

PROGRAMMING REPORT
KPCC + KUOR
January - March 2008
Key	Program Title	Date	Time	Guest(s)
NEWS
TECH	Federal government to start handing out digital TV converter coupons	1/1/08	1:00	Valot
ENT	Late night TV Shows coming back	1/2/08	1:00	Devall
ENV	A trio of winter storms is heading our way	1/2/08	1:00	Roman
POLI	Californians call Iowa for their candidate	1/3/08	1:00	Stoltze
ENT	Jon Stewart, Stephen Colbert set to return to fresh broadcast	1/7/08	1:00	Watt
HEAL	Report on overdose errors at Cedars-Sinai	1/10/08	1:00	Roman
ENT	Street in Lakewood after Hedda Hoppe	1/13/08	1:00	Felde
POLI	John Edwards rallies supporters at union headquarters	1/17/08	1:00	Felde
TRANS	Streets in Lakewood have ties to radical	1/26/08	1:00	Felde
POLI	Party boss pleased about tight race	2/1/08	1:00	Felde
HIST	Mormon temple almost built in Mar Vista	1/6/08	1:01	Felde
IE	Boy wins lawmaker's essay contest, his idea might become law	1/14/08	1:01	Vbaer
EDU	Cal State trustees remove civility warning in student conduct code	1/22/08	1:01	Guzman
HIST	Verdugo Road named after Corporal in Spanish army	1/19/08	1:02	Felde
EDU	LA Unified administrators lobby against a cut to school district health programs	1/23/08	1:02	Guzman
OBIT	Honorary mayor of Hollywood die	1/10/08	1:03	Felde
OC	Video shows OC Sheriff's deputies using Taser on restrained man	1/23/08	1:03	Valot
TRANS	Mayor Villaraigosa unveils traffic relief initiatives	1/29/08	1:03	Watt
ART	On the parade route on Colorado Blvd	1/1/08	1:04	Xaykaothao
EDU	Reaction to Schwarzenegger's proposed cuts to the education budget	1/10/08	1:04	Guzman
IE	Inland region braces for more wet weather	1/25/08	1:04	Cuevas
IMM	Senator Ted Kennedy is campaigning in LA	2/1/08	1:04	Binkowski
HEAL	Study suggests So Cal residents are at unusual risk for cancer	1/4/08	1:05	Peterson
HEA	Update on MLK KING/HARBOR Hospital	1/9/08	1:05	Nazario
OC	Sheriff Mike Carona talks about decision to retire	1/14/08	1:05	Binkowski
ENT	Hollywood delivered a pair of comedies this weekend	1/14/08	1:05	Moran
ART	The WGA is allowing striking writers to work on certain awards shows	1/16/08	1:05	Binkowski
IE	Inland region preps for severe winter storm	1/4/08	1:06	Cuevas
IE	Inland law enforcement cracking down on DUI's	12/31/08	1:08	Cuevas
ECON	Activists are trying to get a measure to reform California's 3 strike law on the November ballot	1/9/08	1:10	Binkowski
IE	Calfire requests security before responding to calls on Soboba reservations	1/10/08	1:10	Cuevas
LAW	LA County Sheriff's deputies in Compton get new tool to detect gunshots	12/30/08	1:10	Valot
HIST	Crenshaw neighborhood celebrates King legacy	1/21/08	1:12	Peterson
LAW	Orange County Sheriff has stepped down amid scandal and federal corruption charges	1/14/08	1:13	Binkowski
ECON	LA city officials want to bring back Broadway	1/28/08	1:13	Watt
IE	19th Palm Springs film festival opens with fewer films	1/2/08	1:14	Cuevas
POLI	Gov proposes closing one of every 5 state parks	1/11/08	1:15	Peterson
IE	Search continues in San Bernardino Mountains for hiker missing over a week	1/11/08	1:16	Cuevas
ART	The Rose Parade kicked off 2008 with few problems after a controversial few weeks	1/1/08	1:17	Binkowski

IE	INLANDIA exhibit opens in Rancho Cucamonga	1/28/08	1:17	Cuevas
OC	Group threatens recall if two Capistrano school board members stay	1/22/08	1:20	Valot
IE	Riverside nurses calling for unionization	1/18/08	1:21	Cuevas
ENV	Plastic bags aren't going anywhere anytime soon	1/23/08	1:22	Binkowski
ECON	Fears about US economy triggered a major stock sell-off	1/23/08	1:22	Small
IE	County courts take over classrooms for civil trials	1/14/08	1:23	Cuevas
SACTO	California's public employees' retirement fund stays steady in economic downturns	1/22/08	1:24	Small
ECON	Location Film and TV Production declines in LA Area in 2007	1/25/08	1:25	Baer
LAW	Federal judge postpones hearing on lethal injection to death row inmates	1/17/08	1:26	Small
SACTO	Lawmakers take first swing at Gov Schwarzenegger's budget cuts	1/17/08	1:26	Small
IE	Protest stated over delayed perchlorate cleanup in Rialto	2/1/08	1:27	Cuevas
IE	Mountains brace for winter storm	1/3/08	1:28	Cuevas
IE	Alleged animal cruelty by Chino meat supplier exposed by Humane Society	1/30/08	1:28	Cuevas
IE	Counties lose challenge to election recount procedures	1/23/08	1:29	Cuevas
POLI	Hilary Clinton announces new economic plan	1/11/08	1:33	Jahad
HEAL	Public Health, second hand smoking	1/3/08	1:35	Nazario
EDU	Reaction to Schwarzenegger's proposed cuts to the education budget	1/11/08	1:36	Guzman
SACTO	Governor to propose across the board cuts to state programs	1/10/08	1:40	Small
EDU	LA Unified payroll system continues to have problems one year later	1/7/08	1:41	Guzman
IE	Little girl wounded in crossfire police standoff	1/14/08	1:44	Cuevas
SACTO	A proposal to release inmates early to save money could relieve overcrowding	1/15/08	1:45	Small
ECON	Economists differ on predictions for state recession	1/21/08	1:46	Baer
POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger delivers his annual state of the state address	1/8/08	1:49	Keith
IE	Medical marijuana club opens in Riverside	1/17/08	1:54	Cuevas
HEAL	Healthcare reform in Cal. Rejected	1/28/08	1:55	Small
LABOR	Taking temperature of picketing writers on Oscar nomination day	1/22/08	2:00	Watt
LAW	Gang violence surges in Monrovia	2/1/08	2:00	Binkowski
SCIE	JPL honors the first U-S mission into space	1/30/08	2:01	Binkowski
ART	Federal officials accuse four museums in looted antiquities investigation	1/25/08	2:04	Guzman
OC	Video shows OC Sheriff's deputies allegedly using Taser on restrained man	1/23/08	2:05	Valot
POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger gives his state of the state address	1/8/08	2:08	Small
OC	Gov Schwarzenegger supports proposed extension of 241 Toll Road in OC	1/16/08	2:09	Valot
IMM	Head of federal citizenship efforts visits Southland to push immigrant assimilation	1/18/08	2:23	Guzman
HEAL	New Law makes it easier for doctors to test for HIV	1/3/08	2:25	Sun
LAW	US District Court Judge replaces the federal receiver in charge of prison medical care	1/23/08	2:32	Small
POLI	Transportation funding measure	1/28/08	2:34	Russ
POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger delivers state of the state address	1/9/08	2:35	Small
DIS	San Francisco Zoo opens its doors for first time since Christmas	1/4/08	2:38	Small
HEAL	Budget cuts roll back the S_CHIP program	1/14/08	2:45	Nazario
LABOR ENV	Mentoring aspiring writers on one WGA picket line	1/24/08	2:45	Watt
POLI	Small crowd watches GOP Debate	1/31/08	2:46	Felde
HEAL	New law will require drugs to carry electronic tags	1/23/08	2:52	Varney

POLI	Presidential candidates in California	1/17/08	2:56	Felde
EDU	Educators across the state brace themselves for proposed budget cuts	1/7/08	2:57	Guzman
POLI	2-way with OC Supervisor John Moorlach about Carona retiring	1/14/08	3:03	Julian
LAW	LA Unified School District agrees to pay $4 million dollars to LA Conservancy	1/16/08	3:03	Julian
POLI	Democratic candidate talks economy in the Valley	1/17/08	3:11	Felde
ECON	Billionaire Philanthropist to donate more than $23 million dollars for new charter schools	1/18/08	3:11	Jahad
LAW	California has more inmates waiting for execution than any other state	1/10/08	3:15	Campbell
POLI	Obama and Clinton debate in Hollywood	2/1/08	3:15	Felde
POLI	Political scientists talk about Obama and Latino vote	1/29/08	3:28	Stoltze
IE	Employees who witnessed deadly weekend plane crash call for changes	1/22/08	3:29	Cuevas
OC	OC Sheriff retires amid corruption charges	1/15/08	3:36	Valot
POLI	Cal lawmakers returning to Washington to begin 2008 legislative year	1/14/08	3:47	Shaw
IE	Winter storm warning brings to mind deadly 2003 flood	1/4/08	3:55	Cuevas
ART	Mushroom hunter sells rare wild grower mushrooms	1/1/08	4:03	Mullane
OC	Battle over 241 Toll Road extension heats up	1/9/08	4:03	Valot
OBIT	Goth Vamp character from 1950's dies in Hollywood	1/18/08	4:04	Kim
POLI	Political scientist talks about how delegates will be awarded in pres primary	1/31/08	4:05	Julian
POLI	A look at the California primary between Iowa and NH	1/7/08	4:10	Stoltze
POLI	Followup to Kenyan visit to LA City Hall	1/4/08	4:11	Felde
ART	Poets in Southland gather for benefit of ailing writer	1/11/08	4:11	Guzman
POLI	Local Democratic club tries its hand at caucus	1/22/08	4:14	Felde
HIST	Radio Pioneer explains origins of AT&T	1/3/08	4:16	Felde
LAW	Crime conference critical of criminal justice system	1/24/08	4:20	Stoltze
LAW	Case about lethal injections in death penalty cases	1/7/08	4:22	Small
POLI	State of Union; Nancy Pelosi on economic stimulus package; Barbara Boxer on EPA waiver; Grace Napolitano on long term water needs	1/28/08	4:26	Shaw
POLI	LA County still needs pollworker	1/29/08	4:26	Felde
POLI	Longtime registrar retires	1/3/08	4:29	Felde
POLI	Supporters use creativity to garner political support	1/14/08	4:29	Felde
SACTO	The Governor unveils a scary state budget	1/11/08	4:30	Small
ECON	Sub prime collapse hits some Latino homebuyers hard	1/21/08	4:31	Siler
HIST	Bill Siemerling talks about the early days of public radio	1/2/08	4:34	Felde
IE	State voters consider 4 measures that would expand Indian gaming	1/31/08	4:41	Cuevas
ECON	German doctors have trouble coming to California	1/4/08	4:45	Valot
POLI	Governor delivers State of the State	1/8/08	5:10	Small
POLI	Governor releases budget proposal	1/10/08	5:48	Small
SCIE	Sandra sells her daughter's talents a little bit too high	1/28/08	:08	Loh
POLI	Young people are flocking to the poll	2/3/08	:09	Felde
POLI	LA poll workers held demonstration outside county recorder's office in Norwalk	2/1/08	:12	Peterson
EDU	Pro-education groups will help run low performing South LA high school	1/28/08	:39	Guzman
ENER	LA officials break ground on construction on largest wind farm in the country	1/31/08	:42	Peterson
POLI	California Secretary of State reports big jump in newly registered voters	2/1/08	:46	Russ

YOUTH	Dog shots	1/22/08	:47	Nazario
POLI	Democratic presidential candidates are targeting California's Latino population	1/28/08	:47	Adler
EDU	New Policy forces LAUSD to analyze air pollution at more schools	1/28/08	:47	Peterson
ECON	More homes slipped into foreclosure last year	1/29/08	:48	Julian
IE	House sold as art in Palm Springs	1/27/08	:49	Cuevas
ENV	Last months storms boosted the Sierra snow pack above normal levels	2/1/08	:49	O'Mara
HEAL	Glaucoma Awareness Month and expert at MLK/KING Harbor	1/28/08	:50	Nazario
HEAL	Healthcare reform in Cal. Rejected	1/28/08	:52	Russ
ECON	Health officials concerned about declining revenue	1/31/08	:52	Weiss
OC	Charges reduce against ex-sheriff	2/1/08	:52	Valot
OC	Parole in high profile sex assault case	1/25/08	:53	Baer
TECH	Two new computer worms discovered by Glendale security firm	1/25/08	:53	Hertes
LAW	IRS Warns of new tax rebate scams in Los Angeles	1/30/08	:53	Hurtes
POLI	Obama reaches out to Latino	1/25/08	:54	Stoltze
POLI	Pres Bush final State of the Union tonight	1/28/08	:54	O'Mara
ENER	Major fuel cell conference in Newport Beach	1/28/08	:55	Roman
EDU	LA Unified's top Lawyer leaves school district for UCLA top lawyer job	1/25/08	:56	Guzman
LAW	Crime conference focuses on solution	1/26/08	:57	Stoltze
LABOR EN	SAG Awards bring out the stars	1/27/08	:57	Watt
ENT	"Tarzan of the Apes" released 90 years ago	1/27/08	:58	Devall
LAW	Judge imposes penalties on Former studio executive and wife	1/28/08	:59	Devall
ENT	Spartans tie with Rams	1/28/08	:59	Moran
ECON	American products are now affordable in Europe and Japan	1/28/08	4:26	Schmitz
ENV	Jerry Brown plans to ask fed gov to regulate greenhouse gases for off road vehicles	1/29/08	:51	Peterson
HEAL	City council committee approves spay-and-neuter ordinance	1/28/08	:55	Roman
POLI	City of LA feels pinch of economic slowdown	1/28/08	:54	Stoltze
SCIE	An asteroid skims past earth	1/29/08	:58	Roman
IMM	The San Diego Minutemen won't be able to hold on to a part of highway they've adopted	1/29/08	1:21	Binkowski
ECON	Campaign launched to revitalize the Broadway Corridor in downtown LA	1/29/08	1:20	Watt
LAB	Writers Guild gives the Grammys an interim deal	1/28/08	:51	Roman
POLI	Two presidential debates in two days	1/29/08	1:01	Felde
HEAL	CA Insurance regulators sue PacificCare for claims payment violations	1/29/08	1:06	Watt
POLI	Prominent black politician backs Clinton	1/29/08	:55	Stoltze
POLI	Prominent black politician backs Clinton	1/29/08	:55	Stoltze
LAW	City Council considers LAPD officer disclosure requirements	1/29/08	4:03	Stoltze
LAW	Two former police officers found guilty of stealing drugs	1/30/08	:55	Valot
IMMIG	Rules change at borders Thursday for citizens returning from Mexico	1/30/08	:57	Watt
ECON	President Bush speaks about economy at Torrance helicopter factory	1/30/08	:51	Guzman
ENT	Possible alternative plan for Academy Awards in case union writers won't be available	1/30/08	:59	Devall
ECON	President Bush speaks about economy at Torrance helicopter factory	1/30/08	1:09	Guzman
IMMIG	An alternative to their passport for US Citizens at border crossings	2/1/08	:57	Watt
ART	Artesia carnival celebrates 25 years, looks outside of Portuguese culture to stay alive	2/1/08	3:06	Guzman
POLI	Republicans debate in Simi Valley	1/31/08	3:05	Stoltze
POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger endorses McCain	1/31/08	:43	Stoltze
POLI	Republican presidential candidate visits Republican voters in Long Beach	1/31/08	1:40	Guzman

ECON	Mattel's income grew by one-percent last year	2/1/08	:56	Roman
POLI	Hollywood and Highland shopping mall turns into political theater	2/1/08	2:51	Stoltze
POLI	Hundreds gather outside Kodak theater during democratic debate	2/1/08	:59	Stoltze
POLI	Powerful Calif union endorses Obama	2/1/08	:54	Stoltze
ART	The other Democrats stumps at an art gallery	2/2/08	1:00	Felde
POLI	LA Times endorses Obama and McCain	2/1/08	1:01	Felde
SPOR	Lakers have new player from Spain	2/1/08	:56	Roman
POLI	Chelsea Clinton rallies at university in Carson	2/1/08	:14	Valot
TRANS	Mar Vista street named for irrigation ditch	2/3/08	:56	Felde
EDU	Federal government puts temporary ban on ground beef for schools	2/1/08	:53	Guzman
TRANS	Street has dark history	2/2/08	:11	Felde
LAW	Five people dead after standoff in San Fernando Valley	2/7/08	:53	Julian
LAW	Five people dead after standoff in San Fernando Valley	2/7/08	1:57	Nazario
SACTO	State Leaders announce timetable for new leaders	2/7/08	1:08	Small
IE	USDA officials give more detail on Chino meat investigation	2/8/08	1:48	Cuevas
ENV	Surfers at Trestles react to the Coastal Commission's toll road decision	2/8/08	1:49	Binkowski
ART	Rhino artist up for Grammy for work on Black Sabbath album	2/9/08	1:04	Cuevas
ENT	"Crash of the Acron" picked as Best Historical Recording	2/9/08	1:04	Cuevas
OC	Little Saigon holds Tat Parade for first time in four years	2/9/08	:45	Valet
POLI	Cal voters support four Indian gaming pact	2/8/08	1:08	Small
IE	Voters mull over mega Indian prop	2/4/08	1:15	Cuevas
ENV	Another winter storm pummeled California	2/4/08	:46	Julian
LABOR	Possible breakthrough in writers strike	2/4/08	4:10	Julian
HEAL	State Senators don't want health care cut	2/4/08	1:21	Small
POLI	Field Poll predicts eight-point-nine million Californians will cast their vote in this election	2/5/08	:40	Russ
ECON	End of writers strike; Fortune 500 companies; LA Billionaire investigation	2/5/08	4:48	Lacter
SCIE	Supreme Court hears argument in legal dispute in biotechnology industry	2/5/08	1:31	Varney
POLI	Brooke Binkowski at polling place near Cal Tech in Pasadena	2/5/08	1:12	Binkowski
POLI	Kitty Felde is a pollworker at Springfield Missionary Church	2/5/08	1:10	Felde
POLI	Molly Peterson at polling place in Silverlak	2/5/08	1:01	Peterson
POLI	Frank live from polling place in Silverlak	2/5/08	1:35	Stoltze
TRANS	Brooke Binkowski live from Coastal Commission meeting on Toll	2/6/08	1:17	Binkowski
ENT	Brian interviews Loretta Sanchez on the strike line....	2/5/08	2:05	Watt
POLI	Kitty follows the ballots on election night	2/5/08	8:32	Felde
POLI	California voters approve four gaming referendums on ballot	2/6/08	1:44	Cuevas
POLI	Clinton walks away with 52 percent of California's vote	2/6/08	2:07	Schmitz
POLI	California voters face a range of controversial proposals	2/6/08	1:50	Myers
TRANS	Brooke Binkowski live from Coastal Commission meeting on Toll	2/6/08	1:18	Binkowski
SACTO	The defeat of the term limits ballot measure could worsen budget battles	2/6/08	1:19	Small
OC	OC Supervisors approve independent joint oversight	2/6/08	1:01	Valot
IE	Alleged animal cruelty by Chino meat supplier exposed by Humane Society	2/6/08	1:37	Cuevas
POLI	Proponents of Prop 93 want to change term limits	2/4/08	4:28	Small
POLI	LA city leaders warn of dire consequences if prop-s fails	2/4/08	3:59	Stoltze
LAW	First LAPD SWAT officer killed in the line of duty	2/7/08	3:45	Stoltze

