| 9/30/13 | EDU | Since it began the first phase of its roll out, the LAUSD's $1-billion iPad program has been plagued with issues. First, some 300 students figured out how to unlock the security feature on the devices so they could use them to surf prohibited websites, which led the district to ban kids from taking their iPads home. A couple days later, school district officials said that about 70 iPads -- out of about 14,000 issued so far -- had gone missing. | John Deasy, | 16:00 |
| 9/30/13 | EDU | A report released today by California Attorney Kamala D. Harris finds that nearly 1 million California elementary school students are truant each year -- that's one out of every four pupils. School districts receive education dollars based on student attendance. Between 2010-2011, Los Angeles County lost $340 million, the report said, because of kids skipping school. | Lydia Bodin, Ashley Franklin | 16:00 |
