augustine vineyard, which is just steps from their home.	12/29/07	4:02	Queena Kim
Mus	Hidden away in a basement office at UCLA's Schoenberg Hall is a piano that inspires young musicians: the actor Edward G. Robinson's Steinway. Open up the piano and you'll see signatures of some of music's greats, including Serge Prokofieff and Rosemary Clooney.	12/29/07	4:16	John Rabe
Trans	L.A. Times writer Ralph Vartabedian shows John the rampant abuse of disabled parking permits. Ten percent of California drivers have them. Do they all really need them, or is it a scam?	12/29/07	4:28	Ralph Vartabedian/Rabe
Food	After a week of fermenting the grape juice, Joe and Heather bottle and taste the wine.	12/29/07	4:36	Queena Kim
Mus	The New Yorker's Alex Ross talks about his new book, "The Rest is Noise", in which classical music revolutionary and SoCal Dude Arnold Schoenberg is featured.	12/29/07	5:08	Alex Ross/Rabe
Ent	In the 1970s, actor and writer Taylor Negron took a class from the First Lady of Comedy. Negron shares a side of the Funny Lady that few have seen.	12/29/07	6:40	Taylor Negron
ENV	Volunteers share why they care for exotic animals at Wildlife Waystation	12/31/07	2:12	Xaykaothao
EDU	Sandra Tsing Loh talks about the rules and regs of PTA activities	12/31/07	2:37	Loh
ENV	Park managers battle growing population to create new open spaces	12/31/07	3:27	Peterson
HEA	Year in review emergency rooms in LA County	12/31/07	3:44	Nazario
ART	In new album, Southland band blends Cambodian and psychedelic sounds	12/31/07	3:48	Guzman
POLI	Seniors at So Pas High School give reax to Democratic debate	12/31/07	3:51	Felde
POLI	Anti-China demonstrators focus on human rights abuses at Rose Parade	12/31/07	4:14	Xaykaothao
LAW	Now in California if you light up while driving with young children in the car you are susceptible to a $100 fine.	12/31/07	09:00	State Sen. Jenny Oropeza, Jacob Sullem

MIL	Patt talks with soldiers and a reporter about New Year's in Iraq.	12/31/07	13:00	Major Anton Alston
ECON	Just when we were becoming accustomed to paying a little over $3/gallon for gasoline we can now expect a bitter New Year present: $4/gallon gasoline, at least, for the foreseeable future.	12/31/07	13:00	Tom Dalzell, Philip Verleger
TRAN	Prop 91 would change the California Constitution to ensure that funds earmarked for state and local transportation systems are used only for those systems.	12/31/07	17:30	James Earp, Kymberleigh Richards
ENT	Despite the writer's strike, shows such as The Colbert Report and The Tonight Show will return to television.	12/31/07	17:30	Larry Gelbart, Alex Ben Block
LAB	A controversial and highly contested law that will crackdown on employers in Arizona who hire illegal immigrants is about to go into effect on January 1st.	12/31/07	18:00	Dennis Burke