POLI	Outside black churches, expressions of support for Barack	2/4/08	2:14	Watt
POLI	Clinton, Obama campaign send top surrogates to LA	2/4/08	1:54	Stoltze
POLI	Middle scholars express opinions on presidential candidates	2/4/08	1:21	Nazario
LABOR	Fox picket line on the Monday after a deal in the works	2/4/08	1:08	Watt
POLI	Focus on Dems, but Calif Republicans working furiously too	2/4/08	1:01	Stoltze
POLI	New exhibit shows 2008 campaign trail	2/5/08	3:48	Felde
POLI	LA County ran through a practice vote court	2/5/08	1:05	Peterson
POLI	For many Californians it's Fat Tuesday	2/4/08	1:11	Devall
POLI	Obama worker monitored precincts today	2/6/08	1:34	Poli
TRANS	FAA says pilots flying into LA X use technique to cut down on fuel	2/7/08	1:02	Roman
TRANS	Washington Boulevard dividing line in court case	2/10/08	1:01	Felde
IMM	Southland workplace raid largest in five years	2/8/08	1:02	Guzman
LAW	LAPD releases more information about killing of SWAT officer	2/8/08	1:06	Stoltze
ENT	Members positive after writer's guild presents tentative contract	2/10/08	1:03	Guzman
OC	CA Coastal Commission to debate 241 toll road	2/5/08	2:21	Valot
POLI	Kitty Felde spent Election Day as poll worker	2/6/08	2:18	Felde
POLI	Hilary Clinton wins California	2/6/08	1:06	Stoltze
POLI	Romney's supporters watch election return	2/6/08	1:00	Watt
POLI	McCain wins California primary	2/6/08	1:03	Stoltze
EDU	Ballot measure to increase community college funding defeated	2/6/08	2:30	Guzman
POLI	Obama supporters at election returns viewing party at Avalon in Hollywood	2/6/08	1:09	Watt
POLI	Bubble trouble in Tuesday's election causes conflict	2/6/08	1:52	Peterson
LAW	Gang violence recently spiked in Monrovia and Duarte	2/14/08	1:14	Jahad
ENT	Laughs take the top spot	2/11/08	1:05	Moran
HEAL	Federal health officials bracing for law which cuts back on how much a family can make to qualify	2/11/08	1:52	Weiss
SACTO	Lawmakers to vote on mid-year budget cuts this week	2/11/08	1:01	Small
IE	Oversight panel assigned to problem mobile home park	2/11/08	2:33	Cuevas
HEAL	Fed Government may pull funding from Harbor UCLA	2/12/08	2:47	Schmitz
SACTO	Report says prison education can reduce recidivism	2/12/08	1:17	Small
ECON	Report says rate of home ownership lower in California	2/13/08	1:45	Small
ENT	Valentine's night of Mexican wrestling and burlesque	2/14/08	3:39	Carroll
POLI	Mexican President Felipe in California today	2/14/08	2:15	Keith
ENV	Air in San Joaquin Valley dirty because of explosive population growth	2/14/08	2:33	Khokha
EDU	Rialto school district plans teacher layoff	2/14/08	1:20	Cuevas
LAW	Swat officer killed more than just a good cop	2/15/08	4:46	Stoltze
POLI	Mid-year spending cuts to the state budget	2/15/08	2:39	Keith
IE	San Bernardino DA files charges against Chinc meat company employees	2/15/08	1:35	Cuevas
SPORT	Coliseum and USC work out lease deal for home football games	2/14/08	1:05	Watt
ART	New museum to house philanthropist's private collection opens	2/15/08	3:20	Guzman
POLI	Blacks turn out in record number for Obama in Calif	2/11/08	3:16	Stoltze
SPORT	Legendary Dodger announcer would have turned 100	2/17/08	1:00	Felde
LAW	Federal agents arrest former Boeing engineer for allegedly spying for China	2/11/08	:47	Stoltze

ENV	Consumers campaign to enforce labeling laws for salmon	2/11/08	:50	Peterson
TRANS	Another dividing line in Spanish rancho	2/17/08	:37	Felde
DIS	Homeless man convicted of starting Los Padres National Forest Fire	2/15/08	:47	Devall
TRANS	Fullerton street commemorates guitar legend	2/16/08	1:17	Felde
LAW	Estate of Lord of the Rings trilogy sues New Line Cinema	2/11/08	:56	Devall
OBIT	Crusading human rights activist on Capitol Hill dies	2/11/08	4:20	Felde
POLI	LA decides not to count nearly 50-thousand ballots from last Tuesday's primary	2/12/08	1:41	Peterson
ENT	How writers and a below the line worker survive the stroke	2/12/08	2:43	Watt
INT	Local attorney becomes Africa war crimes expert	2/13/08	2:43	Felde
SACTO	Mexican President Felipe in California today	2/12/08	:44	Devall
ENV	MTA has plan to divvy up water during drought	2/13/08	1:05	Peterson
MEDIA	LA Times is cutting hundreds of jobs	2/13/08	:52	Devall
		2/13/08
HEAL	Fundraiser to send health lobbyists to DC	2/17/08	1:01	Felde
LAW	Thousands gather for Simmons funeral	2/15/08	1:09	Stoltze
POLI	County Supervisor Yvonne Burke is expected to endorse replacement today	2/13/08	:51	Devall
ENV	US Forest Service will cut its budget next year	2/13/08	:50	Peterson
ENV	Dems want to know how EPA officials intend to clean up after ships	2/14/08	:52	Peterson
EDU	East LA day care center celebrates 35 year anniversary	2/14/08	4:31	Guzman
SPOR	Legendary Dodger manager returns for final week in Vero	2/20/08	1:07	Felde
SACTO	Leg Analyst releases revised budget deficit projection-plus possible cuts	2/20/08	2:55	Small
IE	Troubled meatpacker unlikely to reopen	2/20/08	2:41	Cuevas
IE	Latino Film Festival in Indio this weekend	2/22/08	1:28	Cuevas
IE	Schools approaching deadline for reimbursement of recalled beef	2/22/08	1:29	Cuevas
EDU	Gov Schwarzenegger wants to suspend Prop 98 and cut $5 million dollars from schools	2/22/08	3:56	Small
ENT	Gil Cates to produce Academy Awards again	2/22/08	3:57	Julian
HEAL	Report indicates African-American infants twice as likely to die as other babies	2/24/08	:45	Weiss
HEAL	Doctors push for more studies of elderly cancer patients	2/19/08	4:38	Valot
POLI	Attn General inviting city officials to "go green"	2/19/08	:52	Moran
SACTO	Lawmakers look at overcrowding in prison	2/19/08	2:07	Small
POLI	Second District race shapes up to be highly competitive	2/19/08	:55	Stoltze
ECON	Five So Cal counties have banded together to try to get a big chunk of state funds	2/19/08	1:33	Binkowski
HEAL	Cancer series and reconstruction choice:	2/20/08	2:58	Nazario
OC	Tests help personalize treatment for breast cancer	2/20/08	4:41	Valot
HEAL	DHS proposes handing over LA County clinics to Public/Private Partners	2/19/08	2:20	Nazario
HEAL	Democratic Senator says schools should be reimbursed for bad meat	2/22/08	:54	O'Mara
OC	Anaheim gets federal support for its new transit center	2/21/08	1:01	Valot
LAW	Panel examine death penalty	2/20/08	3:02	Stoltze
LAW	Member of ROTC causes alert at University in Carson	2/21/08	:53	Roman
EDU	Payroll problems continue at LA Unified	2/21/08	:45	Guzman
LAW	Feds indict family for smuggling immigrant	2/22/08	:53	Stoltze
POLI	City audit finds 129 million unspent on park	2/21/08	1:00	Felde
EDU	New study finds concentration of drop out in non-traditional public schools	2/21/08	:44	Guzman
ENV	Weekend forecast predicts showers all weekend	2/21/08	:55	Roman
LAW	City of Los Angeles sues Healthnet	2/21/08	2:22	Watt

LAW	Gun battle leaves one man dea	2/21/08	:42	Stoltze
EDU	United Teachers Los Angeles president wins second time	2/21/08	:52	Guzman
LAW	Woman dies after attempting purse snatching in her apt.complex	2/21/08	:51	Nazario
LAW	Stanton man arrested for pot form after his COMPUTER calls 911	2/22/08	:54	Watt
MIL	Carcass of dolphin possibly linked to military sonar	2/22/08	:52	Peterson
LAW	State panel recommends offering more help to exonerated	2/22/08	:58	Stoltze
POLI	State GOP faces deficit and contentio	2/22/08	:59	Felde
POLI	State GOP not worried about black party members voting Obama	2/22/08	:59	Felde
TRANS	US Senator leaves name on street sig	2/23/08	1:02	Felde
LAW	Arbitrator awards former HealthNet policyholder $ million dollars	2/22/08	:56	Watt
OC	Orange County man accused of being spy due to be arraigns	2/19/08	:43	Valot
TRANS	Long Beach Harbor Commission takes up clear trucks plan	2/19/08	:58	Valot
HOME	8th annual march for Human Dignity at Skid Row	2/18/08	:56	Watt
ENV	Santa Monica officials consider ban on plastic shopping bags	2/19/08	:54	Guzman
HEAL	Nanotechnology may offer new hope for cancer patients	2/19/08	3:31	Binkowski
MEDIA	Times editor leaving the pape	2/18/08	:55	Devall
MEDIA	Polk Award goes to Editor who was killed las August	2/19/08	:55	Devall
TRANS	Public Hearing scheduled to hear about Southland "wish list"	2/19/08	1:00	Devall
LAW	Pomona police and Feds target three gangs for drug trafficking	2/18/08	1:21	Watt
SCI	Viewing party for total lunar eclipse at Griffith Observatory	2/22/08	1:35	Felde
POLI	Thousand Oaks politician considers run for Sacto Congressional seat	2/19/08	1:00	Felde
CONS	Mayor Villaraigosa has plan to create more "green collar" jobs	2/19/08	:47	Watt
ENV	Port of Long Beach approves plan to clean up dirty air	2/20/08	:52	Peterson
ECON	LAEDC issues 2008-09 economic forecast for Southern California	2/20/08	1:10	Watt
EDU	UCLA to file order to stop harassment of researchers using animals	2/21/08	1:08	Guzman
POLI	Effort to recall Republican State Senatc	2/25/08	1:57	O'Mara
IMM	15-hundred Vietnamese immigrants to be deported	2/26/08	4:20	Schmitz
POLI	Democrats elect first black woman assembly speaker	2/28/08	1:50	Musiker
HEAL	School officials want to know who will replace recalled beef	2/25/08	1:26	Small
ARTS	Local theatre program for inmates gets presidential award	2/18/08	3:41	Felde
SACTO	Dems and Republicans proposing plans on deficit budget	2/26/08	1:23	Small
POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger appoints cabinet secretary to help Californians to volunteer more	2/26/08	:57	Stoltze
OC	Orange County learns lesson from last year: Santiago Fire	2/26/08	1:24	Valot
POLI	Sandra Tsing Loh defends her backing of Hillary Clinton for President...	2/18/08	2:36	Loh
IE	Increasing presence of international gangs in US	2/26/08	1:28	Cuevas
OC	Crews finish emergency repair of levee in Garden Grove	2/26/08	1:01	Valot
POLI	Gov creates cabinet position to encourage volunteerism	2/26/08	3:33	Stoltze
TRANS	FAA announces arrival of new runway safety lights system at LAX	2/27/08	1:13	Watt

IMM	Lawyers for developmentally disabled man suin federal gov.	2/27/08	4:00	Schmitz
IE	Humane Society sues USDA over mea inspection	2/27/08	:56	Cuevas
IE	Stolen ballots still missing in Riverside County	2/27/08	1:14	Cuevas
POLI	Democratic State Senators warn Gov Schwarzenegger not to build	2/28/08	:47	O'Mara
DIS	Small plane crashes in Southern Californi	2/27/08	:47	Julian
LAW	5 Children. 3 adults hit in shooting in South LA bus stop	2/28/08	:49	Watt
HEAL	Bill being considered to require Cal employers to provide paid sick days	2/28/08	1:16	Varney
EDU	Edendale Library benefit this weeken	3/2/08	:51	Hurtes
IE	Small plane crashes in Riverside neighborhood	2/27/08	:51	Cuevas
IE	Desert bunker to be demolished after grisly double murder	2/28/08	:48	Cuevas
MEDIA	Daily News expected to announce layoff	2/28/08	:58	Devall
IMMIG	Immigration officials shut down big immigrant smuggling ring	2/28/08	:51	Stoltze
ENV	LA Airport Commissioners may approve study into pollution created by jets	2/25/08	:53	Peterson
HIST	Skid Row street honors patron saint of wanderers	3/1/08	1:02	Felde
HEAL	UCLA Medical Center may get more doctor	2/25/08	1:00	Roman
POLI	African Americans talk about relevance of black organizations today	2/25/08	3:18	Stoltze
HIST	Bel Air street named for poor farmer	3/2/08	:57	Felde
POLI	Pakistani Am bizman from Northridge guilty of illegal campaign contributions	2/25/08	:52	Stoltze
EDU	LA Mayor appoints superintendent for his schools reform effort	2/25/08	2:30	Guzman
LAW	New study finds immigrants less likely to commit crime in California	2/26/08	1:18	Stoltze
TRANS	MTA green lights installation of fare gates at most subway light rail station	2/28/08	1:00	Devall
IE	Railto rapper rapped over controversial video	2/29/08	1:19	Cuevas
IE	USDA inspectors suspended in wake of Chinc beef recall	2/29/08	:55	Cuevas
ENV	EPA to answer Questions about his decision not to let Cal regulate greenhouse gases	2/26/08	:52	Peterson
POLI	Some nonpartisan ballots from primary election to be counted	2/26/08	:50	Peterson
ENT	LA declares underground writer's apartment a cultural monument	2/26/08	:53	Guzman
POLI	Gov creates cabinet position to encourage volunteerism	2/26/08	3:32	Stoltze
ENT	Writers Guild has officially ratified its contract with movie and TV Producers	2/26/08	:54	Devall
ART	Local fans of Jane Austen gather to dance every month	2/29/08	4:26	Felde
EDU	State officials announce improvement plans for lowest-performing school districts	2/27/08	:59	Guzman
IMM	ACLU has filed a lawsuit over wrongly deported US citizen	2/27/08	1:18	Binkowski
LAW	Man who oversaw prison medical care in Cal has come under scrutiny	2/27/08	:55	Devall
ECON	USDA may beef up the accountability system within the meatpacking industry	2/26/08	1:04	Binkowski
HEAL	Spaying and neutering pets in LA propert is now mandatory	2/26/08	1:05	Binkowski
LAW	Torrance raid nets dozens of guns and narcotics	3/3/08	1:16	Valot
ENT	Ferrell shoots and misses	3/3/08	:59	Moran
HEAL	That bad cold that just won't quit actually be the resurgence of a childhood disease	3/3/08	1:16	Binkowski
LGB	Cal. Supreme Court to consider state's ban on same sex- marriage	3/4/08	3:52	Varney
LGB	Cal. Supreme Court to consider state's ban on same sex- marriage	3/3/08	:52	Watt

POLI	Gov Schwarzenegger kicks off campaign to change political districts	3/5/08	1:59	Russ
EDU	Democrats protest proposed education cut	3/5/08	:52	O'Mara
ECON	Feds to deploy full-time product safety inspectors at ports	3/5/08	:48	Art
IE	Westland meat chief subpoenaed by House committee	3/5/08	:43	Cuevas
OC	Orange Coast College sells off its Canadian island	3/5/08	:57	Valot
EDU	Soka University offers free tuition to students from family's with incomes less than $60,000	3/6/08	:58	Watt
ECON	California's housing market is getting some economic stimulation	3/5/08	1:22	Binkowski
POLI	State Lawmakers listen to election complaints	3/6/08	:45	Felde
LAW	Thieves targeting freeway light	3/6/08	:45	Felde
ECON	Philanthropist Eli and Edythe Broad will contribute $10 million dollars for a new performing arts center	3/7/08	2:11	Jahad
ART	Eli and Edythe Broad make major donation to performing arts	3/6/08	:46	Jahad
TRANS	Bus Riders Union want to reverse fare increases	3/7/08	:43	Julian
OC	OC Judge to unseal indictment about jail beating	3/7/08	1:24	Valot
IE	Chino meat company stripped of award	3/7/08	1:20	Cuevas
IE	University survey finds San Bernardino residents nervous about the future	3/7/08	:58	Cuevas
TRANS	Bus only lane to help Westside	3/7/08	:58	Moran
OC	OC Sheriff's deputies are not named in jail beating indictments	3/7/08	2:23	Valot
LAW	Two men arrested in shooting of six year old boy	3/5/08	:59	Stoltze
HEALTH	New Colon Cancer screening procedure	3/5/08	:50	Nazario
HOUS	Tons of mud from Westwood property slump down onto Sepulveda Blvd	3/6/08	:57	Peterson
EDU	State appellate court says home schooling parents need teaching credential	3/6/08	:44	Guzman
LAW	Activists want hate crimes investigation on shooting of six year old boy	3/6/08	:56	Stoltze
LAW	Prisons without doctors, but not in Calipatria where doctor is building the staff	2/26/08	4:23	Small
OC	More than 100 soldiers return to OC from Iraq	3/7/08	1:50	Valot
SCIE	Cassini space probe discovers a ring around planetary moon	3/7/08	:56	Roman
IE	Three-day bereavement camp for kids begins in San Bernardino Mountains	3/7/08	1:20	Cuevas
ART	New art exhibit art of dissent 40 years ago and today	3/7/08	3:44	Guzman
LAW	Police investigating killing of 13 year old boy in echo park	3/7/08	:59	Stoltze
HIST	Valley street named for land huckster	3/8/08	1:02	Felde
SCIE	Latinos largest ethnic group of organ donor	3/7/08	:52	Felde
EDU	Governor Schwarzenegger issues strong defense of home schooling	3/7/08	:50	Guzman
ENV	Air quality officials pass ban on new wood burning fireplaces	3/7/08	2:00	Peterson
IE	County courts take over classrooms for civil trials	3/7/08	:56	Cuevas
POLI	State lawmakers look into election problem	3/7/08	:55	Felde
LAW	Counter terrorism academy to open in L.A.	3/7/08	1:02	Stoltze
POLI	Money for recreation unspent	3/3/08	2:29	Felde
LAW	School shooter to be arraigned today	3/3/08	:49	Stoltze
ECON	State lawmakers meet to work on closing California's multi-billion budget gap	3/3/08	2:12	Russ
SPOR	Legendary UCLA coach benched because of fall	3/3/08	:54	Devall
LAW	Mexican, central American police chiefs meet in Los Angeles to discuss gangs	3/3/08	1:00	Stoltze
SCIE	Orbiter captures pictures of Martian avalanche	3/3/08	:59	Felde
POLI	Recount of decline to state voters doesn't change outcome	3/2/08	2:15	Felde

ENT	New limits on the lead content of jewelry	3/4/08	:55	Russ
HEAL	New bill in state legislature to require second opinion before cosmetic surgery	3/4/08	:54	O'Mara
LAW	Vigil planned for murdered athlete	3/4/08	1:02	Stoltze
ENV	Legal actions filed over water pollution	3/4/08	1:36	Peterson
EDU	Educators coalition formed to fight proposed budget cuts	3/4/08	1:34	Guzman
HOUS	A LA property management company has to pay restitution to former tenants	3/4/08	1:34	Binkowski
EDU	New technology helps disabled children	3/14/08	1:48	Valot
POLI	"Budget Nun" announces her retirement this week	3/14/08	2:23	Small
ART	California's home to more Irish immigrants than any other state	3/14/08	2:57	Myrow
IE	Ontario to begin evictions in homeless camp	3/13/08	:46	Cuevas
SCIE	New kiosk let disabled travelers check into airlines, hotels	3/14/08	1:01	Valot
IE	Schools approaching deadline for reimbursement of recalled beef	3/14/08	1:06	Cuevas
EDU	La Puente's School District meet to discuss drastic budget cuts	3/14/08	1:59	Roman
ENV	Bill to make it easier to recycle thermostats	3/14/08	:52	O'Mara
OC	Iconic surf spot is more than just great wave	3/7/08	4:37	Valot
HEAL	Cal slated to spend $39 billion on Medicaid-Care next year	3/10/08	3:29	Varney
SCIE	Los Vegas not the most environmentally friendly	3/10/08	2:34	Loh
DIS	Long Beach commemorates the 1933 earthquake at city hall	3/10/08	1:17	Baer
OC	OC Supervisors approve applying for grant to expand jail	3/11/08	2:33	Valot
POLI	State committees discuss water storage in California	3/11/08	1:30	Small
IE	Westland meat chief appears before House panel	3/12/08	1:13	Cuevas
IE	Westland meat chief appears before House committee over	3/13/08	3:21	Cuevas
SACTO	Plan to shift thousands of state prison parolees from the state to counties	3/12/08	2:12	Small
POLI	Political consultants and pollsters gathering for annual convention	3/13/08	3:06	Felde
LAW	People released from Cal prisons get little help more than likely re-offend	3/10/08	4:49	Stoltze
HIST	Valley street named for land thief	3/9/08	1:01	Felde
OC	Two OC cities make magazine's list of Top 10 Walkable Cities in California	3/9/08	:45	Valot
ENV	Drugs in drinking water	3/10/08	1:17	Peterson
LAW	Parole agents key to prisoner reentry into society but overwhelming	3/10/08	4:35	Stoltze
SCIE	Dinosaur puppets roam the museum	3/10/08	1:00	Felde
EDU	LA city controller says LAUSD cooperation is key to gang prevention	3/11/08	1:00	Guzman
ART	City Supervisors approved plan to encourage part-time library workers to earn masters degree	3/7/08	:51	Devall
EDU	LA Unified administrators say payroll system still needs major fixes	3/11/08	:50	Guzman
LAW	State officials pledge to put more money into rehab	3/11/08	4:35	Stoltze
LAW	Washington State prison system to pay more than $3 million dollars to family	3/12/08	1:00	Devall
HIST	Valley street name for St. Rita	3/15/08	1:02	Felde
HIST	Tiny downtown streets honor St. Vincent de Paul	3/16/08	1:01	Felde
LAW	Getting support for prisoner reentry programs is difficult	3/12/08	4:45	Stoltze
LAW	Faith groups provide help for ex cons, gov does not	3/14/08	4:30	Stoltze
HEAL	Dentists are being trained to look at patients more holistically	3/10/08	1:17	Binkowski
LAW	Crowds gather to pay their respects to high school football star Jamiel Shaw	3/11/08	1:58	Binkowski

IE	Ontario begins evictions in homeless cam	3/17/08	2:52	Cuevas
IE	Future of Coachella Valley migrant worker trailer park is in doubt	3/18/08	4:41	Cuevas
MIL	Anysoldier.com website inspires retiree homemaker	3/19/08	1:55	Nazario
OC	OC center, company work towards next generation of body armor	3/19/08	4:42	Valot
POLI	State prosecutors SHUT down six Southern California mortgage companies	3/19/08	1:24	Keith
SPOR	Three local teams that made NCAA men's basketball tournament all play today	3/19/08	1:04	Roman
OC	Widening of Interstate 5 makes progress	3/19/08	1:07	Valot
MIL	Twenty-nine parades to hold a candlelight vigil to protest war	3/20/08	4:40	Cuevas
OC	Gov defends his support of 241 Toll Road extension	3/20/08	1:02	Valot
LAW	Man released from prison after serving 23 years for a crime he didn't commit	3/21/08	1:07	Stoltze
HEAL	CHA's report on impact of KING/harbor closure	3/21/08	4:26	Nazario
RELI	Thousands celebrate outdoor Easter Service	3/22/08	1:03	Cuevas
ECON	Jobless rate up in LA County, newspaper industry suffers	3/4/08	3:46	Moran
OC	Wham-o celebrates anniversary as sport inspired spawned grows	3/17/08	4:26	Valot
ENV	LA city council vote deep-sixes a planned housing development	3/19/08	1:15	Peterson
EDU	USC drafts "Master Plan" for campus growth through 2030	3/20/08	1:00	Watt
ART	Story of Santa Clara Avenue	3/22/08	1:01	Felde
LAW	LAPD police chief endorses Mark Ridley-Thomas for LA County Supervisor	3/20/08	1:03	Guzman
EDU	Med Students at UCLA learn of residency fates on "Match Day"	3/20/08	4:14	Watt/Valot
ENVY	Harbor Commission votes to get rid of dirty trucks	3/20/08	1:23	Peterson
ART	Mortgage crisis is hitting Southland cultural institutions	3/21/08	1:02	Guzman
OBIT	Funeral services held for founder of Ameriquest	3/17/08	1:00	Devall
LAW	Probation department looks to do biz a new way	3/17/08	1:15	Stoltze
ENV	Strategies to offer wildlife a right-of-way through development	3/18/08	3:54	Peterson
POLI	Rallies not best to measure effectiveness of antiwar movement	3/19/08	6:58	Felde
POLI	Who shows up at protests	3/20/08	1:49	Felde
POLI	Five years into Iraq war, Iraqi Americans weary, fatigued	3/19/08	3:45	Stoltze
MIL	Teachers counter military recruitment in public schools	3/20/08	4:14	Guzman
RELI	LA Mission volunteers wash the feet of the homeless, needy	3/21/08	1:05	Stoltze
HOUS	A growing segment of LA's homeless population is elderly	3/21/08	1:12	Binkowski
HOUS	Homeless dumping may soon be a misdemeanor in the city of Los Angeles	3/20/08	1:19	Binkowski
SCI	High School students square off robot style at the LA Sports Arena	3/22/08	1:26	Binkowski
POLI	Tibetan activists tracing attacks to Internet servers in China	3/29/08	4:19	Schmitz
IE	So Cal Edison unveils solar project	3/27/08	1:24	Cuevas
HEAL	State Lawmakers hearing on Insurance "rescission"	3/26/08	2:07	Small
OC	OC Fire Authority approves recommendations in wake of Santiago Fires	3/27/08	1:13	Valot
OC	OC Fire Authority approves recommendations in wake of Santiago Fires	3/28/08	1:15	Valot
EDU	New president of Univ of Cal wants tuition to remain affordable	3/28/08	1:34	Dornhelm
DIS	Firefighters continue to investigate cause of explosion	3/28/08	2:05	Watt

OC	Firefighters make adjustments as fire season changes to year-round	3/28/08	3:02	Valot
IE	Cyber security competition underway at Cal Poly Pomona	3/28/08	1:29	Cuevas
POLI	Former President Clinton to address Democratic state party in San Jose	3/30/08	1:08	Felde
IE	Ontario begins evictions at homeless "Tent City"	3/24/08	1:33	Cuevas
ENT	Preliminary Box Office receipts	3/24/08	1:02	Baer
LAW	Sara Jane Olson is back in Central Cal women's prison	3/24/08	3:22	Moran
OC	Study shows Arab-American women educated but still unemployed	3/24/08	:56	Valot
IE	Ontario begins evictions at homeless "Tent City"	3/24/08	2:25	Cuevas
HOUS	Feds in Sacramento bust up mortgage fraud scam based in So Cal	3/24/08	2:16	Small
LAW	OC Judge might unseal jail death grand jury transcripts	3/25/08	1:12	Valot
ECON	Housing market; public companies releasing proxy statements; Gibson Guitar lawsuit	3/25/08	3:05	Lacter
LAW	Santa Barbara police re-open 40 year old double homicide case	3/25/08	3:05	Campbell
IE	Palm Springs author-film festival director die	3/25/08	1:20	Cuevas
ECON	Property auctions at trustee's sale	3/25/08	1:16	Nazario
POLI	McCain speaks to Latino leaders in Santa Ana	3/25/08	3:05	Stoltze
OC	New academic center opens in Santa Ana to help underprivileged kids	3/26/08	1:29	Valot
EDU	CSU faculty union organizes Long Beach rally against proposed budget cuts	3/26/08	1:58	Guzman
LAB	Campaign launched to organize car wash workers	3/27/08	1:46	Watt
ART	Disney making dramatic changes to "It's a small world" ride	3/28/08	3:50	Kim
POLI	Former President Bill Clinton will address Democratic party convention	3/28/08	1:07	Felde
EDU	LA UNIFIED NAMES Belmont Learning Complex for late Latino congressman	3/24/08	1:15	Guzman
OC	OC Transportation board to discuss study of improvements near county line	3/24/08	1:00	Valot
ENER	LA City Council to vote on proposed rate increases for water and power	3/24/08	2:57	Watt
ART	John Rabe with Harry Benson, famous photographer	3/25/08	2:17	Rabe
ENV	State agencies still working out how to protect public health in local waters	3/26/08	2:56	Peterson
	OFF RAMP
Spor	John gives a blow-by-blow of the costume contest and we meet a surf folk artist and Surfing Santa. Also, wanna know why surfers get agro? Steven Kotner, the author of West of Jesus, says the answer can be found in science.	1/5/08	17:14	John Rabe
Spor	Off-Ramp commentator Milton Love has some ontological questions for the creator of Sponge Bob Square Pants, and we find out what makes those ukulele plays strum.	1/5/08	15:17	Milton Love/Rabe
Spor	Find out why Charles Phoenix likes business suits, meet a butterfly surfer and get the inside scoop on the judges as they hang on the bluffs just south of Gladstone's restaurant.	1/5/08	15:56	John Rabe, Charles Phoenix
Pol	John interviews the man who really knows what's going on: KNBC's Joel Grover. His undercover investigation led to EZ Lube's settlement for unfair business practices.	1/12/08	4:11	John Rabe, Joel Grover
Pol	If you're a newcomer to LA, you might wonder about the letters in your favorite restaurant's window. They're Joel Grover's doing.	1/12/08	3:36	John Rabe, Joel Grover

Pol	Joel Grover talks about his career and how he and his team perform undercover investigations.	1/12/08	4:15	John Rabe, Joel Grover
Art	Meet Graciela Iturbide, the Mexican artist who learned her craft from the master, Manuel Alvarez Bravo. She has a major exhibit entitled "The Goat's Dance" at the Getty.	1/12/08	4:03	John Rabe
Art	Queena Kim tells John about a controversial new show at the Hammer Museum that raises questions about art and privacy in the Information Age. Artist Kaari Upson found notes and papers of a neighbor, did a Google search and created an art project out of it.	1/12/08	2:50	Queena Kim
Ent	The new season of The L-Word, the show about lesbians in LA, is underway. Queena Kim talks with a couple of friends who came out to each other because of the show.	1/12/08	3:11	Queena Kim
Env	KPCC's Brian Watt went to Ballona Creek with scientist Polly Barrowman of Heal the Bay to see just how much trash was flowing out to sea because of the big rains last weekend.	1/12/08	3:30	Brian Watt
Env	Queena Kim and KPCC's Molly Peterson go to LA's greenest street. Oros Street in Frogtown was renovated to help divert and make better use of run-off.	1/12/08	2:59	Queena Kim, Molly Peterson
Art	Why did Eli Broad decide to hold on to his art and not to give it to LACMA, even though he's helping build a new museum at the facility? New York Times reporter Edward Wyatt gets the scoop.	1/12/08	3:31	John Rabe, Edward Wyatt
Food	John goes to Intelligentsia Coffee, which strives to use higher-quality beans and a lighter touch when roasting.	1/12/08	4:15	John Rabe
Food	Off-Ramp food adventurer Steve Wasser goes to Silverlake's El Siete Mares. He says order the molcajete, a riot of seafood and other odd bits.	1/12/08	3:04	Steve Wasser
Gen	Former New York Times reporter Charlie LeDuff talks about giving up his jet-set life to become a stay-at-home dad.	1/19/08	7:55	Charlie LeDuff
Gen	Jeff Girod sounds off at busybodies who want him and wife to reproduce.	1/19/08	2:20	Jeff Girod
Ent	We pay tribute to Maila Nurmi, the woman who first played a sexy horror movie host on TV: Vampira.	1/19/08	5:35	Queena Kim
Ent	Ever wonder why George Bailey was sweating in the middle of winter in It's a Wonderful Life? Kevin Roderick says it's because they shot it in the Valley; he takes Off-Ramp to the old RKO ranch.	1/19/08	3:27	John Rabe, Kevin Roderick
Com	With Martin Luther King Day around the corner, Queena Kim tells us about a little-known alliance between King and a Los Angeles synagogue.	1/19/08	6:26	Queena Kim
Lit	Marc Haefele says Aldous Huxley's recently published letters are a window into the "Strange New World" that was Huxley's interior world.	1/19/08	4:03	Marc Haefele
Food	"Big, tasty and messy." That's what one reviewer says of the food they turn out at Glencrest BBQ in Venice. Brian Watt takes Off-Ramp to the hole-in-the-wall family joint.	1/19/08	3:07	Brian Watt
Pol	The LA Times Steve Hyman is switching beats. You might remember that he and Queena ripped the lid off Parking Meter Gate?	1/19/08	3:54	John Rabe, Steve Hyman
Crime	Who guards the guardians? John talks with Joe Domanick about his Playboy article on LA Police Chief Bill Bratton, and the media's role in fighting crime.	1/19/08	3:41	John Rabe, Joe Domanick

Food	John goes to MacArthur Park as the city honors late deli owner Al Langer, who hung on for 60 years as the area went from prosperous to poor and almost back again.	1/26/08	4:42	John Rabe
Food	Ever fallen in love at Trader Joe's? I mean with a product? Then they discontinue that item? You're not alone. Off-Ramp contributor Karen Fritsche walks us through the steps of grief.	1/26/08	5:29	Karen Fritsche
Com	Princess Kate sits on the Off-Ramp Mysterion float, which is supposed to illustrate the mystery of Off-Ramp. Can you figure it out?	1/26/08	3:09	Queena Kim
Com	Off-Ramp commentator (and Mysterion) Mimi Pond speaks for legions when she asks, "Where do you shop for clothes when you're fifty years old and fifty pounds overweight?"	1/26/08	3:14	Mimi Pond
Com	The Doo-Dah Parade considers itself the "twisted sister" of the prim and proper Rose Parade. With Belly Dancers, large mechanical cats and naked women you can see why.	1/26/08	2:40	Queena Kim
Food	Off-Ramp contributor Jackson Musker tours Galco's Soda Pop Stop in Highland Park with longtime manager - and noted pop theorist - John Nese.	1/26/08	5:17	Jackson Musker
Health	For a California Endowment exhibit, John visits Gin Herb, Chinatown's oldest traditional pharmacy.	1/26/08	2:52	John Rabe
Com	After three hours in the hot sun, the Ineffable Off-Ramp Mysterions march!	1/26/08	2:42	Queena Kim
Crime	Federal agents raided four museums in Southern California this week, including LACMA, looking for evidence that they accepted stolen objects.	1/26/08	3:49	John Rabe
Com	Kevin Roderick continues his tour of the Valley. This time, Edgar Rice Burroughs. Think Tarzana.	1/26/08	4:14	Kevin Roderick/Rabe
Pol	Dan Bakkedahl, formerly of the Daily Show, gives John his take on Super Tuesday.	2/2/08	3:25	Dan Bakkedahl, John Rabe
Pol	Jeff Girod, who pens the Fast-Food Dude column in the Press-Enterprise, says you'll never learn anything about the nation from listening to the State of the Union.	2/2/08	2:14	Jeff Girod
Pol	Off-Ramp interns Jackson Musker and Christina Huh ask folks: What are you doing with your tax rebate?	2/2/08	1:02	Christina Huh, Jackson Musker
Pol	John asks "President Bush" how do you make sure people spend their tax rebates? Three words: gift cards.	2/2/08	2:10	John Rabe
Pol	KPCC's Frank Stoltze gets dizzy in the spin room after the Republican debates in Simi Valley.	2/2/08	2:17	Frank Stoltze
Pol	Barret Cone, friend of Bush (literally) and member of the Pepperdine University College Republicans, says the debates teach us to vote for a winner and not our conscience.	2/2/08	2:32	Frank Stoltze
Pol	Off-Ramp airs a new McCain song that's not been endorsed by the candidate.	2/2/08	1:20
Pol	The Governor endorsed McCain for president at a solar panel factory in downtown. Attendee Jerome Ware was there but is voting for Hillary.	2/2/08	2:39	Frank Stoltze
Pol	In the days before the Super Tuesday, Queena and Off-Ramp intern Grissel Espinoza take an informal poll of Latinos in Lincoln Park.	2/2/08	2:58	Queena Kim, Grissel Espinoza
Pol	Off-Ramp intercepts a campaign call from the former "President."	2/2/08	0:50
Pol	Hugh Atkin made the original "Ch-Ch- Changes" video mash-up of the candidates	2/2/08	0:59

Spor	With Super Bowl Sunday upon us, KPCC's Senior News Editor Nick Roman remembers building his own antenna to watch the first big game.	2/2/08	2:43	Nick Roman, John Rabe
Sci	NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory on Wednesday honored the team that sent the first U.S. satellite into space 50 years ago. KPCC's Brooke Binkowski was there for the commemoration.	2/2/08	2:24	Brooke Binkowski
Art	A lot's been said about the politics behind the Broad Contemporary Art Museum at LACMA. Off-Ramp architecture critic Sam Hall Kaplan tells us whether it works as a public space and renowned architect Renzo Piano weighs in.	2/9/08	4:45	John Rabe, Sam Hall Kaplan
Art	Mat Gleason of Coagula Art Journal surveys the art at the Broad Contemporary Art Museum at LACMA.	2/9/08	4:48	Mat Gleason
Art	With all the books, movies, CD collections about Bob Dylan, why bother going to the Skirball's new exhibit on the folk-rock icon? Curator Jasen Emmons says because there's never been one!	2/9/08	3:57	Queena Kim
Mus	One of the 7-inch records on view at the Skirball Cultural Center's Bob Dylan's American Journey Exhibit.	2/9/08	0:54	Marlene Dietrich
Ent	Kitty Felde explores The Cult of Colin to mark the re-airing of the PBS miniseries Pride and Prejudice.	2/9/08	4:39	Kitty Felde
Sci	It's Valentine's Day and when your last name is Love - as in Off-Ramp Commentator Milton Love - your mind naturally changes to "Sex-Change."	2/9/08	2:36	Milton Love
Food	Before Steve Wasser went to the Shabu Shabu House in Little Tokyo meant listless grey beef boiled to the consistency of a prophylactic.	2/9/08	2:31	Steve Wasser
Hist	Marc Haefele tells us that the Romans didn't think Cupid was so cute.	2/9/08	2:27	Marc Haefele
Lit	Two Daily Show alums take on bigots in a new book called "A Practical Guide to Racism." As Jon Stewart says, "Read it with someone you hate." John speaks to one of the authors Dan Bakkedahl, who plays the book's author Professor C.H. Dalton.	2/9/08	4:05	Dan Bakkedahl, John Rabe
Lit	Writer Cheryl Klein talks to Queena Kim about her debut collection of short stories called "Commuters."	2/9/08	5:11	Queena Kim
Mus	From Meiko's self-titled album	2/9/08	1:50	Meiko
Hist	The Los Angeles Museum of the Holocaust is getting a new home in the Mid-Wilshire area of Los Angeles. KPCC's Brooke Binkowski went to the ground breaking ceremony and spoke to child-holocaust survivor Miriam Bell.	2/9/08	2:17	Brooke Binkowski
	Listeners share their own heartbreaks with Trade Joes, and their fond remembrances of Maila Nurmi.	2/9/08	2:12
Mus	You might not have heard the name Clarence McDonald, but he produced and played on pop classics like "Summer Breeze," "How Sweet It Is To Be Loved By You," and many other songs.	2/16/08	5:16	Clarence McDonald, John Rabe
Mus	Clarence McDonald tells John Rabe stories about Ray Charles, Eubie Blake and other musicians he's worked with.	2/16/08	8:33	Clarence McDonald, John Rabe
Art	John goes to the Getty to hear stories of the old days from local art icons Ed Ruscha, Jerry McMillan, and Mason Williams. They grew up together in Oklahoma City.	2/16/08	5:51	John Rabe

Mus	Listener Quinn Kiesow sent us an email "I took to the streets of Los Angeles with a microphone and began recording the sounds of my city." The result? A song he calls "Los Angeles."	2/16/08	2:33	Quinn Kiesow
Health	John takes a trip to a diabetes clinic on Skid Row. Some of the toughest cases get the best treatment.	2/16/08	7:46	John Rabe
Trans	John stops to talk to a group of bikers congregating on Santa Monica Blvd.	2/16/08	3:39	John Rabe
Mus	Andrea Domanick scours thrift stores to find an ancient artifact: audio tapes.	2/16/08	4:58	Andrea Domanick
	Off-Ramp listeners sound off on maligned art, missing presidential candidates, and (sigh) Mr. Darcy.	2/16/08	2:23
Env	We take the city of Glendale to task for threatening criminal charges against homeowner who ripped out their lawn in favor of drought resistant plants.	2/23/08	3:31	John Rabe
Env	KPCC's environmental reporter Molly Peterson tells you how-to replace your lawn with plants that look great, are geographically appropriate, and save a ton of water.	2/23/08	2:33	Molly Peterson, John Rabe
Ent	It was just a matter of time before XTRA 640 AM host Mirthala Salinas fielded questions about her ex-love Mayor Villaraigosa. KPCC's Grissel Espinosa recounts the moment.	2/23/08	2:38	Grissel Espinosa, John Rabe
Ent	Off-Ramp correspondent Jackson Musker visits a movie lover's paradise: Eddie Brandt's Saturday Matinee in NoHo.	2/23/08	3:43	Jackson Musker
Com	Have you seen the movie "Barbershop" with Ice Cube, we take you to the barbershop the story was based on.	2/23/08	4:12	Queena Kim
Com	KPCC's Dale Hoppert talks about snow days in Southern California.	2/23/08	2:52	Dale Hoppert
Trans	LA Times Automobile columnist Ralph Vartabedian tackles the eternal question: Should you be able to drive the speed limit in the far left lane?	2/23/08	3:28	Ralph Vartabedian/Rabe
Lit	The iconic Bungalow News is closing Sunday after almost fifty years in business in Pasadena. The rent's too high for the owner to keep offering his eclectic selection.	2/23/08	2:58	Jackson Musker
Crime	LAPD Police Chief says Britney Spears doesn't need the city's help, she needs to help herself.	2/23/08	0:42	Bill Bratton/ Patt Morrison
Food	Elf Cafe serves up vegetarian food with a Mediterranean zing.	2/23/08	2:50	Karen Fritsche
Pol	Former mayor of San Francisco and Speaker of the California Assembly Willie Brown talks about why clothes matter and how he brought discipline in the State Assembly.	2/23/08	4:12	Willie Brown, Patt Morrison
Health	Saint Jude Medical Center in Fullerton is asking patients to fill out a personal profile that goes up on the wall of their room. John Rabe reports that the hospital is trying to treat patients more like people.	2/23/08	6:16	John Rabe
Mus	John interviews Mateo Stoneman, a white mariachi with the voice of an angel and who's sold 40,000 albums in the restaurants he's played throughout East LA.	3/1/08	8:04	John Rabe
Trans	John and the LA Times' Ralph Vartabedian find peace and a better way of life by cruising down the Pasadena Freeway at 45mph.	3/1/08	4:49	Ralph Vartabedian/Rabe
IE	The Inland Empire is home to one of the world's oldest orange trees. KPCC's Steven Cuevas takes you there.	3/1/08	4:23	Steven Cuevas
Econ	KPCC reporter Frank Stoltze dives into his reporter's kit while Director of Operations Doug Johnson adds up how much it all costs.	3/1/08	4:53	Queena Kim, Frank Stoltze, Doug Johnson

Housing	Paul Engler, co-founder for the Center for the Working Poor, dumpster dives for the poor. Off-Ramp's Queen Kim goes out with him and asks Why Do You give?	3/1/08	4:04	Queen Kim
Gen	The Downtown Women's Center was founded in 1978 by a woman who realized that there were no shelter spaces for women. Almost thirty years later, the center has 47 full-time residents living in supportive housing apartments, a drop-in center, plus meals and counseling services. John Rabe drops in for a visit.	3/1/08	4:05	John Rabe
Lit	Off-Ramp Commentator Antronette Yancey reads her poem "Currency," which is about taking time to pay respect to people.	3/1/08	2:35	Antronette Yancey
Food	Ever fallen in love at Trader Joe's? I mean with a product? Then they discontinue that item? You're not alone. Off-Ramp contributor Karen Fritsche walks us through the steps of grief.	3/1/08	5:29	Karen Fritsche
Mus	John and classical music expert Craig Curtis talk about the LA Philharmonic's new season--announced this week--which is the last under Esa-Pekka Salonen.	3/1/08	3:51	John Rabe, Craig Curtis
ART	Kenny Lyon is an unlikely pioneer of Chicano Gangster Rap. He's not Chicano or a rapper. But from his studio apartment at the Gaylord, Lyon produces some of the biggest names in LA's Chicano Gangster Rap Scene.	3/1/08	6:21	Kenny Lyon
Ent	John talks with two local musicians who played the NPR Name Game on their way to San Francisco and discovers the dark secret these so-called public radio fans share.	3/1/08	4:22	John Rabe
Sci	Off-Ramp commentator and marine biologist Milton Love turns to nature for reasons to give.	3/1/08	1:06	Milton Love
Mus	You might not have heard the name Clarence McDonald, but he produced and played on pop classics like "Summer Breeze," "How Sweet It Is To Be Loved By You," and many other songs.	3/1/08	4:50	Clarence McDonald, John Rabe
Env	John talks with listeners who think it's outrageous that the city of Glendale threatened residents with criminal action for tearing out their lawns.	3/1/08	3:51
Food	John speaks with Trevor Corson, author of The Zen of Fish, at a new local sushi bar.	3/8/08	4:55	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Food	Still scraping your chopsticks together? Expert Trevor Corson dishes on the sushi etiquette and history.	3/8/08	3:02	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Food	Orochon Ramen in LA's Little Tokyo is famous for a dish called the Special Number Two, possibly the spiciest ramen in Los Angeles. Queen Kim investigates.	3/8/08	3:17	Queen Kim
Food	Queen Kim met with Alexis Wong, who's agreed to order the Special Number Two. He brought some friends to cheer him on. His friend Nina makes a surprise entry.	3/8/08	5:04	Queen Kim
Food	Off-Ramp commentator and marine biologist Milton Love says if you eat old fish, there may be no fish. (And he's not talking about the fish that's been sitting in your refrigerator.)	3/8/08	3:40	Milton Love
Food	Off-Ramp spent a few hours with urban survivalist Christopher Nyerges learning how to eat lizards and foxtails.	3/8/08	3:29	Xaykaothao, Stoltze
Food	LA Times' food critic Russ Parsons takes you to a live chicken mart in Chinatown. The chickens are to eat.	3/8/08	3:04	John Rabe/Russ Parsons
Food	El Mercadito in East LA is part swap meet, part food court. And it's where you can find authentic Mexican treats. Queen Kim went for a tour with group of foodies a few Sundays ago.	3/8/08	3:30	Queen Kim

Food	Why does sushi taste so good? Many say it's the "Umami"--the elusive fifth type of taste that complements sweet, sour, salty, and bitter.	3/8/08	2:12	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Food	The Fast Food Dude of the Riverside Press Enterprise takes Queena Kim to find the best milkshake in town.	3/8/08	4:15	Jeff Girod, Queena Kim
Food	The aged fillets are the best, according to Trevor Corson.	3/8/08	2:15	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Food	Sea urchin gonads, anyone?	3/8/08	1:20	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Food	Before the sushi explosion, the intimate bar was the norm.	3/8/08	1:14	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Food	Eel sushi completes the experience.	3/8/08	1:56	John Rabe/Trevor Corson
Art	Track 16 Gallery in Santa Monica has become a shrine to a chicken. A dead, headless, buried and exhumed grocery store chicken named Blinky the Friendly Hen. Blinky started as an art joke thirty years ago by a Cal State Northridge art student Jeffrey Vallance.	3/15/08	4:08	John Rabe, Jeffrey Vallance
Art	Meet artist Wayne White, set designer for "Pee Wee's Playhouse" and art director for Peter Gabriel's video "Big Time." Now he's best known for painting big words on dime store landscape prints.	3/15/08	5:13	John Rabe, Wayne White
Env	LA Times food writer Russ Parsons explains why he tore out his front lawn to grow edibles.	3/15/08	4:18	John Rabe, Russ Parsons
Pol	Geraldine Ferraro stirred up controversy this week when she was quoted as saying, "If Obama were a white man, he would not be in this position." African-American novelist Jervey Tervalon knew this moment would come. He spoke to Queena Kim at a bakery in Pasadena.	3/15/08	4:18	Queena Kim, Jervey Tervalon
Pol	"What's wrong with Geraldine Ferraro's comment?" asks Off-Ramp satirist Tanya Jo Miller.	3/15/08	0:47	Tanya Jo Miller
Food	John offers this eulogy to a longtime Barbeque joint that picked up and moved down South (south on Vermont that is).	3/15/08	1:41	John Rabe
Com	Longtime Angelinos Ernie and Frances Wooster shared some of their childhood memories - and culinary discoveries - with correspondent Jackson Musker. This story came via the Heritage Square Museum in Highland Park, which recently held an "Old-Timer's Day" to collect stories of L.A.'s senior residents.	3/15/08	2:33	Jackson Musker
Env	Meet dentist and tree grower Ron Tremmel. He raises California oaks as a hobby. His wife wants them out of the backyard.	3/15/08	3:33	Ron Tremmel
Crime	Frank Stolze caps off his week-long series on rehabilitating criminals by taking us on a ride-along with a parole officer.	3/15/08	5:04	Frank Stoltze
Mus	Tucked behind a restaurant and parking lot in Silverlake, The Other Side is one of the oldest piano bars in Los Angeles. Filmmaker Jane Cantillon takes Queena Kim on a tour.	3/15/08	3:10	Queena Kim, Jane Cantillon
Mus	Mateo is back on Off-Ramp to talk about the amazing response he got from KPCC's listeners.	3/15/08		Mateo Stoneman
Crime	City councilman Ed Reyes held a news conference on Monday to propose a law that would mandate jail time for anyone with an illegal gun a thousand feet from a school.	3/22/08	5:08	John Rabe
Crime	Dr. Mauricio Heilbraun tells of operating on an 11-year-old boy who was fatally shot.	3/22/08	3:31	Dr. Mauricio Heilbraun

Art	Pasadena artist Stephen Berkman makes old-fashioned photographs called tintypes, which have appeared in such films as The Assassination of Jesse James and Cold Mountain.	3/22/08	6:42	John Rabe
Lit	Marc Haefele tells how he urged his bosses at Doubleday to buy the rights to a new science fiction book, but they refused. The book was 2001: A Space Odyssey. The writer Arther C. Clarke died this week.	3/22/08	3:41	Marc Haefele, John Rabe
Lit	Alex Ben Block tells of the L.A. Herald-Examiner reunion last week. The Hearst paper shut down in 1989.	3/22/08	3:30	Alex Ben Block
Art	Laurie Hassold, a Kentuckian who lives in Orange County, makes stunning sculptures that look like creepy sea creatures. But look closely and you'll see they're made up of all sorts of found objects.	3/22/08	3:51	John Rabe
Ent	Off-Ramp is following actor Christopher Murray's efforts to get his mother Hope Lange a star on Hollywood Blvd. The late actor won an Emmy and was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress in Peyton Place.	3/22/08	5:42	John Rabe, Christopher Murray
Pol	As part of KPCC's series, Frank Stoltze spoke with Ilham Hussain, an Iraqi-American psychotherapist who lives in the San Gabriel Valley.	3/22/08	4:09	Frank Stoltze
Pol	John Rabe mixes McCain's words to the soundtrack of an old spaghetti western.	3/22/08	1:12	John Rabe feat. John McCain
Art	John talks with Harry Benson, who photographed the Beatles when they hit Number One, Greta Garbo when she really wanted to be alone, and RFK's assassination.	3/29/08	3:45	John Rabe, Harry Benson
Ent	Die-hard fans of the "Happiest Place On Earth" aren't so happy these days. Rumors are that Disneyland is putting characters like Alice In Wonderland, Peter Pan and Nemo in the iconic ride.	3/29/08	5:02	Queena Kim
Lit	As part of Off-Ramp's ongoing series on writers, we feature Gina Nahai. Her latest novel is called Caspian Rain and it's told from the point-of-view of Yas, a 12-year-old Jewish girl living in Iran in the 1970s.	3/29/08	6:09	Queena Kim
Housing	With the housing market tanking, KPCC's Patricia Nazario takes us to the Norwalk Courthouse for one of the daily property auctions. Hundreds of foreclosed homes and condos are sold every day to the highest bidder.	3/29/08	3:29	Patricia Nazario, John Rabe
Art	Photographer Harry Benson stumbles upon a swimming Greta Garbo on holiday.	3/29/08	2:06	John Rabe, Harry Benson
Com	Off-Ramp Commentator Jeff Girod says that the greatest thing about being married is you can get laughs by telling stories about your spouse's foibles.	3/29/08	2:48	Jeff Girod
Crime	Reporter Mark Arax says that when the patriarch of the fast-food chain killed his mother and sister, then himself, he left behind a family wrestling with fate and each other.	3/29/08	4:42	Mark Arax
Ent	John Rabe remembers veteran actor Richard Widmark, who passed away this week at the age of 93.	3/29/08	3:07	John Rabe
Sports	KPCC's Senior news Editor Nick Roman tells about the exhibition game between the Dodgers and Red Sox at the LA Coliseum. With 115,000 tickets sold, watch out for traffic jams.	3/29/08	3:21	Nick Roman, John Rabe
Art	Beatles photographer Harry Benson explores the distinction between photographic manipulation and truth.	3/29/08	3:16	John Rabe, Harry Benson

Pol	Kitty Felde gauges the mood of Clinton delegates at the State Democratic Convention in San Jose.	3/29/08	3:11	Kitty Felde
	PM
POLI	Genovese details the position each presidential candidate is taking on various issues	1/1/08	11:00	Michael Genovese,
SCI	Everyone's brain is hard-wired into more liberal or conservative attitudes	1/1/08	20:00	David Amodio
MEDI	The actor talks about his experience	1/1/08	23:25	William Shatner
RACE	Gladwell explains how I.Q. test result judge the people's environments, not just their minds, and therefore are often misinterpreted	1/1/08	18:00	Malcolm Gladwell
TECH	Author reveals the real story behind the creation and development of the telephone	1/1/08	17:00	Seth Schulman
TECH	NASA says not to worry about an official pilot report that showed an alarming amount of errors	1/2/08	06:10	Jim Hall, Pete Janhunen
ECON	Oil has hit $100/ gallon, gas prices are nearing $4/ gallon, various world problems could be the cause	1/2/08	19:30	Jim Ritterbusch
TECH	Guests discuss the impossibility of maintaining your privacy online	1/2/08	17:20	Paul Boutin, Evan Carter
LAW	Patt checks in with city officials about crime fighting in LA	1/2/08	15:00	Frank Stoltze, Bill Bratton, Eric Garcetti
RACE	City's use of land and how it can help gangs develop	1/2/08	14:30	Sam Quinones, Randy, Juardo Ertill
HIST	PBS documentary about the controversial leader	1/2/08	17:56	Carl Byker
POLI	Projections for the Iowa caucuses tonight	1/3/08	25:43	Brad Edwards, Chris Cilliza
POLI	Milbank discusses his new book and anthropological report of the players inside the Beltway	1/3/08	26:47	Dana Milbank, Antonio Villaraigosa
POLIT	Local politicians leave town to support their chosen presidential candidates	1/3/08	14:44	Eric Garcetti, Frank Stoltze
HEAL	Fertility industry will start national registry of surrogate mothers, their medical histories and the health of the adopted babies	1/3/08	25:45	William Heizal, Elizabeth Stephen, Parham Zar
SCI	English chemistry professor creates a chewing gum less likely to stick to your shoe	1/3/08	12:01	Terence Cosgrove
POLI	The morning after the Iowa caucuses, presidential candidates change gears and campaign for New Hampshire	1/4/08	18:37	Howard Ernst
POLI	Young voters are coming out in unprecedented numbers, but will they show on election day?	1/4/08	22:33	John Della Volpe
RELI	New documentary detailing America's smallest yet most influential population	1/4/08	11:20	Dave Grubin
TECH	An analysis for the Blu-ray Disc format, which Warner Home Video chose exclusively over their DVD formats	1/4/08	05:51	Stephanie Prange
POLI	A humorous look at the week's political events	1/4/08	46:39	Marc Maron, Maz Jobrani, Freddy Lockhart
POLI	Political scientist tells us what voters are looking for in the presidential candidates	1/7/08	11:22	Dante Scala
POLI	$35 million in liability payouts indicates Los Angeles is not good at preventing problems	1/7/08	18:40	Laura Chick
POLI	Long considered Africa's most stable country Kenya has fallen into chaos	1/7/08	22:28	Andrew Cawthorne, Martir Meredith
HEAL	Senator advocates for hospitals to track staph infections to help save lives; others say this would be redundant	1/7/08	24:39	State Sen. Elaine Alquist, Jim Lott, Lisa Mc Giffert
HEAL	John's Hopkins professor finds making doctors follow a checklist greatly reduces rates of mistakes, but doctors don't want to comply	1/7/08	15:39	Peter Pronovost
TECH	The Consumer Electronics Show promises smaller cell phones, GPS in everything and predictions for digital TVs	1/7/08	12:12	Kent German

ART	Broad has decided to lend, not donate his art even to the museum with his name	1/8/08	24:15	Adolfo Guzman-Lopez, Tyler Green
ENT	Golden Globe awards ceremony turned into press conference	1/8/08	20:29	Marc Grazer, John Bowman, Irina Medavoy
ENT	Now that Obama won the Iowa caucuses, Hollywood moguls who once supported Clinton are abandoning her for the apparent front-runner	1/8/08	07:46	Ted Johnson
POLI	Bush is making his first trip to the Middle East in his seven years of presidency	1/8/08	33:51	Sean McCormick, Steve Erlanger, Jacob Dayan, Ghaith Al-Omari
POLI	Schwarzenegger expected to propose major budget cuts in his State of the State address tonight	1/8/08	18:39	Julie Small, Adam Mendelsohn, Fred Silva
POLI	Schwarzenegger set to raise taxes to fund firefighting efforts	1/9/08	16:08	Anthony Adams, Doug Keller
TECH	Teeneager committed suicide as a result of cyber bullying. Patt talks about the implications of the resulting criminal prosecution	1/9/08	23:47	Elizabeth Englander, Kurt Opsahl
ART	Research show that at peak movie times of violence films, violence goes down because perpetrators are otherwise occupied	1/9/08	12:35	Gordon Dahl, Jeff McIntyre
POLI	Examining how much Clinton's gender will affect votes in either direction	1/9/08	24:46	Christina Wollbrecht, Mary Wilson
POLI	Various polls have provided contradictory evidence about how men view her candidacy.	1/9/08	27:44
EDU	Schwarzenegger wants to cut $4 billion from the school budget, which will require suspension of Prop 98, which requires a minimum of funding owed to schools	1/10/08	15:10	Michael Kirst, Marty Hittleman
POLI	Patt discusses preparations for the Feb. 5 primary	1/10/08	22:27	Debra Bowen, Dean Logan
POLI	California Rep. Doolittle's resignation due to ties with Jack Abramoff will open a job that will likely create fierce competition for a GOP nomination	1/10/08	14:53	Allan Hoffenblum
TECH	General Motors CEO said driverless cars could be built and working within 10 years	1/10/08	26:55	Allen Taub, William "Red" Whittaker
ECON	The budget and what we can do about it	1/10/08	25:35	H.D Palmer, Sen. Tom McClintock, John Laird
MIL	Bombs assault Arab Jabour in one of the largest offensives of the war - a response to the insurgent offensive in Baghdad	1/11/08	16:04	Lenox Samuels
HIST	Sir Edmund Hillary and Tenzig Norway have passed away and now Mt. Everest is accessible to tourists and guides are trying to clean the trail from visitors' garbage	1/11/08	20:10	Mark Jenkins, Peter Miller
POLI	Employees claim background checks are a violation of their inviolable rights and the courts agree for not	1/11/08	09:09	Robert Nelson
ART	Critics are calling Gov. Schwarzenegger's proposals Draconian; a word specialist weighs in	1/11/08	07:07	Barbara Wallraff
ENT	Critics say NBC's decision to cover the Golden Globes has vaporized the line between news and entertainment	1/11/08	18:14	Tim Rutton, Judy Muller
ART	Co-director and co-writer speaks about her movie based on graphic novel about a girl's experience having grown up in Tehran and living through the Iran/Iraq war	1/11/08	14:53	Marjane Satrapati
ECON	California's housing market is spiraling downward, many talk of a recession and even President Bush admitted economy indicators were mixed	1/11/08	19:22	David Leonhardt
OC	Orange County Sheriff resigns to focus on his trial for corruption charges	1/14/08	18:08	Supervisor Chris Norby, Gustavo Arellano
ECON	Proposed reduction in tax on cell phones to fund municipal services; opponents say it's illegal and worry it could lead to taxing internet use	1/14/08	34:22	Thomas Saenz, Walter Moore, David Zahniser

HEAL	Research shows our environment affects how we eat, so one scientist is advocating regulated portions and restrictions on food advertising to curb America's obesity epidemic	1/14/08	37:18	Deborah A. Cohen, Jot Condie
HEAL	Research shows test scores, memory and other brain functions improve with exercise	1/14/08	15:12	John J. Ratey
POLI	The presidential race remains fluid; California voters weigh in	1/15/08	45:30	Sherry Bebich Jeffe
ENV	The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is considering polar bears for the Endangered Species list now that the arctic is melting; Patt talks to experts about how a species gets on the list	1/15/08	06:59	Bruce Woods
ECON	Nobel Peace Prize winner uses economic ideas to examine social issues in his new book	1/15/08	33:56	Muhammed Yunus
ECON	Reality tv wins out in a writers' strike and advertising is reaching $1 million per commercial	1/15/08	18:33	Goeff Robison
HEAL	The FDA approved the sale of cloned meat without labeling it as such. Listeners tell us what they think	1/16/08	24:42	Gary Jaffe, Michael Hansen
TRANS	The Transportation Policy and Revenue Study Commission says a huge increase in gas prices is the only way to modernize America's roads and transit	1/16/08	27:48	Steve Hminger, Keith Naughton
POLI	President Bush's original speech-writer discusses his new work, the first insider book on the Bush administration	1/16/08	40:15	David Frum
POLI	A prankster who sends whacked-out radio communication to U.S. warships in the Gulf might have been responsible for recent confrontation between Navy frigates and Iranian patrol ships	1/16/08	12:15	Richard Horman
HEAL	Choice advocates think this is due to the "morning after pill" and opponents say it's due to programs encouraging adoption	1/17/08	15:06	John Seery
HEAL	We're looking at a new health care proposal, this one by Gov. Schwarzenegger and Speaker Nunez. But is a single-payer system better than a free market system	1/17/08	20:54	Deborah Burger, David Grazer
RACE	Author examines the stigma of racial discourse and the term "selling out," how it is used by blacks and whites and the impact it has on America as a whole	1/17/08	39:44	Randall Kennedy
ENT	Scrabulous is the online, Facebook version of Scrabble and the owners of the original game are considering taking legal action for copyright and trademark infringement	1/17/08	12:46	Stefan Fatsis
ECON	Bush's emergency economic plan will cost the government $140 billion. Will it let us avoid a recession?	1/18/08	23:50	Ross Eisenbray, Michael Darda
ART	Bruce Springsteen's lead guitarist started "Little Steven's Rock and Roll High School" designed to trace the history of rock and roll; he shares his thoughts about music education	1/18/08	28:40	Steven Van Zandt
LIT	Author discusses Schwarzenegger's rise from bodybuilder to governor	1/18/08	16:30	Joe Mathews
LAW	Julie Small describes her visit to a women's prison and the state's issue of prison overcrowding	1/18/08	09:14	Julie Small
POLI	Kitty Felde shares her conversations with voters across California	1/18/08	13:41	Kitty Felde
ENT	The Directors Guild of America has reached a tentative deal with Hollywood studios. It doesn't address all of writers' demands, but strikers are eager to earn wages again. Analysis of the situation.	1/18/08	07:47	Alex Ben Block
SPOR	Another trial for athlete steroid use	1/18/08	05:18	Lance Williams

POLI	American is losing world status to countries such as China and India and the authors say this creates a good opportunity for the U.S. to clean house and solve its own problems	1/21/08	29:13	Nina Hachigian, Mona Sutphen
HEAL	Americans eat more bananas than any other fruit and than any other population, but the fruit is on its way to extinction.	1/21/08	21:13	Dan Koepfel
RACE	Book examines the changes and developments in press coverage of the U.S. civil rights movement	1/21/08	18:51	Hank Klibanoff
RACE	Jack Nelson won a Pulitzer Prize for his coverage of the civil rights movement in Atlanta; he shares his experiences	1/21/08	17:23	Jack Nelson
RACE	Dr. King's Feb. 25, 1965 address at the Temple Israel in Hollywood	1/21/08	12:48	None
ECON	The global market plunged Monday and the Fed made its biggest cut since 1990 to stimulate the economy	1/22/08	17:15	David Johnson, John Graham
POLI	Thompson's candidacy for president had little effect on the race. Elving predicts what effect his withdrawal will have.	1/22/08	07:09	Ron Elving
POLI	Examining the trend of people being arrested for terrorism, but convicted on far lesser, unrelated charges	1/22/08	17:34	Robert Chesney
ENT	Research shows Oscar nominations go most often to women in dramas with major distributors	1/22/08	10:32	Gabriel Rossman
MEDI	The FCC's auctioning of the airwaves could leave us with better access to voice communication	1/22/08	16:23	Corey Boles
FOR	Drug violence in Mexico was higher than ever this year, especially around the U.S. border. Does this indicate the strength or weakness of cartel leaders?	1/22/08	25:05	Jorge Chabat, Jorge Castaneda
ENV	Charging extra for plastic bags could encourage people to use alternatives that would help the environment. But a California law made doing so illegal and supervisors vote today on whether to overturn that ruling.	1/22/08	06:56	Brooke Binkowski
ENT	Young actor found dead in New York apartment, NYPD investigating, suspect an overdose	1/22/08	04:05	Leonard Maltin
LAW	A federal judge in San Francisco has removed the head of California's prison system, receiver, Robert Sillen with Clark Kelso, Gov. Schwarzenegger's chief information officer.	1/23/08	18:31	Don Spector, J. Clark Kelso
POLI	With Super Tuesday just a couple of weeks away, America's financial woes will no doubt also be on the lips of every candidate campaigning across the country.	1/23/08	26:42	Gene Sperling, Michael Crittenden
ECON	Even with perfumed conference rooms, lavish amenities and a collection of the richest people in the world, count on a sour mood at Davos. Will any kind of plan for economic relief emerge?	1/23/08	07:17	Dan Gross
HEAL	Can the efficacy of drugs like Zoloft and Prozac be trusted, and how can the public and doctors get their hands on every clinical trial, both the good and the bad?	1/23/08	36:38	Dr. Erick Turner
POLI	Castaneda argues that Mexican immigration into the U.S. has been underway for a century and has paid mutual dividends to both countries.	1/23/08	15:51	Jorge Castaneda
SAC	Excerpts of newly released documents reveal EPA officials told the agency's administrator that California had "compelling and extraordinary conditions" to justify a federal waiver allowing the state to reduce greenhouse gas emissions from vehicles.	1/24/08	10:53	Zachary Coile

TRAN	A surprisingly powerful winter storm has dumped enough snow on L.A.'s surrounding mountains to shut down traffic through the primary road link between Northern and Southern California, and more is on the way.	1/24/08	08:27	Jerry Holmes
POLI	Today the cost has nearly doubled and advocates of Proposition 92 believe this is one reason why fewer students are enrolling at community colleges.	1/24/08	33:10	Marty Hittelman, Mary Gill Nancy Shulock
ART	Early this morning, federal agents carried out coordinated raids on the Los Angeles County Museum of Art, Pasadena's Pacific Asia Museum, the Bowers Museum in Santa Ana and the Mingei International Museum in San Diego.	1/24/08	13:59	Adolfo Guzman-Lopez, Sharon Waxman
ECON	With a $9 trillion national debt, is even the smallest short-term stimulus package worth the long-term pain?	1/24/08	23:35	David Walker, Alice Rivlin
MEDI	This week the Jet Propulsion Laboratory (JPL) celebrates the anniversary of the 1958 launch of Explorer 1 with a new documentary entitled "Explorer 1: JPL and the Beginnings of the Space Age".	1/24/08	14:56	Blaine Baggett, Carl Raggio
ENV	Water authorities have been urging Southern Californians to conserve water in an attempt to battle the ongoing drought and reality of limited resources.	1/25/08	08:10	Deborah Man
MEDI	The Writers Guild of America made interim deals yesterday with Lionsgate, the largest indie producer, and Marvel Entertainment, which specializes in comic-book-hero movies.	1/25/08	04:57	Alex Ben Block
EDU	A group outside Warner Brothers in Burbank started "Teaching Thursdays."	1/25/08	10:22	Brian Watt
TECH	Patt Morrison looks at why older generations are joining Facebook, and how they interact with a virtual sea of youngsters.	1/25/08	28:59	Eric Kuhn, Mike Musgrove, Barbara Strauss
POLI	We cover the intra-party feuds and the lame political jokes until you wished Bill Clinton would just shut up.	1/25/08	52:30	Aisha Tyler, Dave Greene
HEAL	The Senate Health Committee is expected to vote down the health care bill, which would have cost the state about $14 billion.	1/28/08	09:59	Tom Chorneau
ECON	What are the legal consequences for mailing the keys back to your lender and walking away from your debt?	1/28/08	43:30	Peter Viles, Karen aka CondoBlue, Randy Cohen Rob Seidenwurm
ENT	Patt talks with downtown movers and shakers about the future of Broadway.	1/28/08	18:39	Brian Watt, Councilman José Huizar, Gary Blasi
POLI	Proposition 93 would reduce the total number of years in office to 12 but allow lawmakers to remain in one house.	1/28/08	33:51	Gray Davis, Steve Poizner, Eric McGhee
ECON	The economic slow down is hitting L.A. City hard... with Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa calling for paring down city spending to deal with a $155 million budget deficit.	1/29/08	17:43	Frank Stoltze, Karen Sisson, Councilman Greig Smith
SAC	Propositions 94, 95, 96, and 97 involve granting four Indian tribes (one for each proposition) permission to enlarge their casinos in exchange for paying more taxes to the state.	1/29/08	34:46	Fiona Hutton, Ted Greene, I. Nelson Rose
POLI	He's lost every primary contest so far and the end of his campaign seems imminent as the votes come in from the Florida polls, where he had concentrated his campaign. Is this the end of the Rudy Giuliani campaign?	1/29/08	12:37	Andrea Bernstein, Bill Simon

RACE	Is there really a "Latino vote" that can be guaranteed to vote one way or another? Are the interests of Cuban-Americans in Miami the same as Mexican-Americans in Los Angeles?	1/29/08	38:53	Dolores Huerta, Pilar Marrero, Raphe Sonenshein, Maria Elena Durazo
OBIT	Margaret Truman Daniel, the only child of President Harry. S. Truman, died today at age 83.	1/29/08	01:00	None
POLI	Exactly what went wrong with Rudy's campaign?	1/30/08	26:37	Ed Rogers
ECON	If the real estate bubble does fully burst the long term economic ramifications are frightening-a recession in '08 is just the beginning. How scared should we be?	1/30/08	25:52	Robert Shiller
POLI	Patt talks with candidates' economic advisors about how they would give an assist to fretful consumers and to a floundering stock market, and how they would help a housing market that's in deep trouble.	1/30/08	37:09	Brian Reardon, Doug Holtz-Eakin
POLI	Nothing obligates their supporters to follow with their votes. So what will Edwards and Giuliani supporters do now?	1/30/08	15:17	None
RACE	A spate of shootings in Monrovia has that city's residents keeping their children from playing outside.	1/31/08	26:41	Brooke Binkowski, Captain Richard Shaw, Malcolm Klein
POLI	Break out the abacuses and slide rules, this delegate equation could take a while.	1/31/08	25:49	Chris Cillizza, Dan Schnur
SAC	Super Tuesday is next week and candidates are focused on California, which has 441 delegates for the Dems and 173 at stake for the Republicans.	1/31/08	14:33	Frank Stoltze, Brian Watt, Adolfo Guzman-Lopez
HEAL	During an experiment using deep-brain stimulation intended to suppress an obese man's appetite, scientists accidentally made a breakthrough in the reversal of memory loss and the ability to learn.	1/31/08	24:40	Dr. George Bartzokis, Dr. Debra Cherry
ENT	For one night only, Patinkin is performing at the Kodak Theatre and he joins Patt to talk about his return to the stage.	1/31/08	14:17	Mandy Patinkin
SAC	Aside from the actual votes and delegates perhaps the most fiercely contested part of any election is winning prized endorsements.	2/1/08	21:22	Sen. Edward Kennedy, Sen. Diane Feinstein
MEDI	If the candidates were brands of lunch meat whose commercial would do the best job of moving them off the shelf? Patt gets two ad agency copywriters to weigh in on this.	2/1/08	22:09	John January, Tug McTighe
POLI	Patt talks with Judy Muller, a reporter for the about how foreigners look at our country and the election.	2/1/08	08:59	Judy Muller
ECON	Today she speaks with the Democrats. Patt talks with economic advisors from the Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama campaigns about their plans for the American economy.	2/1/08	35:26	Gene Sperling, Dan Tarullos
HIST	Coming from historian Craig Harline, "Sunday: A History of the First Day from Babylonia to the Super Bowl" documents how varied cultures have spent their Sundays over the years.	2/1/08	17:04	Craig Harline
POLI	Patt and her guest uncover the nuts and bolts of the propositions on the ballot, which cover funding of community colleges, term limits, and Indian gaming compacts.	2/4/08	24:57	Tony Quinn
IMM	We descend into the valley of GOP disagreement on immigration.	2/4/08	27:32	Bay Buchanan, Tamar Jacoby

POLI	What are the competing world views of Clinton and Obama and how would each one extract us from Iraq as President?	2/4/08	52:29	Richard Danzig, General Wesley Clark
POLI	Patt Morrison talks with KPCC reporter Molly Peterson about voter's difficulties with the Decline To State ballots.	2/5/08	04:46	Molly Peterson
YOUT	In almost every election candidates claim to be agents of change, and hence champions of younger voters hungry for that promised change; and in almost every election those young voters stay home when it counts the most.	2/5/08	27:27	None
MEDI	City Councilman Dennis Zine has called for an ordinance to create a minimum "personal safety zone" for media-hounded celebrities.	2/5/08	20:17	Dennis Zine, Andrew Blankstein, Brandy Navarre
POLI	As voters continue to voice their confusion and at times anger over today's problems with the Decline To State ballots.	2/5/08	39:59	Dean Logan, Dean Florez, Kitty Felde, Patricia Nazario
POLI	Patt talks to Governor Dukakis about the trials and tribulations of a presidential race.	2/5/08	12:31	Governor Michael Dukakis
POLI	How did McCain and Clinton swing their victories and what does that say about the political climate for presidential candidates in our golden state?	2/6/08	16:04	Carla Marinucci
POLI	Can California's Republicans come to an agreement and reach a consensus within the next nine months?	2/6/08	20:35	Tom Delbeccaro, Mike Spence, Alfred Balitzer
POLI	With all the advances in modern technology, why hasn't one of the nation's oldest and proudest traditions caught up?	2/6/08	15:51	Connie McCormack
LAW	Patt talks with experts and legislators about the legal implications of waterboarding.	2/6/08	33:59	Greg Miller, Dianne Feinstein, Cully Stimson
TRAN	The debate has begun over the proposed construction of a 16 mile toll-road that would end near Trestles, a park area known for its world-class waves.	2/6/08	05:32	Brooke Binkowski
POLI	The path to party nomination is a much more convoluted process of calculating delegates and in the aftermath of Super Tuesday the delegate algebra seems more muddled than ever.	2/6/08	12:56	Marc Ambinder
LAW	One officer is dead and another seriously wounded in a stand off in the San Fernando Valley. Patt checks in with KPCC reporters on this morning's deadly shootout.	2/7/08	16:17	Frank Stoltze, Patricia Nazario
POLI	Patt asks KPCC listeners who supported Romney who they'll back now.	2/7/08	20:34	None
LAW	The city of Ventura, like many municipalities, is strapped for money to hire additional police officers and firefighters. In a controversial move, the city will soon charge a monthly fee for emergency calls to help mitigate the problem.	2/7/08	15:39	Ken Corney, Marianne Ratcliff
LIT	Going against the classic conventions of Sigmund Freud and suppressed sexuality as the cause of all anxiety, Dr. Yalom says many people are actually reacting to previously unrecognized death anxiety.	2/7/08	40:02	Dr. Irvin Yalom
POLI	How much are you willing to give to support the candidate of your choice? Patt asks KPCC's listeners if they'll be pulling out their checkbooks.	2/7/08	12:28	Ken Rudin

ECON	The Writers Guild of America and the major studios are putting the final touches on a deal which they will present to thousands of writers in Los Angeles and New York tomorrow.	2/8/08	19:47	Cynthia Littleton
ECON	Hollywood may soon be back in business...but what if that business was gone for good?	2/8/08	16:25	Mark Lacter, Paul Krekorian
ENT	Most Americans have a vague idea that in 2009 broadcasters will stop sending free analog TV signals and digital TV will be the norm. At that time, older TV sets will go blank unless viewers purchase a converter box.	2/8/08	16:18	Kevin Martin, Eric Savitz
POLI	We cover the intra-party feuds and the lame joke until you wished Bill Clinton would just shut up. The truth hurts far less when it's told by comedians.	2/8/08	52:30	Larry Miller, Orny Adams, Ben Gleib
POLI	With an increasingly confident foreign policy and rapidly growing military, the likelihood of future conflict with China seems to be very real. But does the government occasionally over-hype these Chinese spy cases?	2/11/08	00:24	Gordon Chang
HEAL	Columnist Chris Woolston looks into the science behind consumer health products.	2/11/08	00:21	Chris Woolston
ECON	The WGA has a settlement	2/11/08	00:15	Carl DiOrio
ECON	Los Angeles has 626,600 rent-controlled units but a plan to change all that will appear on the June ballot.	2/11/08	00:18	Michael Shaw, Tom Adams
MEDI	KTLA's News at Ten: 60 Years with Stan Chambers covers the history of television news and remembers Chambers' long lasting career that began in 1947, the only newscaster to be working at the same television station for sixty years.	2/11/08	00:18	Stan Chamber
LAW	The Police Commission's Inspector general released a 34-page study today that raises serious questions about the LAPD's ability to investigate citizen complaints against its officers.	2/12/08	00:24	Andre Birotte, William Bratton, Connie Rice
ECON	Working with the Administration, bankers have developed a plan to help stem the flow of foreclosures and, hopefully, stave off a recession	2/12/08	00:08	Thomas Davidoff
SPOR	One of the greatest pitchers of all time has been charming members of Congress before he is to plant himself on the hot seat for what promises to be an uncomfortable and even sensationalistic committee hearing on the use of steroids in baseball.	2/12/08	00:18	Kevin Bogardus, Ken Rosenthal
POLI	Two new studies cast doubt on the environmentally-friendly reputation supported by the President and the manufacturers of biofuels:	2/12/08	00:33	Timothy Searchinger, Tom Koehler, Daniel Kammen
ECON	The compact car, previously considered cheap and even tacky, saw its sales increase by 33% last year in the U.S.	2/12/08	00:14	Keith Naughton
ECON	The strike's almost over, as WGA members decide whether or not to ratify the agreement with producers.	2/12/08	00:04	Brian Watt
SPOR	Clemens' amazing records and the entire game c	2/13/08	00:20	Kevin Bogardus
POLI	It may be a matter of time before the area around the sign is dotted with houses. Patt finds out what's in store for Hollywood, the sign.	2/13/08	00:20	Tom LaBonge, Sarah Blanchard, Marc Wanamaker
POLI	The country's booming economy and 2008 Beijing Summer Olympics have brought the world's attention to the nation. Yet China's notorious human rights history, aggressive espionage activities, etc. has also garnered criticism from everyone.	2/13/08	00:30	Ching-Ching Ni

FOR	Darfur is home to the world's largest aid operation consisting of 13,000 relief workers, yet the region's humanitarian crisis has only gotten worse.	2/13/08	00:52	Tim Irwin, Nicky Smith, Janice Kamenir-Reznik
POLI	The President got his version of the FISA bill approved by the Senate on Tuesday.	2/14/08	00:33	Gail Chaddock, Bruce Fein, Rep. Mike Thompson
POLI	If McCain can't even win over his own party, is there a chance that he can win over the country in November? And Angry Republicans staged a walkout after boycotting a House vote.	2/14/08	00:19	Jack Kemp, Ron Elving
ART	In a bid to become one of the world's most notable museums, LACMA recently unveiled BCAM, the Broad Contemporary Art Museum.	2/14/08	00:24	Eli Broad, Tyler Green
MEDI	The top job will not be easy and one as the announcement comes on the heels of the exit of the Times' third editor in less than three years and amid employee layoffs.	2/14/08	00:09	Russ Stanton
LAW	In the fourth shooting on a US school campus this week, a gunman opened fire in a lecture hall at Northern Illinois University, killing himself and wounding at least 15 others.	2/14/08	00:17	Matt Streb
ECON	A month after Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger called for drastic cuts to reduce the state's $14.5 billion deficit, the California Legislature approved $2 billion in budget cuts.	2/15/08	00:13	Evan Halper, HD Palmer
EDU	Reports have shown that gay students are five times more likely to be bullied and harassed than their peers, leading many school officials and gay rights activists wondering about the state of tolerance among youth.	2/15/08	00:37	Lisa Hurwitz, Luis Ramon, Allan Acevedo, Daisy Blanco Latelle, Gail Rolf
POLI	Super Delegates are uncomfortably thrust into the spotlight as the Democratic nomination rests in their super hands—will they vote their conscience, or follow the lead of the voters?	2/15/08	00:37	Elaine Kamarck, Art Torres, James Zogby
LAW	Thousands gathered in South Los Angeles today for a funeral for SWAT officer Randal Simmons, who was killed last week during a raid.	2/15/08	00:08	Frank Stoltze
POLI	In his new book, "The Commission: The Uncensored History of the 9/11 Investigation", Philip Shenon fills in some of the blanks left by that report, such as the Relationship that existed between Rove and the executive director of the Commission.	2/18/08	00:33	Philip Shenon
LIT	New York Times scent critic (yes, there is such a thing) Chandler Burr spent a year behind the scenes of one of the world's most secretive and lucrative businesses – the perfume industry – and puts the story on public view.	2/18/08	00:17	Chandler Burr
LIT	Part memoir, part examination into the man who helped define the known contours of the human body, The Anatomist is an exploration into the human form.	2/18/08	00:24	Bill Hayes
LIT	He argues that you can tell a lot about a candidate by analyzing things like the clothes they wear, whether they've served in the military, if they'd make a good "beer buddy," and even by their haircut.	2/18/08	00:28	Ben Shapiro
POLI	To the dismay of environmentalists and the city of Los Angeles, Long Beach port officials have decided to back off of an earlier proposal aimed at replacing old trucks with new vehicles that are more environmentally sound.	2/19/08	00:15	Bob Foster, David Freeman
POLI	President Pervez Musharraf's ruling party conceded defeat in Monday's election. What will this mean for the future of this nuclear power and key US ally? And what impact will it have on the fight against Al Qaeda and the Taliban?	2/19/08	00:19	Wendy Chamberlin, Larry Goodson

LIT	"The Reserve" deals with contemporary theme: including outsider-led environmental conservation and the complexities of class relations in the United States.	2/19/08	00:16	Russell Banks
POLI	Voters in Wisconsin and Hawaii will have their electoral voices be heard today as both states hold presidential primaries.	2/19/08	00:06	JR Ross
SCI	As more people live longer, battling cancer has become less like fighting an acute illness and more like treating a chronic disease.	2/19/08	00:46	Mary Herczog, Selma Schimmel, Patricia Ganz,
SCI	Patt Morrison looks at various developments in battling breast cancer, including changes in treatment and the prevalence of women making their own decisions about their care.	2/20/08	00:33	Susan Love, Jennie Nash
LAW	LAPD Police Chief William Bratton comes in for his monthly chat with Patt.	2/20/08	00:37	William Bratton
POLI	Former mayor of San Francisco Willie Brown brings us behind the scenes of his political career which spans from conducting a sit-in demonstration in 1961 to serving as Speaker of the California Assembly.	2/20/08	00:30	Willie Brown
ECON	The projected $14.5 billion budget deficit that California had been facing for this upcoming fiscal year mushroomed to $16 billion.	2/21/08	00:17	Elizabeth Hill, Gary Lorder
FOR	Patt talks with experts on the region about the implications--and the dangers--presented by the continuing discord in the Balkans.	2/21/08	00:32	Beth Kampschror, Charles Kupchan
HEAL	It's of great concern that this year's flu shot formula was less than ideal--and will not defend against the majority of this year's strains.	2/21/08	00:34	Keiji Fukuda, Jonathan Fielding, Nicole Baumgarth
POLI	With Barack Obama threatening to pull away in the race for the Democratic nomination for president, expect plentiful blood and guts to be spilled in their debate tonight in Austin.	2/21/08	00:09	Chris Cillizza
POLI	Lawrence K. Dodge wrote a biting letter to the party chairman in which he accused the party of alienating moderates. The letter becomes one more example of trouble in the Republican Party as it strives to attract more support in California and nationwide	2/22/08	00:04	Dan Walters
POLI	Security officials at a Barack Obama rally in Dallas Wednesday decided to stop screening people for weapons after the lines got too long.	2/22/08	00:20	Jack Douglas, Randy Parsons
ECON	Here is where banks become integral, because their massive losses by mortgage defaults starts a ripple effect that touches every other industry, from insurance to credit cards and even government bonds.	2/22/08	00:28	Eugene Ludwig, Charles Morris
ECON	As the housing foreclosure crisis drives house prices down, renting in Los Angeles has become more popular and more expensive.	2/22/08	00:29	Stuart Gabriel
ECON	Ever wonder who chooses the toys your children beg you for? Wonder no longer as Patt looks at the annual American International Toy Fair, which took place this week in New York City.	2/22/08	00:10	Jonathan Samet
ENT	Bruce Vilanch was under an unusual amount of deadline pressure as the awards ceremony was rushed together at the end of the writer's strike. Patt talks with Vilanch about the challenges of writing the verbiage for Oscar presenters.	2/22/08	00:11	Bruce Vilanch
EDU	Today the mayor announced the team that will lead this collaborative effort which aims to give parents, teachers and students a voice in decisions that affect their schools.	2/25/08	00:13	Adolfo Guzman-Lopez
ECON	Take Two is confident that it can demand a higher price once the new Grand Theft Auto is released—which just goes to demonstrate how profitable video games have become.	2/25/08	00:09	Geoff Keighly

HEAL	Do we protect our children from the slight chance of contamination or do we protect the economic interests of food suppliers and consumers?	2/25/08	00:30	Rod Leveque, Sen. Dean Florez, Bob Alvarez, Dean Cliver
MIL	The US is in the middle of two wars and continues to maintain bases throughout the world. Troops are having deployments extended--they're tired, morale is low, and equipment is breaking down.	2/25/08	00:24	Mike Boyer
ART	Some California red wines are now reaching the 15- to-16 percent alcohol range.	2/25/08	00:28	Dennis Overstreet, Garret Murphy
POLI	The Republican National Committee has quietly commissioned polling and focus groups to determine the boundaries of attacking a minority or female candidate.	2/26/08	00:13	Arnold Steinberg, Geraldine Ferraro
RELI	A recent Pew study has determined that Americans are letting go of their loyalties to specific organized denominations.	2/26/08	00:37	John Green, Guillermo Garcia
HEAL	The Humane Society has been in the spotlight due to its recent undercover investigation of the Hallmark/Westland Meat Packing Co in Chino, California.	2/26/08	00:24	Wayne Parcelle
FOR	What does the weekend outage portend for future attacks on the Internet (whether by governments or hackers), and can its longstanding tradition of free and open exchange survive?	2/26/08	00:11	Ryan Singel, Todd Underwood
POLI	Now we move to round two of the late primary debates, this time in Ohio which is decidedly Hillary country. Who will leave the debate ring bloodied and battered, and who will leave victorious?	2/26/08	00:17	Chris Cillizza
ECON	Tomorrow evening, the Vallejo City Council plans to vote on whether or not the city will declare bankruptcy. The city has grown increasingly strapped for revenues thanks to the housing crisis, resulting in a loss of property and sales tax revenues.	2/27/08	00:12	Osby Davis, Chris Thornberg
HEAL	Produced from the leaves of a remarkably resilient Japanese tree, ginkgo has taken on an almost mythical marketing status used to pitch hundreds of products—but does it work?	2/27/08	00:27	Barry Oken, Gregory Cole
ECON	Newsweek correspondent Daniel McGinn provides the sexier, flashier side to America's obsession with the housing market in his new book "House Lust."	2/27/08	00:31	Daniel McGinn
LAW	A recent PEW Center study has determined that within America 1 in every 100 adults is either in jail or prison. This ranks America as the world's No.1 incarcerator.	2/28/08	00:12	Adam Gelb
ECON	The American economy has shown the ability to withstand high gas prices before but can that really last? Congressional Democrats have passed a bill that will eliminate $18 billion in subsidies for the oil industry.	2/28/08	00:20	David Knapp, Philip Verleger
EDU	Those districts, responsible for educating nearly 1/3 of California's public school students, face sanctions for the first time under the federal law because they have failed to meet achievement goals for four years.	2/28/08	00:22	Foch Pensis, Dave Long, Jack O'Connell
POLI	On Wednesday, the first African American woman in California history secured enough votes to become the next California Assembly Speaker.	2/28/08	00:10	Karen Bass
POLI	Hillary Clinton's campaign might bring a lawsuit challenging Democratic Party rules regarding the Texas primary and caucus. Barack Obama's campaign has argued it's an attempt to slow the reporting of the caucus tallies on Tuesday night.	2/29/08	00:11	Hector Nieto, Karen Tumulty

LIT	New York Times bestseller "Our Dumb World" makes fun of everything from country statistics to China's top import: U.S. debt. Patt talks to Megan Ganz, one of the book's writers and associate editor of the Onion.	2/29/08	00:21	Megan Ganz
POLI	With Comedy Congress, we're taking a humorous look back at the week in politics and current events, and a look ahead at the absurdities yet to come.	2/29/08	00:32	Michael Loftus, Wayne Federman
POLI	Gay rights activists and representatives of the city of San Francisco will go head-to-head with the State Attorney General over the right to marry in California.	3/3/08	00:22	Sarah Varney, Shannon Minter, Eugene Volokh
POLI	Political analysts and Putin's critics have called the election a sham, saying no other candidate stood a chance against the pressure of the Putin machine.	3/3/08	00:10	James Collins
LIT	Thought you knew it all? Think again. "The Book of General Ignorance" takes what's considered common knowledge and turns it on its head by explaining mistakes and finally setting the record straight.	3/3/08	00:32	John Mitchinson, John Lloyd
POLI	Following a string of defeats and near-misses elsewhere, same-sex marriage supporters are hoping for the legal equivalent of a home field advantage today (Tuesday) when the state's high court hears long-awaited challenges to California's marriage laws.	3/4/08	00:06	Bob Egelko
POLI	Texas, Ohio, Rhode Island and Vermont become the latest firewall states for the Democratic nomination race, and Hillary Clinton shows no signs of dropping out.	3/4/08	00:25	Yashar Hedayat, Tony West
ECON	San Francisco Assemblywoman Fiona Ma is sponsoring a bill that guarantees paid sick days for all California workers. But some, such as the National Restaurant Association, say a one-size-fits-all solution will hurt small businesses.	3/4/08	00:17	Assemblywoman Fiona Ma, Howard Fine, Kevin Westlye
LIT	Patt talks to renowned journalist and author Celeste Fremon about writers' use of South LA to glorify a story and propel stereotypes about this community.	3/4/08	00:11	Celeste Fremon
LIT	With fewer books being read each year and a general lack of interest in academic knowledge, Americans present a sad story of anti-intellectualism and lack of reasonable thought.	3/4/08	00:27	Susan Jacoby
LAW	Two people have been arrested in connection with the Harbor Gateway shooting that left a 6-year-old boy critically wounded with a head wound, the LAPD announced today.	3/5/08	00:08	Frank Stoltze
LAW	Hired by many big name celebrities Anthony Pellicano is under trial for charges ranging from racketeering to wiretapping. The trial, which begins today, threatens to expose a vast network of corrupt Los Angeles residents.	3/5/08	00:05	Greg Krikorian
POLI	For those of us hoping that last night's primary elections in Texas, Ohio, Vermont and Rhode Island would deliver a decisive conclusion to the Democratic nomination race, we awoke this morning to disappointing news: this race is a tie.	3/5/08	00:09	Ron Fournier
ECON	In an effort to stimulate the economy and make it easier for people to buy, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Secretary Alphonso Jackson announced a temporary increase on housing loan limits.	3/5/08	00:10	Alphonso Jackson

LIT	The editors of storytelling magazine SMITH- decided to go about publishing memoirs a little differently: they asked readers to describe their lives in six words. The result is a collection of quotes ranging from the absurdly funny to the heart-wrenchingly.	3/5/08	00:50	Rachel Fershleiser, Larry Smith
POLI	Now that the Democratic campaign has become an epic close-call tale officials in Michigan and Florida want their seats in the convention back.	3/6/08	00:12	Michael Barone
POLI	There was even talk that negative campaigning this time around would backfire. Yet, once again based on Tuesday's results, it seems that negative campaigning is a winning tactic.	3/6/08	00:10	Shanto Iyengar
POLI	Why is the Canadian government so interested in the Democratic nomination and what's the view of NAFTA from north of the border?	3/6/08	00:10	Sheldon Alberts
LAW	An African-American family became the latest victim in a spate of racially related gang shooting -two Latino males flashed gang signs before opening fire into the family's red GMC Yukon, critically wounding a 6-year-old boy.	3/6/08	00:31	Sam Quinones, Sergeant Catherine Plows, TK, Gloria Lockhart
FOR	A gunman infiltrated a Jewish seminary in Jerusalem and opened fire in a library Thursday night, killing at least seven people, officials said.	3/6/08	00:10	Etgar Lefkowitz
ENV	Businesses and individuals buy carbon credits to balance out their contribution to global warming. Patt Morrison talks with an expert in energy and environmental policy about what exactly carbon offsets do and how they work.	3/7/08	00:24	Mark Bernstein
ECON	With the downturn of real estate and lack of interest in advertising, newspapers across the country have been slicing costs and cutting staff numbers to bare bones.	3/7/08	00:26	James Bettinger, Tim Rutten, Rick Orlov, Tom Honig
TRAN	The Federal Aviation Administration is seeking a record $10.2 million civil penalty against Southwest for failing to properly inspect nearly four dozen older planes for potentially hazardous structural cracks.	3/7/08	00:30	Jim Hall, Diane Spitalirere
HEAL	Pharmaceutical companies spent $4.8 billion on drug advertising in 2006 and it appears that their investment is paying off. According to a new study these drug ads prompt nearly one-third of Americans to ask their doctors about an advertised medicine.	3/7/08	00:35	Andrew Christou, Katie Watson,
ENV	Small amounts of anti-anxiety and anti-epileptic medications have already been detected in the water supply for 18.5 million people in Southern California. The contamination is widespread and its implications on humans and wildlife are not yet known,	3/10/08	00:06	Molly Peterson
LAW	Governor Schwarzenegger suggested releasing 22-thousand prison inmates to help reduce the state's massive budget deficit. That plan intersects with the ongoing debate over what to do with California's burgeoning prison population.	3/10/08	00:00	Frank Stoltze
TRAN	Impressed with advances in battery technology and the success of hybrids, executives from auto giants General Motors and Toyota opined at the Geneva auto show that hydrogen is not the best path to the next generation automobile.	3/10/08	00:44	Bill Reinert, Dave Barthmuss, Chris Paine

POLI	"The New York Times" is reporting that Governor Spitzer was caught on a federal wiretap arranging to meet with a high-priced prostitute.	3/10/08	00:13	Andrew Bernstein
ECON	Patt talks with Nick Taylor, writer of American Made: The Enduring Legacy of the WPA When FDR Put the Nation to Work about the program and all it accomplished.	3/10/08	00:22	Nick Taylor
ECON	Senators Chris Dodd (D-Conn.) and Chuck Hagel (R-Neb.) are sponsoring the "National Infrastructure Bank Act" to begin funding a modern WPA to fix all the ailing roads bridges, airports, and railroads that are literally falling apart.	3/10/08	00:13	Casey Binges
LAW	One day after law enforcement officials announced they had caught the governor and former "Sheriff of Wall Street" paying for an expensive prostitute, Spitzer kept the nation in a state of suspense – and continued shock – by not making any big moves.	3/11/08	00:14	Andrea Bernstein, Dana Milbank
LAW	The family of Jamiel Shaw Jr., a star high school football player shot and killed in Arlington Heights last week, held a funeral today to honor his memory.	3/11/08	00:07	Brooke Binkowski
LAW	In December the U.S. Sentencing Commission modified the sentencing rules and made them retroactive, meaning thousands of crack cocaine offenders suddenly became eligible for freedom. What will be the ramifications?	3/11/08	00:26	Mary Price, Josh Marquis, Chuck Canterbury
ECON	Once again, UCLA is bucking the trend: this time predicting no recession, when most economic powerhouses say we're already in one.	3/11/08	00:16	Jerry Nickelsburg, Stephen Levy
ECON	Redesigns of US currency are now filtering down to small bills, and the five-dollar note is about to get a major makeover, mainly to deter counterfeiting.	3/11/08	00:12	Michael Lambert
LIT	In his book "Your Inner Fish," author and paleontologist Neil Shubin traces the history of the human body by looking at its evolution from earlier life forms.	3/11/08	00:20	Neil Shubin
EDU	Many families use a combination of state sponsored independent study in conjunction with their own methods to educate their children, but the problem, the ruling seems to suggest, is that we really can't know what goes on behind closed doors.	3/12/08	00:58	Karen Taylor, Patricia Lines, Jacques Rifkind, Frank Vahid, Martin Forte, Maya Vahid
EDU	This past month alone Brewer has closed a lawsuit with Los Angeles Charter Schools, faced criticism on his lack of an official executive team, and has taken on the challenge of standardizing English in the classroom.	3/12/08	00:37	David Brewer
POLI	The head of US Central Command, Admiral William "Fox" Fallon, was an outspoken critic of Bush Administration policy towards Iran. Now he's retiring—early.	3/12/08	00:14	Tom Bowman
ECON	The city of Los Angeles has $50 million dollar deficit on their hands. Not since 1983 have city employees had to face the looming cloud of possible layoffs.	3/13/08	00:06	Kerry Cavanaugh
POLI	In an attempt to gain those precious delegates Florida has jumped in today with a vote-by mail primary proposal.	3/13/08	00:07	Alijandro Miyar, Ron Elving
ECON	Due to the small numbers of salmon living in the ocean and rivers along the Pacific Coast, The Pacific Fishery Management Council is deciding this week whether to recommend completely shutting down salmon fishing this year.	3/13/08	00:13	Rod McInnis, David Bitts

MEDI	Today, former HerEx alumni's are gathering at "Return to Corky's: The Ultimate Herald Examiner Almost-20th Reunion Party"—a distinguished discussion panel celebrating the paper's long lasting influence.	3/13/08	00:13	Alex Ben Block, Ron Kaye, Chris Woodyard
POLI	As the endgame for the Democratic nomination looks increasingly like a complicated negotiation rather than an outright win by either candidate, there is a good possibility that various factions of the Party will be alienated by the final outcome.	3/13/08	00:33	David Bonior, Rachlinski
ECON	The Air Force decided the best deal came from Northrop Grumman--which will base the tanker on the European-built Airbus. This has Boeing--and members of congress who represent Washington State and other areas which depends on Boeing for jobs--very upset.	3/13/08	00:17	William Barksdale, Randy Belote
ECON	The economy continues to show signs of recession with an announcement today that JP Morgan and the Federal Reserve will bail out Bear Sterns.	3/14/08	00:13	Peter Viles
RACE	The killings continue. What will it take to end the violence? City Controller Laura Chick talks about her recent audit that calls for consolidating the city's various anti-gang programs.	3/14/08	00:28	Laura Chick, Connie Rice
SPOR	Rivals UCLA and USC will meet in the Pacific 10 Conference tournament for the first time today.	3/14/08	00:09	Nick Roman
POLI	With Comedy Congress, we're taking a humorous look back at the week in politics and current events, and a look ahead at the absurdities yet to come.	3/14/08	00:52	Elon Gold, Chris Porter, Tiffany Haddish
ECON	The collapse, Fed intervention, and fire sale to JP Morgan of investment bank Bear-Sterns sent ripples through world financial markets today.	3/17/08	00:35	David Johnson, Ambrose Evans-Pritchard, Paul LaMonica
EDU	Gov. Arnold Schwarzenegger announced he will cut over $4 billion in education funding in order to take a chunk out of the state's $16 billion deficit.	3/17/08	00:17	Dave Long, Robert Watanabe, Norbert Genis
POLI	How will the governor run one of the nation's largest states with a visual disability? What obstacles do he and other blind professionals face on a daily basis?	3/17/08	00:23	John Pare, Rabbi Dennis Shulman,
POLI	What will his leadership and record mean for the all-important Foreign Relations Committee?	3/17/08	00:18	Howard Berman
HIST	Anyone who's seen "Bugsy" or "Casino" knows about the mob history behind the construction and creation of today's Las Vegas. Now the city is starting to acknowledge its sordid past, with tours of historic sites where mob players were whacked.	3/17/08	00:08	Robert Allen
POLI	The speech itself, in which Obama spoke candidly and directly about slavery, his race, and its significance in his campaign, quickly became more of a focus than the controversial preacher it was intended to address.	3/18/08	00:24	Open phones
RACE	Mexican Americans have not fully integrated into U.S. society, even by the third and fourth generation, according to a new UCLA study covering 40 years.	3/18/08	00:28	Edward Telles, Vilma Ortiz, Tomas Jimenez
POLI	Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa joins Patt to talk about the Clean Truck program and discuss why L.A. is breaking ranks with the Long Beach Harbor over it.	3/18/08	00:10	Antonio Villaraigosa
LAW	A special panel of law enforcement experts convened by LAPD Chief Bratton says there is room for improvement in SWAT.	3/18/08	00:09	William Bratton

LAW	This morning warrants were served in part of a huge prosecutorial move against a predatory lending scheme.	3/18/08	00:10	Michael Ramos
POLI	Online technology might lead to another radical transformation of American politics akin to the introduction of television.	3/18/08	00:20	Morley Winograd, Michael Hais
ECON	While the meter continues to tick on Iraq war dollars spent, Joseph Stiglitz, Nobel Prize-winning economist, and Linda Bilmes of Harvard's Kennedy School of Government add up the cost of the conflict so far and predict it will reach $3 trillion or more.	3/19/08	00:29	Linda Bilmes, David Walker
ECON	Aside from the symbolic significance of being overtaken last year by Toyota as the top selling automotive brand in the world, GM has lost a staggering $50 billion in the last three years alone. After	3/19/08	00:20	Fritz Henderson
ECON	In light of the nation's huge economic concerns the presidential candidates are quickly shifting their focus to prove themselves to be sturdy economic nominees.	3/19/08	00:24	Dan Tarullo
ECON	Despite the Federal Reserve's latest cuts in short-term interest rates to banks, home mortgage rates show no sign of decline. Desperate home-owners have found themselves out of luck.	3/19/08	00:28	Mark Klein, Adam York
ECON	There have been many proposed ideas coming from the City Council to pull LA out of its major deficit. Trash and water fees may raise, and the mayor is encouraging city workers to take a few unpaid days off to help out.	3/20/08	00:27	Dennis Zine
RELI	In their latest update of social sins the Catholic Church has gone green and bioethical-- as we should not ruin the environment, experiment with DNA or use contraceptives.	3/20/08	00:20	John Allen
ECON	The nation's two biggest cell phone providers dominated the bidding to win the FCC airwaves auction. AT&T and Verizon Wireless pledged a combined $19.6 billion.	3/20/08	00:13	Corey Boles
MIL	Despite security improvements, issues over the rewrite of the constitution, the control of oil resources and how to deal with insurgents plagues the Iraqi government.	3/20/08	00:33	Ned Parker, Richard Schmierer, Brian Katulis
MIL	Since the conflict in Iraq began, Frontline has gone behind the scenes to chronicle and analyze one of our most challenging periods of war and political drama.	3/20/08	00:17	Michael Kirk
TECH	The revelations that private contractors snooped through the passport records of all three presidential candidates brings on a much bigger question: in the modern age, how can anyone maintain privacy?	3/21/08	00:22	Leslie Harris, Dan Tynan
POLI	McCain's senior policy advisor, Douglas Holtz-Eakin, explains what the Republican nominee has in mind to remedy the fiscal mess, at a time when there are calls to re-regulate freewheeling financial institutions.	3/21/08	00:28	Douglas Holtz-Eakin
POLI	Talk show stars are urging remaining primary Republican voters to swap party lines and vote for Clinton in hopes of halting an Obama nomination	3/21/08	00:13	John Zogby
EDU	Mark Yudof, the former University of Minnesota president, will take over the University of California system. Guest-host David Lazarus gets the scoop on the new head.	3/21/08	00:10	Paul Fain

ECON	As part of a response to a down year, and girding for a downturn in the economy that is sure to affect Starbucks customers' ability to afford $4 coffee, the company announced a series of changes at this weeks shareholders meeting.	3/21/08	00:27	Karen Blumental
MIL	Patt opens the phones to hear what listeners think about this milestone - the surge of the past several months clearly reduced the American death toll, but U.S. soldiers continue to die in Iraq	3/24/08	00:24
MEDI	The Justice Department approved Sirius Satellite Radio's $5 billion buyout of rival XM Satellite Radio today, saying the deal was unlikely to hurt competition or consumers.	3/24/08	00:09	Michael Harrison
HEAL	The blood thinning drug Heparin was recently found to be contaminated, causing many illnesses and possibly some deaths. It is difficult to track the origins of all components, let alone test every processing plant along the way to the U.S. manufacturer.	3/24/08	00:17	Diana Zuckerman
HEAL	Physicians are abandoning Medi-Cal patients This pushes even more uninsured patients onto already over-taxed community health clinics and public hospitals. San Francisco and other cities are threatening to sue the state over the latest round of cutbacks.	3/24/08	00:33	Dylan Roby, Sandra Shewry, Iry Edwards, Allison Diamant
HOUS	Much of Ontario's homeless population is in process of being removed from Tent City, a homeless encampment.	3/24/08	00:05	Steven Cuevas
MEDI	Stay tuned for a choppy, shortened Spring television season as many of the scripted shows that disappeared during the Writers Guild strike return to the airwaves this week.	3/24/08	00:12	Tim Goodman
ECON	Your DWP bill could be getting more expensive too—the L.A. City Council votes today on a proposal to hike electric rates by 9% over three years and water rates by 6% over two years, something Mayor Villaraigosa has strongly encouraged.	3/25/08	00:24	David Nahai, Tom LaBonge, Heath Kline
ECON	Executive Director Geraldine Knatz talks about the challenges of massive expansion while curbing pollution, maintaining security and counterterrorism efforts at a high-profile facility, and managing a myriad of day-to-day operations	3/25/08	00:21	Geraldine Knatz, John Holmes
ART	"The Port of Los Angeles: An Illustrated History" depicts the development of this maritime landmark- from its discovery by the Spaniards through its assistance in wartime - in a fascinating pictorial history.	3/25/08	00:07	Veronique De Turenne
LAW	The circumstances of recent killings seem to point to severe racial tension between the groups; however, the issues are complex and can easily be misinterpreted.	3/25/08	00:13	Alex Sanchez, Bo Taylor
SPOR	Patt talks with an organizer of the 1984 Los Angeles Olympics about the torch and then finds out about a controversy brewing around this year's relay and its scheduled run through San Francisco	3/25/08	00:17	Anita de Frantz, Elliot Almond
POLI	Opposition to war and engagement with allies sounds like a good plan, but can we be sure these sentiments will be translated into policy if he is elected president? In the meantime, what does such a speech teach us about this candidate?	3/26/08	00:33	Randy Scheunemann, Faiz Shakir

ENVT	There have been larger, more dramatic ice collapses, but the speed with which this current chunk is breaking away from the continent is what's truly alarming. It's a sign of things to come	3/26/08	00:17	David Vaughan, Eric Rignot
HEAL	Being that the U.S. is the only industrialized nation that doesn't guarantee health care and with millions going without because they cannot afford coverage, one might ask – is this system the best we can do for our citizens?	3/26/08	00:24	Tom Daschle
HEAL	Both employees and employers have felt the squeeze of rising medical prices, as employers pay more to cover their end of health plans and have less to offer employees in the way of raises	3/26/08	00:28	Ezekiel Emanuel, Victor Fuchs
ENVT	California is starting two large solar power projects that will one day generate 500 megawatts of electricity, or enough to power 300,000 homes	3/27/08	00:13	Dick Rosenblum, Molly Sterkel,
MEDI	Whoops! Turns out a Los Angeles Times story about the 1994 attack on rap star Tupac Shakur was based, at least partially, on a hoax.	3/27/08	00:09	Bob Steele
SPOR	To commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Dodgers' move from Brooklyn to Los Angeles, the baseball team will hold its March 29 exhibition game at their original stadium on the West Coast the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.	3/27/08	00:28	Frank McCourt, Nick Roman
ECON	Might it be a good time for the savvy home buyer to make a purchase? Not so fast—Credit Suisse, a huge lending firm, says that home prices have to drop another 26% in Los Angeles if they are to become more in line with income levels.	3/27/08	00:13	Peter Viles, Erin Rank
POLI	John McCain doesn't think the government should bail out distressed homeowners who face mortgages they can't pay, while Barak Obama and Hillary Clinton have both called for a bigger role for the FHA in restructuring or refinancing problem loans.	3/27/08	00:09	Thomas Davidoff
MEDI	A new film, "21," is about the story of a bunch of MIT card sharks who hit the Vegas blackjack tables, counted cards, and made a fortune. But Vegas casinos have protections against card counters... and they hit back, sometimes physically.	3/27/08	00:17	Mike Ponte, Beverly Griffin
POLI	This weekend San Jose is hosting the state Democratic Convention. The dueling democratic candidates may be ditching their Pennsylvanians primary-goers in an attempt to woo more of the crucial superdelegate votes in California.	3/28/08	00:33	Ed Espinosa, Robert Rankin, Bob Mulholland
POLI	Political reporter and author Chris Cillizza catches us up on the ever-complicated delegate count, and where the Democratic candidates stand.	3/28/08	00:09	Chris Cillizza
POLI	Felde talks about what will be accomplished this weekend, why Bill Clinton is attending the convention and how the quest for party unity is coming along	3/28/08	00:08	Kitty Felde
ECON	Could America, the land of opportunity and innovation, be slowing down? Could we be pumping out graduates without the skills and knowledge necessary to compete in the global economy?	3/28/08	00:33	Vivek Wadhwa, Robert Hoffman
MEDI	Los Angeles Times legal affairs writer Henry Weinstein is leaving the paper today, after a long and distinguished career during which he covered housing, organized labor, politics, and local government among other beats.	3/28/08	00:10	Henry Weinstein

ART	For twenty years, Dutton's Brentwood Books was a favorite place to sit and browse. But that's soon to end, with the bookstore's planned closure on April 30.	3/28/08	00:07	Doug Dutton
HEAL	A study raises questions on the effectiveness of the cholesterol drugs.	3/31/08	00:33	Harlan Krumholz
HOUS	Los Angeles urban planners are building new designs to protect residents against crime.	3/31/08	00:28	Ed Reyes, Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris, Denice Castillo
MIL	According to Congresswoman Jane Harman writing in an opinion editorial in today's Los Angeles Times, women in the military are in greater danger of being raped than of being injured in the field.	3/31/08	00:13	Jane Harman, Private First-Class in Army
ECON	As a way to protest and call attention to their plight, there is talk of a loosely organized trucking stoppage tomorrow, which could be the beginning of a bigger movement. What can the government do, to give truckers relief from high diesel prices?	3/31/08	00:18	Lee Klass, Philip Verleger
TECH	Dash Navigation has a new two-way GPS device that can connect isolated drivers and warn them about accidents, delays, and tie-ups that could delay their travel.	3/31/08	00:08	Mark Williamson
	AirTalk
SCI	Have you ever met a person who left you wondering, "How could someone be so twisted? So evil?"	1/1/08	30:00	Barbara Oakley
SCI	Larry Mantle talks with David Livingstone Smit, author of The Most Dangerous Animal: Human Nature and the Origins of War (St. Martin's Press), about his new book that delves into the evolutionary, anthropological and psychological reasons why war has continued to exist as a human compulsion.	1/1/08	30:00	David Livingstone Smith
LIT	Jill Fields speaks with Larry Mantle on a variety of topics related to the history of women's undergarments.	1/1/08	30:00	Jill Fields, Ph. D.
LIT	Author Eric Jay Dolin joins Larry Mantle to discuss his new book Leviathan , a richly detailed history of American whaling and the men who built an industrial empire through the pursuit of whales.	1/1/08	30:00	Eric Jay Dolin
EDU	Larry Mantle talks with State Senator Jack Scott about a variety of education issues including the budget crisis, proposed cuts in education funding, higher education accountability, and how all of this would impact education in California.	1/2/08	20:00	Jack Scott
POLI	Larry Mantle and guests provide a preview of the Iowa Caucuses.	1/2/08	1 hour	Sherry Bebitch Jeffe, Tom Beaumont, Joshua Green
ENT	Wednesday night several late-night talk show hosts including Jay Leno, Conan O'Brien, and Jimmy Kimmel returned to late-night TV without writers after a two month hiatus caused by the WGA strike.	1/3/08	40:00	Patric Verrone, Mary McNamara, Tom Hollihan
POLI	Larry Mantle is joined by Sherry Bebitch Jeffe, Political Analyst for KNBC and senior scholar at the USC's School of Policy, Planning and Development, and Mark Barabak LA Times Staff Writer to set the scene and provide analysis of today's Iowa Caucuses.	1/3/08	20:00	Sherry Bebitch Jeffe, Mark Barabak
POLI	On Wednesday the Justice Department opened a criminal investigation into the destruction of CIA interrogation videotapes.	1/3/08	10:00	Loch Johnson

SCI	In their new book Zoom , Iain Carson and Vijay V. Vaitheeswaran, award-winning correspondents for The Economist, show why and how geopolitical and economic forces are compelling the linked industries of oil and autos to change as never before.	1/3/08	30:00	Vijay Vaitheeswaran
POLI	Larry and a variety of political experts analyze the results of the Democratic and Republican Iowa Caucuses.	1/4/08	1 hour	Ken Rudin, Linda Feldmann, Tony West
ART	Larry talks with acclaimed filmmaker, John Sayles, about his latest movie Honeydripper , as well as his long career.	1/4/08	30:00	John Sayles, Maggie Renzi
ART	Larry and critics Claudia Puig, of USAToday , and Wade Major, of boxoffice.com and L.A. CityBeat , review the new Mexican film, The Violin , and discuss their Top Ten Films of 2007.	1/4/08	30:00	Claudia Puig, Wade Major
LAW		1/7/08	10:00	Peggy Lowe
POLI	The U.S. Supreme Court will hear arguments Monday addressing the legality of using lethal injection as a method of execution.	1/7/08	30:00	David R. Dow, John Eastman
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with journalists about where the candidates stand on the eve of the New Hampshire Primary.	1/7/08	30:00	Amy Quinton, Mark Barabak, Linda Feldman
POLI	What's more important to voters this presidential election: a candidate's personality, or a candidate's specific proposals?	1/7/08	30:00	Dr. Frank Newport
POLI		1/8/08	14:00	Evan Halper
HEAL	Autism cases in California continued to climb in 2007 despite the removal of a mercury-rich vaccine preservative that some people blame for the neurological disorder.	1/8/08	20:00	Sallie Bernard
TECH	The International CES in Las Vegas is the world's largest annual tradeshow for consumer technology.	1/8/08	20:00	Randy Skoglund
FOR		1/8/08	24:00	Christine Wormuth
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Nell Casey, editor of An Uncertain Inheritance: Writers on Caring for Family (William Morrow) about the daily struggles that confront those individuals who are caring for an ailing family member.	1/8/08	30:00	Nell Casey, Amanda Fortini
POLI	Larry Mantle and guests provide analysis of the results of last night's New Hampshire Primary election.	1/9/08	24:00	Mark Barabak, Dan Shnur
LIT	From dingy offices in Azerbaijan to the hip lofts of Manhattan, from the dimming industrial heartland of Italy to an unexpectedly modern garment factory in China, the story of the global multi-billion dollar textile industry is one of economic complexity, innovation and exploitation.	1/9/08	30:00	Rachel Louise Snyder
ECON	Governor Schwarzenegger will declare a fiscal emergency when he announces the budget at 11:00am today (Thurs).	1/10/08	24:00	Evan Halper, Jean Ross
OC	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and Gustavo Arellano, OC Weekly staff writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	1/10/08	30:00	Steve Greenhut, Gustavo Arellano
TECH	What happens to democracy and free speech if people use the Internet only to listen and speak to the like-minded?	1/10/08	30:00	Cass Sunstein
LIT	Many universities forbid intimate relationships between faculty members and students but is the "right to romance" protected by the Constitution?	1/10/08	30:00	Paul Abramson

ENV	Larry talks with United States Senator Barbara Boxer about the field hearings she called to look into the EPA's denial of California's request to regulate greenhouse gas pollution from cars.	1/11/08	10:00	Barbara Boxer
ART	Larry talks with composer Michael Giacchino about his musical score for Ratatouille, and about his career in Hollywood as a composer for both film and television.	1/11/08	30:00	Michael Giacchino
ART	Larry and critics Andy Klein of CityBeat , Jean Oppenheimer of Village Voice Media, and Charles Solomon, animation critic for amazon.com discuss the week's new films including the features First Sunday , The Pirates Who Don't Do Anything , and the documentaries Nanking and Running With Arnold .	1/11/08	30:00	Andy Klein, Jean Oppenheimer, Charles Solomon
OC	Orange County Sheriff Mike	1/14/08	14:00	Peggy Lowe, Mark Petracca
SAC	California Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger has built a reputation for "post-partisan" politics, but his budget plan, revealed Thursday, has something to anger all sides, including cuts to education and most other state programs as well as early release from the prison system of nonviolent criminal offenders.	1/14/08	40:00	Dan Weintraub
POLI	John McCain is enjoying a bounce in the national polls, just in time for Michigan's primary	1/14/08	30:00	Jack Lessenberry, Scott Martelle, Arnold Steinberg
HEAL	Larry talks with Dr. Benjamin Natelson about his new book, Your Symptoms Are Real: What to Do When Your Doctor Says Nothing Is Wrong (Wiley), that draws on his eighteen years of dedicated research into "invisible illnesses" that defy medical explanation.	1/14/08	30:00	Benjamin H. Natelson
RACE	Larry Mantle takes listener calls about race and the Presidential campaign.	1/15/08	24:00
SAC		1/15/08	30:00	Fiona Hutton, Ted Greene
FOR	A bill passed the Iraqi Parliament on Saturday that would allow some former officials of Saddam Hussein's Baathist Party to regain jobs they held before the 2003 invasion of Iraq.	1/15/08	30:00	Barbara Bodine
HIST	One hundred forty years ago, Collis Huntington Leland Stanford, Charles Crocker, and Mark Hopkins, four men known as "The Big Four" or "The Associates," rose from their position as middle-class merchants in Sacramento, California, to become the force behind the transcontinental railroad.	1/15/08	30:00	Richard Rayner
POLI	Larry discusses the Tuesday January 15th primary results from Michigan, and talks with White House Correspondent Linda Feldman on how these outcomes will affect future races for specific candidates and their parties.	1/16/08	34:00	Linda Feldman, Sherry Bebitch Jeffe, James Rainey
ENV	discusses the effect that President Bush's decision to oppose the ban of using SONAR in the California Coast will have on the whales that live in the area.	1/16/08	20:00	Wade Sanders, Joel Reynolds
LIT	Why are our children so terrified to be called "nerds"? And why are "nerds" almost impossible to find outside America?	1/16/08	20:00	David Anderegg
ECON	A slowdown in business and consumer activity combined with the ongoing housing slump, has led to a sharp downturn in financial markets, and concerns that a recession might be on the horizon.	1/17/08	24:00	Tom Petrino, Brian Naylor

IE	Larry Mantle talks with Steven Cuevas, KPCC's Inland Empire Reporter, Cassie MacDuff, columnist with The Press Enterprise , about the latest news, events, and developments in the Inland Empire.	1/17/08	30:00	Steven Cuevas, Cassie MacDuff
POLI	In his new book Liberal Fascism , columnist and author Jonah Goldberg offers his perspective on the theories and practices that define fascist politics.	1/17/08	30:00	Jonah Goldberg
LIT	Ruth Wisse, professor of comparative literature at Harvard joins Larry Mantle to discuss her theory that the Jewish people have been corrupted—not by power but by powerlessness.	1/17/08	30:00	Ruth R. Wisse
ART	Larry broadcasts live from Park City on the first day of the 2008 Sundance Film Festival.	1/18/08	1 hour	Peter Rainer, William Hurt, Sean McGinly, Colin Hanks, Randall Miller, Christopher Bell, Katrina Browne, Christine Jeffs
ART	Larry broadcasts live from Park City on the first day of the 2008 Sundance Film Festival.	1/18/08	1 hour	Scott Foundas, Elizabeth Guider, Tanaz Eshagian, Ellen Kuras, Patrick Creadon, Addison Wiggin, Marina Zenovich
POLI	In the latest Associated Press-Ipsos poll, John McCain has soared to the front of a crowded GOP field and last year's national front-runner, Rudy Giuliani, has seen his standing plummet over the past month.	1/21/08	30:00	Mark Barabak, Darry Sragow, Allan Hoffenblum
POLI	Larry moderates a debate between guests on Prop 93, also known as the Term Limits and Legislative Reform Act.	1/21/08	30:00	Susan Smartt, Kevin Spillane
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Marcus Rediker, author of The Slave Ship: A Human History (Viking), that explores all the facets of the slave ship.	1/21/08	30:00	Marcus Rediker
LIT	There are only a handful of first-person accounts by slaves who ran away and freed themselves.	1/21/08	30:00	David W. Blight
ECON	Many economists continue to say we're not facing a recession, but the global markets are following the Dow with serious declines.	1/22/08	30:00	Steve Gelsi, Chris Thornberg
TECH	Larry Mantle talks with Frontline co-producer Rachel Dretzin (with John Maggio) about their new documentary film, Growing up Online that explores the world of a cyber-savvy generation that often times finds itself spending hours online with no parental supervision or involvement.	1/22/08	30:00	Rachel Dretzin
POLI	In 1982, Democratic Party leaders created positions called super delegates, which include Congressional members, governors and all of the elected members of the Democratic National Committee.	1/22/08	30:00	Joshua Spivak
ART	The Oscar nominations were announced early this morning.	1/22/08	30:00	Henry Sheehan, John Horn
ART	The horror of watching reruns and reality shows may be coming to a close, as there are finally signs of progress in the three-month-old writers' strike.	1/23/08	20:00	Joe Adalian, Steve Skrovan, Collin Freisen, Peter Barsocchini
ECON	15 months ago Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa appointed The Los Angeles Economy and Jobs Committee, a panel of 26 business, labor and academic leaders, to research the city's economy and find ways to create new high-quality jobs and strengthen the economy.	1/23/08	10:00	Russell Goldsmith

OC	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and Gustavo Arellano, OC Weekly staff writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	1/23/08	30:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
RELI	In his new book, God in the White House: A History , author Randall Balmer tackles the question of how we got from John F. Kennedy declaring his firm belief in the separation of church and state to George W. Bush's declaration that Jesus is his favorite philosopher.	1/23/08	30:00	Randall Balmer
LIT	The story of Sudhir Venkatesh's seven years spent with one of the most violent crack-dealing gangs in some of the worst projects in the country.	1/23/08	30:00	Sudhir Venkatesh
ECON	KQED Forum host Michael Krasny and Jeffrey Callison, host of Capital Public Radio's Insight talk to Jed Kolko of Public Policy Institute of California and take calls from listeners across the state about how well the campaigns are addressing the economic concerns of California voters.	1/24/08	1 hour	Jed Kolko
IMM	Tom Fudge, host of These Days on KPBS and AirTalk host Larry Mantle talk with pollster Mark DiCamillo about the recent Field Poll looking at the importance of illegal immigration and the war in Iraq to California voters.	1/24/08	1 hour	Mark DiCamillo
ENV	It's wet and it's cold and it's taking a toll on the region, but will it help stave off a drought come spring and summer?	1/25/08	14:00	Bob Muir, Joseph Cassmassi, Douglas Morton
ECON	Part of Washington's economic stimulus plan will provide almost a year of cheaper loans for Californians to refinance higher-cost homes.	1/25/08	10:00	Guy Cecala
ENV	At the end of the month the California Assembly will vote on the "Clean Car Discount Bill" (AB 493), which would offer rebates for "clean cars" and would impose tax penalties on large, inefficient vehicles.	1/25/08	30:00	Ira Ruskin, Brian Maas
LIT	Nothing about filmmaker Otto Preminger was small, trivial, or self-denying.	1/25/08	20:00	Foster Hirsch
ENT	Larry and critics Claudia Puig, of USA Today , and Henry Sheehan, of henrysheehan.com discuss many of the past two weeks' new films including the features Cassandra's Dream , 27 Dresses , Untraceable , The Air I Breathe , Mad Money , Rambo , and Cloverfield , and the documentaries Taxi to the Dark Side , and The Business of Being Born .	1/25/08	40:00	Claudia Puig, Henry Sheehan
POLI	Results of the Democratic Primary on Saturday.	1/28/08	24:00	Mara Liason, Chris Lehane
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Elisabeth Bumiller, author of the new biography about Condoleezza Rice, Condoleezza Rice: An American Life that chronicles the life of the current Secretary of State.	1/28/08	30:00	Elisabeth Bumiller
POLI	Preview of tomorrow's Republican Primary in Florida.	1/28/08	30:00	Linda Feldman, Dan Schnur
LIT	In The Mind of the Market , Skeptics Society founder and frequent Airtalk guest Michael Shermer studies the function of the human brain in markets.	1/28/08	30:00	Michael Shermer
POLI	Larry talks with Patty Solis Doyle, Campaign Manager for Hillary Clinton's Presidential campaign, about what Senator Ted Kennedy's endorsement of Barack Obama means for the Clinton campaign.	1/29/08	10:00	Patty Solis Doyle

SAC	Governor Schwarzenegger's effort to reform California's health care system has failed. The Senate Health Committee rejected the bill the governor negotiated with Democratic leaders.	1/29/08	20:00	Dan Walters, Anthony Wright
POLI	City Councilman Richard Alarcon has proposed a law that would require pet owners living within the City of Los Angeles to spay or neuter their dogs and cats by four months of age.	1/29/08	20:00	Richard Alarcon, Carol Hamilton
POLI	Larry talks with Jack Shaw, congressional reporter for Market News International, about the atmosphere in the House Chamber during President Bush's State of the Union speech last night.	1/29/08	10:00	Jack Shaw
LIT	Larry Mantle talks with Dr. Susan Wicklund, author of the new book, This Common Secret: My Journey as an Abortion Doctor (PublicAffairs), that chronicles Wicklund's twenty years on the front lines as an abortion doctor, and as a women's reproductive health advocate.	1/29/08	30:00	Susan Wicklund, M.D.,
POLI	Larry Mantle and his guests analyze the results of yesterday's (Tue) primary election in Florida and the subsequent developments in both the democratic and republican Presidential races.	1/30/08	54:00	Mark Barabak, Ron Elving Ken Rudin
RELI	Larry Mantle discusses the New Baptist Covenant Celebration, a meeting beginning Wednesday in Atlanta that will bring together different factions of the Baptist faith to work together on social issues.	1/30/08	30:00	Bill Underwood, Dr. Richard Land
ART	Larry talks with Leonard Nimoy, the 76 year-old actor-turned-photographer whose latest photos of obese nudes are on exhibit at the Louis Stern Fine Arts gallery in West Hollywood.	1/30/08	30:00	Leonard Nimoy
POLI	The latest from the campaign trail	1/31/08	24:00	Dan Schnur, Bill Carrick
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with guests in favor of and opposed to Proposition S which restores an illegal tax on cell phones but reduces the tax rate from the original 10 % to 9%.	1/31/08	30:00	Thomas Saenz, Joseph Mailander
SCI	Scientists are learning more and more about the significant role the nose plays in sexual attraction in human beings.	1/31/08	30:00	Rachel Herz
POLI	Terry McAuliffe, Chairman of national Hillary Clinton for President Campaign.	2/1/08	10:00	Terry McAuliffe
POLI	Edward Kennedy, Democratic Senator from Massachusetts.	2/1/08	10:00	Edward Kennedy
POLI	Larry Mantle discusses Proposition 92 that would impact community college funding, fees and governance.	2/1/08	20:00	Dr. Jamilla Moore, Bonnie Shatun
ART	Writer Ronald Harwood is a 2007 Academy Award nominee for Best Adapted screenplay for his script The Diving Bell and the Butterfly .	2/1/08	30:00	Ronald Harwood
ART	Larry and critics Jean Oppenheimer, of Village Voice Media , and Wade Major, of boxoffice.com and CityBeat discuss some of the past week's new films including Over Her Dead Body , Tre , Liberty Kid , Caramel , Last Year at Marienbad and 4 Months, 3 Weeks, and 2 Days .	2/1/08	30:00	Jean Oppenheimer, Wade Major
ART	Larry Mantle and animation critic and historian Charles Solomon talk with screenwriter and director of "Ratatouille," Brad Bird about his Academy Award nominated film and about his career in animation.	2/4/08	30:00	Charles Solomon, Brad Bird

POLI	Larry checks in with KPCC reporters at various polling places, and with reporters across the country to discuss the latest on voter turnout.	2/5/08	54:00	Susan Valot, Kitty Felde, Brooke Binkowski, Nicole Lozare, Ben Calhoun, Andrea Bernstein, Fred Thys, Bill Raack, Kerri Miller,
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with presidential election historian Allan Lichtman about how this year's primary stands out compared to primaries of years past.	2/5/08	30:00	Allan Lichtman
POLI	Latino Vote	2/6/08	1 hour	David Menefee-Libey, Dan Schnur, Fernando Guerra
POLI	Mitt Romney drops out of presidential race.	2/7/08	40:00	Douglas Kmiec, Mark Barabak, Dan Schnur
OC	Larry Mantle talks with William Lobdell, City Editor of the Orange County Edition of the Los Angeles Times , Orange County Register senior editorial writer and columnist, Steven Greenhut, and Gustavo Arellano, OC Weekly staff writer about the latest news events and developments in Orange County.	2/7/08	20:00	Steve Greenhut, William Lobdell, Gustavo Arellano
ENV	The California Coastal Commission has rejected a proposal to extend an Orange County toll road through San Onofre State Beach Park.	2/7/08	30:00	Sarah Christie, Matt McClain, Lance MacLean
LIT	National Book Award Winner William T. Vollmann joins Larry Mantle to recount his travels across the western United States by boxcar, train-hopping with a motley crew of outcasts who share his disdain for the current state of affairs in America.	2/7/08	30:00	William Vollmann
ENV	Two environmental groups have announced plans to sue the Port of Long Beach over diesel pollution.	2/8/08	20:00	David Pettit, Mario Cordero
ECON	A 168-billion-dollar economic stimulus package has been sent to Pres. Bush by Congress.	2/8/08	10:00	Jack Shaw
POLI	What will it take to solve the biggest issues of our time: poverty, global warming, terrorism, violence, health care, racism, etc?	2/8/08	30:00	Jim Wallis
ART	Persepolis is the coming-of-age story of a precocious and outspoken young Iranian girl that begins during the Islamic Revolution	2/8/08	20:00	Marjane Satrapi
ART	Larry talks with Amy Ryan about her Academy Award nominated performance as Helene McCready in Gone Baby Gone and her career.	2/8/08	10:00	Amy Ryan
ART	Larry and critics Peter Rainer, of the Christian Science Monitor , and Andy Klein of CityBeat review some of the week's new feature films including Fool's Gold , In Bruges , Welcome Home Roscoe Jenkins , The Hottie and the Nottie , and Military Intelligence and You! , as well as the documentaries Billy the Kid and Vince Vaughn's Wild West Comedy Show .	2/8/08	30:00	Peter Rainer, Andy Klein
ART	Larry Mantle talks with Patric Verrone, President of the WGA West about the details of the strike settlement.	2/11/08	24:00	Patric Verrone
FOR	The Pentagon says it will seek the death penalty for six Guantanamo Bay detainees.	2/11/08	30:00	Charles Stimson
LIT	Author Michael Pollan joins Larry Mantle to talk about what to eat, what not to eat and how we should think about our health in today's daunting dietary environment where most of what we're consuming is not food but rather "nutrients" or "edible food substances."	2/11/08	30:00	Michael Pollan
POLI	Nonpartisan voters in Los Angeles County who voted in last Tuesday's presidential primaries have gotten the short end of the stick.	2/12/08	34:00	Rick Hasen, Rick Jacobs

HEAL	The L.A. Times has obtained a letter sent from Blue Cross to a physician that asked the Doctor to provide medical information about new patients seeking to be insured by Blue Cross.	2/12/08	20:00	David Aizuss
HEAL	Deaths from prescription drug overdoses are on the rise.	2/12/08	30:00	Greg Thompson, PhD, Richard Rawson, PhD
ENT	Best known as a comedienne and red-carpet fashion laureate, Joan Rivers is also a Tony nominated actress; best-selling author	2/12/08	30:00	Joan Rivers
POLI	Larry Mantle talks with Superdelegates and take listener calls about the role of Superdelegates in the Presidential election.	2/13/08	30:00	Sherry Bebitch Jeffe, Art Torres, Brad Sherman
FOR	Larry and his guests discuss the ongoing violence in Darfur.	2/13/08	1 hour	Shashank Bengali, Scott Baldauf, Ambassador Jan Eliasson, Ambassador Donald Steinberg